NEGRO MAN IS LYNCHED

Mob of Two Thousand Took Negro's Body, Hanged it and Cut His Throat.

Meridian, Miss., April 14.—Tom O'Neil, negro who shot and killed jailer Temple here was shot and killed by the officers in a fight in the basement of the jail.

Later on O'Neil was shot by the officers after he had fired four shots at them. O'Neil's companion Geo. Williams a negro was shot in the leg. A mob of nearly two thousand people took the body of O'Neil, who was expiring carried it to a telephone pole a block distant where it was strung up. After the body was lowered the throat was cut and the negro's clothing saturated with kerosene and set on fire, but was rescued from the mob after the clothing had been burned from the body.

Geo. Williams, was placed in a cell after O'Neil had been killed. The mob insisted on securing him but no assault had been made on the jail. Judge Buckley who is holding court here in an address counseled moderation and it is not believed further efforts will be made to lynch Williams, although great excitement prevails. ### Pollocksville News.

April 12.—The people of this community have heard with great grief of the death of Rev. S. H. Isler, of Goldsboro, who was pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place.

Rev. Mr. Isler was loved and respected not only by his own congregation, but by the people of every sect and creed.

His was not a life of narrow denominationalism, but of broad conservative manhood.

Mr. Isler has been in the service in this community for about 30 years, and had grown stronger and stronger with his people year by year. The church at this place properly regarded him as its founder and father, and today all the people mourn his loss.

Knowing Mr. Isler as we do, the purity and nobility of his every thought and act, we are led to believe that when the final hour came, and the icy waters of death beat hard against his little boat, he heard the still small voice whispering "Peace be still," and from the great beyond came the voice of God, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of the Lord."

CARMACK'S SLAYER IS PARDONED

Governor, Patterson Issues Pardon to Col. Duncan B. Cooper Who Shot Senator Carmack

Nashville, Tenn., April 14.—A sensation equaling that which inflamed Tennessee in November, 1908, when former United States Senator Edward Ward Carmack was shot and killed on Nashville's streets, was the pardoning by Governor Patterson yesterday of Col. Duncan B. Cooper, who, with his son, Robert B. Cooper, was convicted of the murder of Carmack. The issuance of the pardon on the governor's own initiative, without a formal petition being filed, followed quickly the reading of the opinion of the Tennessee Supreme court affirming the verdict of guilty in the case of Colonel Cooper, under sentence of 20 years in the penitentiary, and reversing the lower court in the case of Robin Cooper, who was sentenced to a like period for the Carmack murder.

Governor Patterson wrote the full pardon for Colonel Cooper and filed it with the secretary of the state while Chief Justice Beard was yet reading a dissenting opinion in the case of Colonel Cooper. In a statement given to the press the governor said:

"In my opinion neither of the defendants is guilty and they have not had a fair and impartial trial, but were convicted contrary to the law and the evidence."
