ORGANIZATION POSTPONED

German Americans Met at The Masonic Theatre Yesterday Afternoon

At 12:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon the German American contingent who are attending the Bi-Centennial celebration met at the Masonic theatre to organize a North Carolina branch of the German American Alliance.

At the opening of the session Mr. M. G. Tinsley, of Wilmington, was selected temporary chairman and he presided over the meeting.

Mr. Cappelmann, Vice-President of the National Alliance was then called upon to the platform and he in a brief but short speech introduced Prof. Julius I. Goebel, of Illinois, who delivered a very appropriate speech.

After Prof. Goebel had concluded his speech matters of business were taken up and discussed. After some deliberation it was decided to postpone the organization until Friday night and that it be held at Wilmington, N. C.

The National German-American Alliance aims to awaken and strengthen the sense of unity among the people of German origin in America with a view to promote the useful and healthy development of the power inherent in them as a united body for the mutual energetic protection to such legitimate desires and interests not inconsistent with the common good of the country, and the right and duties of good citizens to check anti-social encroachment; to maintain and safeguard the good friendly relations existing between America and the old German fatherland. To read the history of German immigration, is to be convinced how much it has contributed to the advancement of the spiritual and economic development of this country, and to realize what it is still destined to contribute, and how the German immigrant has at all times stood by his adopted country in weal or woe.

The Alliance demands therefore the full honest recognition of these merits and opposes every attempt to belittle them. Always true to the adopted country, ever ready to risk all for its welfare, sincere and unselfish in the exercise of the duties of citizenship, the law still remains the watchword! It has no exclusive interest in view, nor the founding of a State within a State, but sees in the centralization of the inhabitants of German origin the shortest road to and the surest guarantee for the attainment of the aims set forth in this constitution; it calls therefore on all German organizations as the organized representatives of the German spirit and manners to cooperate with it for their development, and recommends, further the formation of Societies in all the States of the Union for the preservation of the interest of German Americans, looking toward an eventual centralization of these societies into a great German-American Alliance, and would have all German societies consider it a duty and an honor to join the organization in their respective States. The Alliance engages to labor firmly and at all times with all the legal means at its command for the maintenance and propagation of its principles, and to defend them energetically whenever they are in danger.

Green was struck by the Hotel Gaston's bus which was returning from the depot at the time, was slightly damaged while Rev. and Mrs. Green were badly shaken up. The driver of the bus was driving his horses at a pretty lively gait when the accident occurred and it was only by chance that the accident did not result more seriously.

Illuminated Parade and Fireworks Display Tonight.

At 8:30 o'clock tonight one of the most spectacular events of the celebration will transpire on Neuse river just off the foot of Broad street, this event will be the much talked of illuminated water parade and fireworks display. A large number of entries have been made in the water parade, and it is more than probable that other boats will be entered during the day. The display of fireworks will doubtless be the most spectacular ever seen in this city, and doubtless thousands of spectators will line the river shore. The parade starts at 8:30 o'clock.

To Grand Stand Patrons

If you will tell the ticket men this morning at the grand stand, that you bought tickets yesterday afternoon, to see the horse hose wagon races, you will be admitted free. This in lieu of rain checks, but for this morning only.

Visiting Firemen Praise the New Bern Companies.

Every one of the visiting firemen have expressed their admiration of the attractive quarters which the two local fire companies have.

During this week the "Atlantic" company, that recently moved into its new home on Broad street is entertaining their fellow firefighters in grand style. The rooms have all been attractively decorated with pink and white ribbon, their colors and a more attractive scene would be hard to find.

The "Button" company has recently had its headquarters repainted and remodeled, and they too, are doing their share in assisting the visitors to enjoy their stay in the city. Taken as a whole the present tournament is one of the most successful that has been held in several years.

Noises Off and Onener.

The streets were gay again last night. There was no parade and so there was greater opportunity for fun makers to start up impromptu parades which made noise the chief ingredient for merit. And the paved streets and concrete pavements were fine for all open air exhibits, and noise had right of way.

Stole $500 From Colored Men.

