OUTLOOK BARRED OUT

Comes Under Ban Because of Roosevelt Prize Fight Article.

Hutchinson, Kan., July 20.—Because of an article by Theodore Roosevelt in the Outlook, the last issue of the magazine has been barred from sale in Hutchinson. The magazine comes under the ban of a recent ordinance which prohibits the exhibition of prize-fight pictures and the sale of newspapers or magazines printing such pictures or printing stories of prize fights.

Of course it was never intended that the ordinance should place the Outlook in the same class as fistic publications, but under a strict interpretation of the ordinance any magazine which prints matter relating to prize fighting can be barred. The last issue of the Outlook contained a comment by Mr. Roosevelt on the Jeffries-Johnson fight so it came under the provisions of the ordinance, even if the article did condemn prize fighting.

No particular attention was paid to the matter until Mr. Oswald, a City Commissioner, went to a book store to buy a copy of the Outlook.

"Can't sell it," the bookseller said. "It has an article on prize fighting by Theodore Roosevelt, and I would be breaking the new ordinance."

Mayor F. L. Martin also was a victim of this ordinance.

Government Inspector in City

Mr. Chas. H. McGuire, of Washington, D. C., government clock inspector arrived in the city on the eastbound train last evening and will today inspect the new clock in the tower of the Federal building. All of the electrical connections were completed yesterday morning and the system, when tested showed that it was in perfect working order. While in conversation with Mr. McGuire last night the writer was informed that if the instrument was in perfect condition that the scaffolding which is located at the southeast corner of the building would be torn down at once.

Next Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the New Bern base ball team will cross bats with the Aurora base ball team at the colored ball park. This means that the game will doubtless be a very interesting one and one which you cannot afford to miss.

For Money, "Please Leave Some Money" Read The Note Left Beside a Bottle on the Bar

Richmond, July 20.—"Please leave some money in the cash register," read a note left on the bar counter in the saloon of W. P. Leaman, 701 Brook avenue by thieves who smashed a window and made an entrance in the early hours of Sunday morning.

After drinking a pint of whiskey and leaving the empty bottle on the counter by the side of the hastily scrawled note the robbers helped themselves to about $40 worth of case goods and cigars and left for parts unknown. No clue as to their identity can be secured. Inasmuch as all whiskey makes a man drunk the detectives do not know who to look upon with suspicion.

For Simon pure during the robbery of the saloon is far ahead of any piece of theft done in Richmond since the big postoffice job. Under the bright glare of an electric light and within ten feet of a police signal box that is pulled always every hour and occasionally oftener, the thieves smashed through the large window on the Duval street side of the saloon, turned off the light in the establishment and leisurely helped themselves to what they wanted to drink and smoke.

The police signal box had been placed at the corner of Brook Avenue and Duval streets last Saturday at the request of Mr. Leaman, who to almost every one in the city is known as "Dutch."

"I wish they hadn't placed the thing there now," said Mr. Leaman. "They watched the officer when he pulled in from the box and while one followed him a block or so the others broke through the glass and got everything they wanted. I never leave any money in the cash register at night and this fact seems to have fretted the robbers for they left the note asking me to 'please' remember them with cash in the future."

The police were notified of the robbery but said nothing of it, and it would not have been known Tuesday had not Mr. Leaman given out the information. The loss was about $40.

Illumination A Great Success

Thousands of people viewed the hundreds of electric lights which were lighted up for the first time last night and which will be lighted every night from now on until after the Bi-Centennial celebration. To a person standing between Middle and Hancock street and looking east the view was indeed a pleasing one. The clock tower was illuminated for the first time last night and this added greatly to the spectacular effect, from a distance it had the appearance of being an immense circle of lights. Craven street too, with the many lights shedding their rays on the attractively decorated buildings made the scene one long to be remembered. Eleven hundred of these lights have already been erected and several other arches will be made today and tomorrow.

