Care in Money Matters

Much money is lost by those who fail to keep accurate account of their income and outgo. Few make success of personal bookkeeping if they pay in cash.

The only practical way to have a complete record of expenditures and to secure a receipt for every payment, is to carry a checking account here and to pay all bills by check.

No business house would do otherwise and the simplicity of the plan adapts it quite as well to individuals.

NO PRIZE FIGHT NEWS

Western Union Will Confine Itself to Transmitting Business.

New York, June 29.—General manager Brooks, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, issued notice today that the company would not furnish news bulletins either by special wire, by message or on its tickers, relating to the progress of the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight at Reno, Nev., on the 4th of July.

Numerous applications have been made for such services in various parts of the country. The Western Union Co. will confine itself to the handling of such messages as may be filed for regular transmission in the ordinary manner at Reno by press associations, by newspapers and by individuals.

The Western Union Telegraph Co. is not in the business of gathering news. The various ticker services of the Western Union Telegraph Company are for the reporting of quotations and matters of official record. They will not be used for giving news descriptions of this prize fight.

Miss Mary Burke Passes Away

Her many friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of Miss Mary Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Burke, formerly of this city but now residing at South Ben, Wash., which occurred June 23.

A big stock of Peter Hill Underwear and athletic shirt and short drawers on sale this week at 39cts. the garment. J. J. Baxter.

All Boats to be Decorated.

During the Bi Centennial week every boat in the harbor will be attractively decorated both with the New Bern and National colors. At night powerful search lights will cast their rays up and down the river front and the effect of this on the vari-colored craft will doubtless be startling as well as pleasing. It is estimated that more than 50,000 yards of bunting and other drapery will be used during this event.

First Cotton Blossoms

The first cotton blossoms seen in New Bern this season were brought here yesterday by Mr. M. B. Sauls, of Fort Barnwell. The blossoms were fully developed and in a healthy condition. Mr. Sauls says that unless some unexpected misfortune befalls his crop he will secure a good yield from each acre he has planted.

Attractive Window Display.

(One of the most attractive window displays seen in this city in some time was designed yesterday by Mr. A. R. Willis, the efficient and courteous window dresser at Mr. J. J. Baxter's dry goods store. The window is appropriately draped with the national colors and among the many other appropriate articles displayed is a large portrait of George Washington.

SHORTS FORCE COTTON RALLY

No News of Importance, Waiting For Government Report.

Special to Journal. New York, June 29.—During the past few days the cotton market here and in Liverpool had become overcast on good weather reports, and today a sharp rally occurred on purely technical conditions. There was no news of importance.

The trade is still holding aloof, pending further weather reports from Texas and Oklahoma, and the issuance of the government report. Spots were quoted ten points higher but there were no sales today.

Pretty Home Wedding Yesterday Afternoon.

Miss Helen B. Brock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. X. M. Brock, was married at her home on National Avenue yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock to Mr. Donald Dunham, of Orange Park, Florida. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Brown Rector of the Episcopal Church in the presence of a numerous gathering of relatives and guests. The parlor was decorated with banyan and flowers. The bride entered leaning on the arm of her father. She wore a travelling suit of some light material with veil to match and carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations. After the ceremony had been performed the bride and groom were driven to the depot where they boarded the west bound train enroute to Waynesville, N. C., where they will spend several weeks visiting Mr. Dunham's mother. After leaving Waynesville they will go to their home in Florida.

Your Box Rent is due. The Regulations require me to close your box if the Rent is not paid by July 1st. JESSE S. BARNIBBY, Postmaster.

Telegraph Office Change Location.

Assistant Superintendent Faulkner of the Southern home office of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Richmond, Va., was in the city yesterday making arrangements for the removal of the local office from its present location to the building formerly occupied by the Gaston Drug Company on South Front street. The Postal Telegraph company are making arrangements to move into a section of the building occupied by the Craven Chemical Company on same street.

Negro Man Sunstroke

A message received in this city yesterday afternoon stated that John Slade, a colored man who lives near Thecarrons suffered a sunstroke yesterday afternoon while engaged in working in his garden. Slade's family was away from home at the time and he was not found until probably an hour after he had been struck. A physician was summoned and he was given medical attention but it is more than probable that he will succumb to the effects of the stroke.

Last Day

Today is the last day on which you can file your taxes. The tax later informs us that there are a number of people in this city who have not filed and that in order to avoid any unnecessary trouble it would be well for them to see him at the court house some time during the day.

OWNERS WILL MEET SOON

Meeting of Rural Mail Carriers Promises to be of Interest and Well Attended.

Rocky Point, N. C., June 28.—The Rural Letter Carriers' seventh annual convention to be held at Raleigh, July 4th and 5th, promises to be the most interesting yet. There are a number of attractive features, chief among them being the presence of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General DeGraw, who will visit the North Carolina session at Raleigh on the Fourth and the South Carolina convention at Newberry, on the 5th. Gen. DeGraw is at the head of the Rural Free Delivery system and is loved and respected by all rural carriers. I know each one in our grand old State would like to shake his hand. Postmaster Willis G. Briggs, who signs all of our checks, will make us a talk. We'd all like to grasp his hand, too. Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt has just written me that he will be there on the Fourth and make us an illustrated lecture. You know there is no class of citizens in North Carolina more interested in good roads than the rural carriers. Dr. Pratt is doing a great work for his State just now, possibly more than any other State official. Hon. John H. Small is expected on the 5th to tell us of his Rural Parcel Post bill that was recently introduced in Congress. Clarence H. Poe, who by pen and speech is doing so much to elevate our own beloved State in a mental, moral, physical and financial way, will make us a short talk on the 5th.

And the Raleigh boys are going to give us a smoker to which quite a number of the editorial profession have been invited. And an old time "spelling bee" with Webster's elementary "blueback" as text book will be a feature of the occasion. Col. Joseph Robinson, of the Goldsboro Argus, and Mr. Clarence H. Poe, will umpire the game and award prizes to him as "sets down first," and him that "stands out" the longest. The railroads will give reduced rates for the occasion from the second to the sixth of July.

The Capitol Inn will give $1.00 per day rates, which is about as cheap as you can stop at home; so brother carriers don't fail to go to "Rolly." Remember as a body, "Yo-heave, oh, ho," we have a pull and a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether means much. And after hearing Dr. Pratt talk on good roads you will go home and entreat your people on the subject, talk good roads, act good roads, and spend a few dollars showing example and thus get a little heaven and leave the whole State.

Faithfully yours,
E. D. PEARSALL,
Cor. Secretary N. C. R. L. C.

Freight Shipments Remain Heavy.

While in conversation yesterday with a gentleman who is connected with the freight department of the Norfolk-Southern Railroad, the writer was informed that the shipments of freight both coming in and going out of this city were the heaviest seen here in years at this season. The local merchants greatly aid in this heavy shipping, and the shipments of potatoes, although quite small just at this time, add much to the amount going out. This state of affairs speaks well for New Bern's shipping interest, and the railroad Co. should do all in their power to give good service.
