OFFICIAL PAPER OF NEW BERN AND CRAVEN COUNTY.

New Bern, N. C. March 27, 1910

EXPLOSION OF A MARE'S NEST.

There are men in places of trust, public and corporate, who expect exposure of their malfeasance or dishonesty in office at any time.

For weeks past, there has been local curiosity, if not a stronger sentiment, in the matter of indictment of several members of the board of aldermen.

Better than Spanking. Spanking does not cure children on bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble.

A Story They Tell on Craven.

They are telling a story in Craven of an experience of Craven at the New York postoffice that Postmaster Morgan possibly may not have heard.

The postal official suddenly appeared to have been struck by a bright idea. "You claim to be Craven, do you? Well, then, you can easily prove it. 'Sting us something!'" Taken aback at the request, Signor Craven hesitated.

Be it ordained by the board of aldermen of the city of New Bern, North Carolina, that an election be called for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the city the question of the approval of the issuance of $50,000 of bonds to pay for said improvements.

Whereas by an ordinance duly passed by this board upon the 7th day of Sept. 1909, it was determined to improve certain streets in this city, and that an election be called for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the city the question of the approval of the issuance of $50,000 of bonds to pay for said improvements.

Whereas due notice, as required by law, was given of said election, which election was duly held upon the 13th day of October 1909, and a majority of the qualified voters voted in favor of the issuance of said bonds, and

Whereas the Supreme Court of North Carolina has held said bonds to be valid obligations of the city of New Bern, and said bonds have been duly sold at a price above par and accrued interest, but have not yet been executed or delivered, therefore be it

Resolved that the form of said bonds shall be substantially as follows: United States of America, State of North Carolina, county of Craven city of New Bern, No.—5 per cent street improvement bond, $1000.00.

Know all men by these presents, that the city of New Bern, Craven county, North Carolina acknowledge itself to owe and for value received hereby promises to pay to bearer, upon the 1st day of April, the sum of one thousand dollars in lawful money of the United States of America, with interest thereon at the rate of 5 per cent per annum payable semiannually upon the first days of April and October of each year, until the payment of the principal thereof, upon presentation and surrender of the proper coupons, therefore hereto attached. Both principal and interest hereof, are payable at Importers and Traders National Bank, New York city, N. Y.

This bond is one of a series of fifty bonds of like denomination, tenor and effect, numbered consecutively from one to fifty, inclusive, and is issued under authority of an act of the General Assembly of the state of North Carolina, known as Chapter 82 of the Private Laws of 1899, as amended by Chapter 51 of the Private Laws of 1907, and by virtue of certain ordinances duly passed by the Board of Aldermen of the city of New Bern for that purpose.

It is hereby certified and recited that all acts, conditions and things required by law to be done, precedent to and in the issuance hereof, in order to make this bond a legal, valid and binding obligation of the city of New Bern, North Carolina, have been done, have happened and been performed in regular and due form; that this issue of bonds, together with all other outstanding indebtedness of said city, is not in excess of any statutory or constitutional limitation of indebtedness; that provision has been made for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on these bonds and to provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal hereof as maturity; that the full faith, credit and revenues, and all the real and personal property of said city, are hereby irrevocably pledged for the prompt payment of this bond, and interest, as the nature.

In Witness Whereof, the city of New Bern, North Carolina, has caused this bond to be signed by its Mayor, countersigned by its City Clerk, the seal of said city to be affixed, and the coupons to bear the fac-simile signature of the City Clerk at New Bern, North Carolina, this 23rd day of March, 1910.

Mayor, [Signature]

City Clerk, [Signature]

Countersigned: [Signature]

The coupon shall be substantially in the following form, to-wit: No. $5.00

Upon the first day of April (October) 19, the city of New Bern, Craven County, North Carolina, will pay to bearer, at the Importers and Traders National Bank, New York City, N. Y. the sum of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars, being six months interest then due on its street improvement bond, number [Number], dated April 1, 1910.

City Clerk, [Signature]

It is further ordained that when the maturity of said bonds has been paid into the treasury, said bonds, when duly executed, shall be delivered to the possessor.

W. PATTERSON, City Clerk.