Mr. T. F. McCarthy the efficient and courteous Chairman of the Electric Light Committee is to be congratulated upon the success he has attained in securing such an elaborate and attractive illumination for the celebration.

Seven Three-Masted Schooners in Port

There are now seven three-masted schooners anchored in this port. Five of these boats came in Monday and Tuesday and of which mention was made in the Journal yesterday morning. To this number two more, the "Levin J. Marvel," of Baltimore, and the "Mabel & Ruth," of Norfolk, were added yesterday. All of these boats brought in cargoes and will take away cargoes.

One Hundred Germans Will Participate

A letter received yesterday from Mr. C. W. Polvogt of Wilmington stated that 100 Germans will arrive in this city next Monday to participate in the Bi-Centennial Celebration. They will have with them the Fort Caswell band which will be placed on their boat during the parade. New Bern extends a cordial welcome to the Germans and a pleasant trip is promised.

BLIND TIGER IS CAPTURED

Police Officer Foscoe Searches Cafe and Finds Number of Bottles of Whiskey

Late Tuesday night police officer Foscoe was called to the restaurant of Claud Gilcrease near Frog Pond to arrest a colored woman who had struck Gilcrease's wife on the head with a soda water bottle. Upon his arrival at the restaurant the officer found that the woman who was wanted had left for parts unknown and that Gilcrease was in a drunken stupor while his wife, who had been severely cut by the bottle was lying upon the floor in a semi-conscious condition. Gilcrease was placed under arrest and carried to the jail where he was kept until yesterday afternoon. After the negro had been placed behind the bars the officer returned to the restaurant and after searching around for a few minutes found a sack containing 27 half pints of whiskey, further search disclosed 4 more bottles in a refrigerator. Gilcrease was given a hearing on the charge of retailing before Mayor McCarthy yesterday afternoon and probable cause being found he was bound over to the next term of Superior Court under a bond of $50.00 in default of which he was committed to jail.

A Complicated Case.

In the Police Court yesterday George Moore and Martha Brown, both colored, were given a hearing on a warrant charging them with stealing $5.00 and several articles of wearing apparel from a colored woman who live in Onslow county. From the evidence given by the prosecuting witness, it was shown that the woman's husband gave Moore and the Brown woman the money and clothing to bring to his wife in this city where she was visiting, the pair accepted both but upon their arrival refused to disgorge and were arrested. There is no law in this state to fit a case like this and they were immediately upon this charge but were immediately re-arrested on a warrant charging them with f. and a. and they are now being held awaiting the orders of the sheriff, of Onslow county.

Will Participate in Event

The Woodmen of the World will meet tonight in special session to consider the proposition of the New Bern camp to participate in the celebration in our neighbor city next week. The Woodmen of New Bern Camp and other camps in the state will take part in the parade and represent the Dutch. This feature of the celebration is expected to be very spectacular and interesting. Independent Order of Red Men will represent the Indians and will pull off a sham massacre of citizens showing how the real thing was done when New Bern was first settled in 1710—Kinston Free Press.

Industrial Parade Next Tuesday Morning.

The Industrial and Floral Parade which will take place next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, which is to be augmented by the 2nd. regiment 600 strong and their band with 30 pieces now encamped at Camp Glenn, near Morehead City is doubtless to prove one of the best events of the entire week's program. Over twenty firms and manufacturers have handed in their names for industrial floats to be entered in this parade and a large number of floral floats and vehicles will also take part in the same. It is pleasing to note the response the public spirited business houses are making in connection with this parade in entering industrial floats.

Our merchants and manufacturers realize that the success of the industrial feature of this parade depends entirely upon them and being appreciative of good things they are alive to the situation. It is hoped that others who can, will also take part in this feature and make it a grand success.

Floats Being Constructed.

A few of the floats that are to be used in the numerous parades next week have been completed and it only remains for the decorations to be placed on them. There are, however, several being constructed just at this time and these will be in readiness for the opening next Monday. These parades will be one of the main features of the celebration and will doubtless attract much attention.