Late yesterday afternoon policeman Griffin was informed by Gus Roundtree, a colored man who conducts a grocery store on Pine street, that three negro men had entered his store during the early part of the afternoon, and after clubbing him almost into insensibility had robbed him of $500.

Roundtree gave a good description of the men and a short time afterwards policeman Griffin arrested James Nixon and Joseph Cooper, both colored, on a warrant charging them with the theft. They were taken to police headquarters where they were searched and the $500 was found on their persons.

Each of the negroes who were charged with the theft claimed that they were the money from Roundtree in a way of payment, but this statement Roundtree denied.

They were placed under a bond of $500 each for their appearance before Judge McCarty this morning at 10 o'clock.

FIREMEN'S PARADE DAYS EVENT

Big Crowd Out To See Hose Wagon Races But Rain Interferes.

Yesterday inaugurated the State Firemen's Events, and the change was notable, as from Bi-Centennial, there came the twentieth century in force. From Swiss and Colonial, there was everywhere the firemen's colors of the many companies. The local colors of white and pink, and blue and white were everywhere in sight, from the ribbons on the small children, to wagon buggies and horses with their decorations. Outside companies had some followers who did much to exploit their respective friends. It was after 10 o'clock before the firemen's parade started. The Asheville companies were the most attractive of the visitors, though Statesville gained applause along the streets because of its horse hose wagon, its contents, the bevy of beautiful young ladies, holding all eyes.

The small hand reel of the Atlantics was the feature of the parade. It was the famous reel that won so much at the Wilmington tournament years ago. But yesterday it was in the beauty line, wrapped in colors pink and white, and instead of a strong, big limbed team, there was a team of handsome small children, all proudly bearing the Atlantic colors and gladly joyous in their work of pulling the reel. The Atlantic float was very handsome and the engine, also.

At 2:03 on the Button engine told the story that made New Bern famous. It is the quick steaming record, and applause followed the engine. The Button float was beautiful. The Fourth Ward team was given applause along the line. Crowds thronged the streets along the line of march. The weather was partially cloudy, the temperature was hot for those on foot. As no engines entered, there was no quick steaming contest.

At 2:30 P. M. the time set for the horse hose wagon races, the stands were well filled with spectators. The weather that had threatened all day gathered itself and before the crowd could scatter to shelter the rain fell in torrents. The Kingston wagon started during the rain, but blew off at the hydrant. As the rain continued, the races were continued to this morning at 10 o'clock. This afternoon at 2:30 the reel races will take place, these races are of much interest and very enjoyable to witness.

Maj. Stedman The Nominee.

Special to Journal. Greensboro, N. C., July 27th.—The long deadlock in the Fifth Congressional District is broken after an immense number of ballots and Maj. Charles M. Stedman of Greensboro is the nominee of the Democrats.

Maj. Stedman was nominated at 11:30 this morning, with forty-one votes more than a majority. In this contest his opponents were Ex-Judge E. B. Jones of Winston-Salem, General B. S. Royser of Oxford and Dr. George Mebane of Spray. The nomination of Maj. Stedman means a sweeping victory for the Democrats in the general election.

Colonial Ball a Grand Success

One of the most successful social events of the week was the Colonial Ball which was held at the court house last night. All of the participants in this event wore Colonial costumes and the brilliantly lighted floor was a scene of splendor. There were several hundred spectators present and these were profuse in their admiration of the dances. Taken as a whole this was one of the most brilliant social events of the season.

Little Boy Lost.

Shortly after nine o'clock yesterday morning a small boy, probably 5 years old was found wandering aimlessly around the river front. The child was so small that there was much danger of his falling overboard, so he was taken in charge by several gentlemen who saw him at the time, and they began questioning him as to who he was and where he lived. The child however did not seem to comprehend the situation and stoutly refused to reply to their questions. They then began a search for his parents but this proved to be fruitless, and he was finally turned over to a policeman, who after considerable trouble succeeded in locating his parents.

Parents should endeavor to keep their children with them at a time like this in order to avoid any such occurrence as the preceding case.
