BRIDGETON ITEMS.

March 30th-We are having such loverly spring weather, it makes one feel like he wants to be out in the open air all the time.

Easter has come and gone; we had a lovely day for it, our Sunday school was well attended, and Rev. J. M. Wright gave us a splendid sermon in the morning and at night the Sunday school had an Easter service in the church, which was filled to its utmost long before the All members of Camp New Bern U services began. The children did well in offered to the ones that raised the largest amount in the Easter offering. The first prize was given to Miss Mabel Pugh, she having raised the largest amount. The second prize was given to Mise Emms Davis, she being the next highest., The church was beautifully lecorated with Easter lillies, palms and potted plants.

Mrs. N. M. Farrow's mother, Mrs. Leggett, who has been visiting her She was accompanied home by Mrs. Brewer.

Mr. W. O. Williams, of Beaufort, was in town last week visiting relatives and friends.
