NEW SHORT STORIES

Dolliver and the Pickpocket.

The son of a Methodist minister, Senator Dolliver of Iowa entered early upon a political career. He had the old fashioned way of using anecdotes to illustrate his points, which was then considered effective, though he may have changed his style with the times. He is one of the orators who frankly admit that they "like to talk," a motto he thinks he may have inherited from his father and grandfather, the latter a Massachusetts seafaring man whose cargo of cotton during the war of 1812 was confiscated by General Jackson. If he had his grandson's eloquence it is probable that he made some remarks that would have been worthy of preservation. When preaching on a ## Tree Branches.

The white poplar can be used as a natural lightning rod.

An oak tree of average size, with 700,000 leaves, lifts from the earth about 123 tons of water during the five months it is in leaf.

Among our nut bearing trees the hickories are perhaps the best known. They are strictly North American trees. None now grow in any other part of the world. There are fourteen known species. One grows in Mexico, while the other thirteen grow east of the Rocky mountains.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May be Sapping Your Life Away. New Bern People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is a New Bern testimony to prove it.

Mrs. Crawford Pennington, 27 E. Front St., New Bern, N. C., says: "I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as I have used them with the most satisfactory results. I suffered a great deal from backache and sharp, shooting pains across my loins. At times my back became so lame that I could hardly stoop, and it was difficult for me to arise in the morning on this account. Irregular passages of the kidney secretions convinced me that my kidneys were out of order, and when Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me, I procured a box, from Bradman's Pharmacy. Short use put an end to the pain in my back, corrected the kidney difficulty and benefitted me more than any other remedy I had ever taken. Anyone suffering from kidney trouble will do well to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Only For Baby's Sake.

"Professor William Frear of the Pennsylvania State college," said Herman E. Winter of Philadelphia, "not so very long ago discussed in Harrisburg the eighty-three kinds of breakfast food that he recently tested for the government."

"Most of them were very good," said Professor Frear. "The taste test in most cases was pleasure rather than work. To make work out of it would be to act like a little boy I knew in Bellefonte."

"This little boy's mother went the other day to a reception, leaving the baby in Jimmy's care. With an injured look Jimmy said on her return: 'Mamma, I wish you wouldn't make me mind the baby again. He was so bad that I had to eat two mince pies and half the fruit cake to amuse him.'"

Rather Unflattering.

"Radgley Kipling is a good looking chap," said a Chicago Journalist. He looked about him doubtfully.

"Kipling," he went on, "is a very good looking indeed—a solid, squat, substantial, square headed figure of a man."

"Of course he is no Howitt, no hero of romance. I must say, though, that the young Chicago girl at Engelberg's was a great admirer of the 'Brahmwood Boy' and other Kipling pieces. I must say that this girl acted rather foolishly when, on being introduced to Kipling, she cried reproachfully, with tears in her eyes:

"Oh, I thought you were tall and handsome!"

The Poet's Fame.

Richard La Gallienne, the poet, was entertaining a group of magazine editors at luncheon in New York.

To a compliment upon his fame Mr. La Gallienne said lightly:

"But what is poetical fame in this age of prose? Only yesterday a school boy came and asked me for my autograph. I assented willingly. And to day at breakfast time the boy again presented himself.

"Will you give me your autograph, sir?" he said.

"But," said I, "I gave you my autograph yesterday."

"I swapped that and a dollar," he answered, "for the autograph of Jim Jeffries."

Masks as an Art.

Dr. Lyman Abbott at a dinner in New York interrupted with a witticism a chorus of volutes praising the oratorical powers of the suffragette.

"How true it is," said Dr. Abbott, "that, as Keats said, a thing of beauty may be a joy forever."

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so?

The general health of women is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round forms where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from these troubles have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as strictly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.
