Large Capital is Vital

Whether your lawyer or your doctor has much or little money is immaterial to you. The quality of their service does not depend on Capital.

But your bank—that is different, for no amount of personal willingness on the part of your banker, can take the place of the ability to serve that goes only with the possession of large capital.

With these facts in mind the $200,000.00 Capital of this Bank becomes a matter of serious import in choosing a Bank.

LARGE WHALE WRECKS VESSEL

Crew Escapes After Big Fish Shatters Hull With Tail

Juneau, Alaska, May 17.—An unusual disaster befell the whaler Sorenson, owned by the Tye Whaling Company, of San Francisco, when it was wrecked last Thursday by a blow of a whale's tail off Cape Carmaney.

A harpooned whale crushed the hull of the whaler so that the vessel sank in four minutes. All the crew escaped in small boats.

The crew camped on the shore, and were picked up the following night. The whale was found dead the next day.

Finds Keg of Beer

While searching for a negro yesterday morning for whom they had a warrant, several of the policemen discovered a keg of beer in a vacant house near Five Points.

After a consultation among themselves the officers decided to lock the beer up in one of the closets and take a sample to headquarters to be used as evidence. This was done and the building watched during the remainder of the day to see if any one came after the refreshments but evidence by the owner "got wise" for he did not show up.

This is the second time during the past few weeks that beer has been found in unoccupied buildings.

ARGUMENT BEGINS TODAY

In Case of Blakely vs. Buckeye Co. Much Interest Manifested In the Case.

When Superior Court convened yesterday morning the case of Blakely vs. Buckeye Co. et al in which the plaintiff is suing for the recovery of a tract of timber land, and which was continued from the preceding day was called.

The entire session was taken up with securing the testimony of the witnesses, of whom there are quite a number, and at 4:30 o'clock, after the last witness had been examined court took a recess until this morning at 9:30.

When the session convenes today the counsel in the case will begin their arguments, and it is more than probable that this will take up the entire session and that the case will not be concluded until tomorrow.

One Hundred Ladies Present

Broiled steak, baked potatoes, lemon and tutti frutti pie, were the demonstrations given by Mrs. Jacquelin at the Gas Company's room yesterday, and one hundred ladies, who were also housekeepers profited by being present. Mrs. Jacquelin does not merely tell off recipes to housekeepers but shows the practical side of their use in the results secured by using a gas range; its simplicity, cleanliness and economy. This morning at 10 a. m. the demonstration will be of interest, fish, potatoes, clarifying fat and puff paste will be present, of Mrs. Jacquelin, and every housekeeper who can, should be on time and witness the entire demonstration.

SCARED BY COMET LEAPS IN SEA

A Virginian on Board Steamship Ends Life While Cruized With Fear.

Philadelphia, May 17.—Terrorized at the sight of Halley's comet, Virgin Mathews, a passenger on the steamer Admiral Schley, of the United Fruit Co. arriving here today, leaped overboard while the vessel was steaming up the Atlantic coast. Lifeboats were lowered, but the man's body did not come to the surface.

When the comet appeared on the horizon Captain Mader called all the passengers on deck. Mathews grew nervous and shook with terror. A few minutes later he climbed over the ship's rail and threw himself in the sea.

Mathews was a Virginian, and had booked passage for Baltimore.

Runway Yesterday Morning

Becoming frightened at some trivial object a horse that was driven by Geo. Crispin, a colored hack driver, became unmanageable near the court house and dashed down Broad street at a pretty lively clip. When in front of the Broad Street Grocery Company the animal ran up on the sidewalk and a bicycle and crate of strawberries that were in the path of the vehicle were totally demolished. In turning off of the sidewalk the buggy which was attached to the horse struck a vehicle belonging to George Eubanks and turned it over. The animal was finally brought to a standstill near Jones' livery stable without any further damage being done.

Neither the colored driver or the frightened animal were injured during the flight.
