

The Most Important Magazine of the Month

IS THE FEBRUARY NUMBER OF THE

BURR MCINTOSH MONTHLY

IT HAS BECAUSE IT HAS

50 Magnificent Illustrations selected from among thousands of subjects, exquisitely printed with the art tone inks. Among these pictures are

30 Full Page Plates
every one worthy a frame. There is also a special section which contains eight of the most beautiful photographic art studies ever published, printed in color on fine enamel paper; any one of these above would sell at 50 cents in any art store.

Color Section

The Mysterious North Star
by GARRETT P. SERVISS, the eminent astronomer, is an article of unusual interest which discloses many hitherto unknown facts about this extraordinary planet.

The Problem of the Railroads is the result of a series of conferences with President W. C. BROWN of the New York Central Railroad, President E. P. RIPLEY of the Atlantic Railroad, President ALFRED PETERS of the Long Island Railroad. It presents this subject of national importance from the intimate viewpoint of the men who run the roads, and is calculated to interest every thoughtful person.

The Confessions of Nero
by WALLACE IRWIN. The most amazingly humorous article that this well-known author has ever written. It is strikingly original in tone and the illustrations will make you gasp for breath.

The Pinkertons, the Police, and the Crooks by O'CONNOR DOUGLAS, is an article from material furnished by the author by a reformed confidence man who has operated in this country and Europe for over thirty years and who writes of startling conditions little known to the general public.

Besides other articles and stories we must mention two crackjack stories: The Watcher in the Pit by MAXIMILIAN FOSTER, the most absorbing story of vengeance carried across two continents and an ocean.

Unmolested Molly
a most delightful story by EDNA KENTON. Both these stories are profusely illustrated from drawings.

WOMAN AND FASHION

House Party Frock.

A most convenient and attractive dress to slip into the trunk for a house party. It is simple, will not take long to make and may be adapted for evening or afternoon, according to the material used. The illustration shows it made of olive green velvet, with tunic and sleeves of silk cashmere of same color. The yoke and lower part of the sleeves are tucked chiton cloth of self color over net threaded with gold. A narrow band of black satin edges the tunic, and the whole is further trimmed with soutache in a darker shade of green. The tunic is belted in front, while in back it wrinkles gracefully at the waist and is fastened on a touch of black is used on the sleeves and around the top of the collar. The velvet underskirt is of a plain circular cut.

Rhinestone Hatpins.

Now that hatpins play such an important part in the accessories of the correctly dressed girl and woman they are much more carefully chosen and matched up than formerly. Four, at the least, are required to hold the modern hat securely on the head, and in many cases five and six are worn. It is the correct thing this winter, as it was last summer, to have the hatpins alike; if not in shape, the stones should be the same, and in the arts and crafts plus the design and enamel correspond in each.

The preferred pin for this winter is set with rhinestones, the bugle head being in cabochon, oval or diamond shape. With the satin beaver hats and those of silky fur and panne velvet these pins are exceptionally smart. Another very good looking set of pins has huge cloudy cabochon sapphires surrounded with jet rhinestones, and those of faceted jet are also popular.

Gaiters to Match Your Hat.

It is English and a custom which many women on this side have adopted to look carefully to the gaiters when out for a walk.

They are checked and are worn to match the covered hat. Blue and white gaiters look smart with a blue turban, gray and white with the gray, brown and black with the brown, and so on through the variety of tones of this winter's millinery.

This "mania for matching," as one observing man called it, necessitates a good supply of gaiters, but the possession of a variety gives a certain distinct individuality to the outfit of a woman.

Velvet in the Hair.

Women who can wear a flat band around the head, and the majority of them can, are substituting this for the heavy coil of hair worn under the hat.

The ribbon for evening and makes the color quite brilliant. It carries out the color scheme of the gown. The pastel shades, which are commonly considered suitable for the hair, are rarely used. Instead one sees plum purple, royal blue, burgundy red, plum black, jade green and sapphire.

Satin and velvet ribbon are used; also tulle. The oriental style of using this ribbon is to tuck it above the ears with jeweled cabochons.

New Umbrella Top.

One of the big shops shows distinctly new and clever inventions in umbrellas. There is a national round gold top which opens with a tiny spring to disclose a fascinating little vanity box with mirror framed in the gold top, crystal lined hollow for powder and a tiny puff.

The lid of the box is jeweled or engraved with a monogram. Other umbrellas with tall directors handles have leashes of plaited leather, some in red, green and white curled around them like a whip.

With elaborate costumes of flowered brocade are worn, and these are veiled with fine spotted net or rows and rows of fine Valenciennes lace joined with fine gold or silver beads.

Test All His Money.

Often all a man seems good to doctors or for medicines to cure a stomach, liver or kidney trouble that Dr. King's New Life Pills would quickly cure at slight cost. Best for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Constipation, Jaundice, Malaria and Debility. Also all drugs.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

British Columbia Indians.
The Redskins of British Columbia is a good farmer, and his house is scrupulously clean. Usually it consists of two or three rooms and cellar, where supplies are kept.

Mosquitoes of India.
The mosquitoes of India have great fun with the bicyclists. They not only lance the riders, but actually puncture the bicycle tires.

Flat Noses Considered Beautiful.
In ancient Persia an aquiline nose was often thought worthy of the crown, but the Sumatran mother carefully flattens the nose of her daughter. Among some of the savage tribes continual pressure is applied to the skull in order to flatten it and thus give it a new beauty.

Deaths and Births at Sea.
For every birth occurring at sea there are about three deaths.

LAME EVERY MORNING

A Bad Back is Always Worse in the Morning. New Bern People Are Finding Relief.

A back that aches all day and causes discomfort at night is usually worse in the morning. Makes you feel as if you hadn't slept at all.

Can't cure a bad back until you cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys—make you feel better, work better, rest better, and sleep better.

Permanent cures in New Bern prove the merit of Doan's.

A. L. Bryan, 123 E. Front St., New Bern, N. C., says: "I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as I know this remedy deserves all that can be said in its favor. Often my back was so lame that I could hardly arise in the morning. The kidney secretions were unnatural, contained a sediment and plainly indicated the source of my trouble. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at Bradham's Pharmacy and had taken but a few doses before I found that I was being helped. I continued their use and was soon completely cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

One Way.

"You can always tell a gentleman by his shoes."
"Yes, all's well that ends well."
Harvard Lampoon.

A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by all dealers.

College and School.

First public schools in America were established in New England about 1642.

The largest delegation of foreign students attending American colleges last year was sent by Canada—242.

The sudden demand for popular education in China is shown by the fact that the school attendance in one province alone has increased 8,000 per cent in five years.

Mrs. Susan Lincoln Mills, surviving founder of Mills college, in California, and for twenty-five years its president, resigned recently, and Mrs. Lucella Clay Carson was formally inaugurated president in her place.

An Issue on Foot.
"In these days of protest against bribery and the use of money in campaigns."

While it is often impossible to prevent an accident, it is never impossible to be prepared—it is not beyond any one's power. Invest 25 cents in a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and you are prepared for sprains, bruises and like injuries. Sold by all dealers.

Pet Birds in Pekin.
In the streets of Pekin are to be seen a large number of pet birds carried on sticks, to which they are cruelly attached by strings. The Chinese possess a peculiar faculty for the training of these birds, which fly away for a short flight and return to perch upon the stick, when they receive a little sweet food.
