WOUNDED BANKER GETTING WELL

No Further Statements Are Likely In The Cudahy-Lillis Trouble.

Kansas City Mo., March 9—Jere Lillis, president of the Western Exchange Bank, who was attacked by John P. Cudahy, the millionaire packer, at the Cudahy home here early Sunday morning, was not sufficiently recovered today to be removed from St. Mary's Hospital. A nurse from the hospital, however, said this morning that Mr. Lillis' condition was improved. The cuts on his face and body, she said were healing nicely, but after a consultation had been held it was decided not to transfer the patient to his home before tomorrow.

The definite announcement that Lillis would not prefer a formal charge against Cudahy renders doubtful the probability that and farther details of the circumstances that led up to the trouble will never be made public. Both Lillis and Cudahy still firmly refuse to make a statement in regard to the affair. The county prosecutor has announced that he will make no effort to prosecute Cudahy if no one files a formal charge against him unless Lillis should die from his injuries. The physicians say the banker will surely recover.

John Moss, the chauffeur who was present when the attack on Lillis was made, has not been found, although the police have made a diligent search for him.

General John C. Cowan, of Omaha, father of Mrs. Cudahy, went out to the Cudahy home from his hotel early today.

FOUR CONVICTS MAKE ESCAPE

Frank Wooten A Desperate Negro Criminal, Assaults Guard And With Four Other Prisoners Make Dash For Free.

One of the most daring escapes in the history of the county occurred yesterday morning near Willett's crossing a few miles from this city when Frank Wooten, a notorious lawbreaker who was serving a term of 18 months on the county roads assaulted guard V. R. Wood and after beating him into almost a state of unconsciousness made his escape accompanied by four other convicts all of whom were colored and who were serving short terms.

Guard Wood's Statement.

After leaving the jail yesterday morning with the gang of convicts, 9 in number, over which I had charge, we went to Willett's crossing a cross-road a few miles from the city, and the men were put to work cleaning out the ditches.

There seemed to be no excitement of any kind among the men and fearing no trouble I took my gun and went to the top of the bank where I sat down with my gun in hand all the while keeping a sharp watch on the prisoners. In some unexplained way Frank Wooten, with whom I had considerable trouble during the past few weeks, secured a brick and while I was watching one of the other prisoners threw the missile at me striking me first up on the back of my right hand then glancing to my side.

I was totally unprepared for the attack and the blow rendered me practically unable to defend myself. Wooten then secured my gun and with four other convicts made his escape.

Search Being Made.

Five of the prisoners who were in the gang did not attempt to make their escape and with these guard Wood returned to the city and reported the matter to the sheriff. A diligent search is now being made and it is more than probable that they will be apprehended.

Although guard Wood's injuries are very painful they are not thought to be serious.

Bloodhounds Sent For.

After a searching party had left for the scene accompanied by county officials the sheriff sent a telegram to the Chief of Police at Tarboro, requesting him to send his bloodhounds. This the Chief of Police consented to do but much time was consumed in getting the dogs in readiness and they failed to catch the eastbound train.

SHORT PASSING EVENTS

In the new drama "The White Squaw" which will be seen at the Masonic Theatre tonight Manager Taylor presents a play that has been one of the surprises of the season. The Fall River, Mass. Daily News, recently said of the play. "D. M. Clarke's original comedy drama, 'The White Squaw' was favorably received at the Academy of Music on Saturday afternoon and again in the evening, being entirely different from all previous local productions of this season. Della Clarke gave a fine interpretation of the leading role, that of White Squaw and she was ably supported. Tickets now on sale at Waters' Store.

Here's a quarter. Send this letter for me. It's no longer a measly 11c. ten-word telegram. It's a letter now—a night. That's the arrangement that went into effect Tuesday night with both the Postal and the Western Union Telegraph companies all over the United States. The rules regarding the sending of these letters are practically the same for both companies. The charge for night letter telegrams of fifty words or less will be the regular day rate for ten words, and with this rate will be charged for each. They must be written in plain English, neither code or cipher being accepted at this rate. They will be accepted for transmission at night and will be delivered next morning.
