OFFICIAL PAPER OF NEW BERN AND CRAVEN COUNTY.

New Bern, N. C. July 29, 1910

THANKS TO BI-CENTENNIAL HELPERS.

It is very little to just express a message of thanks, and yet the people of New Bern feel very deeply the coming of the Wilmingtonians, the Kingstonians and the Edenites, with their splendid contributions to the success of this city's Bi Centennial celebration.

To our German-Wilmington friends, the New Bern anniversary was peculiarly a matter of importance, for their ancestors, the Palatines, were factors in America's colonies, and notably in New Bern's early history.

To Kinston, in the Alfred M. Waddell Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, New Bern has been honored by the contribution, the Richard Caswell commemoration, and the attractive presence here of North Carolina's first governor's three times great grand daughter.

To Edenton, in the help of Penelope Barker Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, the great historical parade was greatly indebted for the beautiful float representing the famous Edenton Tea Party, of October 25, 1774.

More than these few words, is the sentiment of pleasure felt, in the help of these, who have contributed so generously to New Bern's Bi Centennial. The loyalty and friendship of Colonial Days found a repetition this July, 1910, in the joining of Wilmington, Kinston and Edenton, with their sister city, New Bern, in celebrating the latter's 200th anniversary.

A Handsome Woman.

Every woman may not be handsome, but every woman should keep with care the good points nature has given her. No woman need have sallow skin, dull eyes, blotchy complexion, who pays proper attention to her health.

A failing tiny nerve—no larger than the finest silken thread—takes from the heart its impulse, its power, its regularity. The stomach also has its hidden, or inside nerve. It was Dr. Shoop who first told us it was wrong to drug a weak or failing stomach, heart or kidneys.

Followed the Leader. Master—Who can tell me what was the article we get from the whale? Johnnie—Whalebone. Master—Right. Now, what little boy or girl knows what we get from the seal? Tommy—Sealing wax. London Seraps.

Some families are so lucky that when they are having a baby they have a doctor to attend to it.

IF SICK—WHY PAY

Unless Health First Returns. Here is what should and can be done! How you would not willingly pay for food that is unwholesome, would you pay for medicine that is not what it is advertised to be?

A Strange Pirate Story.

In the museum at Kingston, Jamaica, there are some tattered ship's papers, and a small tin canister. These articles attest the truth of the strange pirate story ever told. In 1799 the crew of the Nancy brig were apparently honest traders, but did some piracy now and then on the side.

They found it necessary to go into Kingston for supplies. Before doing so they naturally removed all traces of their buccannery trade. Among other things they threw overboard this tin canister stuffed with papers taken from ships they had sunk, with comments written on the margin by the pirate captain. Later in the day a British frigate was becalmed near the spot, and the sailors spent their leisure catching sharks. Presently they hauled up a big fellow, cut his open and found the tin case with the papers inside. These were taken to the captain, who, as soon as a breeze sprung up, sailed into Kingston harbor, found the Nancy brig there and had the crew tried, convicted and hanged in chains at Fort Royal.

Payment in Kind. French novelists are occasionally paid in kind instead of cash. Many of the best known Paris newspapers manage to supply their readers with contemporary fiction for which the writers do not receive a penny. For instance, a novel is published in serial form for which the payment at three half pence a line would amount to £80. This payment is always made in specie, not in money. That is to say, the newspaper inserts for the author, free of charge, a certain number of advertisements or press notices relating either to his own books or those of other authors. It can succeed in obtaining any money from the latter he is at liberty to do so. The specie varies considerably in value, a "puif" on the front page being worth 20 or 30 francs a line, on the second page 10 francs and in other portions of the paper still less.—London Seraps.

Those Pies of Boyhood. How delicious were the pies of boyhood. No pies now ever taste so good, what's changed? The pies? No, it's you. You've lost the strong, healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowels of boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food. What's needed? A complete toning up by Electric Bitters of all organs of digestion—Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels—Try them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. 50 cts. at all druggists.

His Standard. A shoe drummer alighted from the train at Farville and looked up and down the street. Presently Yick Lee came along with a bundle of soiled laundry, and the drummer halted him with: "John, how much of a place is this here town of Farville?" "Sixteen or ev'ly twenty minute," replied the Chinaman.—Everybody's.

Teething children have more or less diarrhoea, which can be cured by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. All that is necessary is to give the prescribed dose of this natural and then castor oil to cleanse the system. It is safe and sure. Sold by all druggists.

Honest Praise. An honest compliment was that paid to M. de Vendome who, while commending the French army in Italy, dispatched a young nobleman to announce to his master the victory which he had gained at Suseza. The latter while attempting to describe the battle became several times confused in his narrative, when, although the king preserved his gravity, the Duchess of Burgundy, who was present, laughed so heartily that at last the young gentleman said, "Sire, it is easier for M. de Vendome to win a battle than for me to describe it."

A Few Short Weeks. Mr. J. S. Bartlett, Edwardsville, Ill., writes: "A few months ago my kidneys became congested. I had severe backache and pain across the kidneys and hips. Foley Kidney Pills promptly cured my backache and corrected the action of my kidneys. This was brought about after my using them for only a few short weeks and I can cheerfully recommend them."—Davis Pharmacy.

At the Dish. "Hilda is at the dishes now. Will you wait?" her mother said. "Gladly," said the young man, thinking he had found a prize. Just then a crash came from the kitchen, and again he became undecided.—Buffalo Express.

AN ANGRY MUSICIAN.

Amusing and Pathetic Story of Constantine's Fictitious "Too Late". An amusing and pathetic story is told of Benjamin Constantine's near failure to attract attention. It was called "Too Late" and represented Fortune and Glory visiting an artist just as he had breathed his last. The figure of Death stood near the door through which Fortune, carrying a box of money, and Glory, bearing laurels, had just entered.

The artist received many letters from those who had seen the painting. One was written by a professor of music, an old man, who expressed in touching words the emotion he had felt at the sight of the artist's work. He asked Constant to visit and talk to him about "Too Late."

The invitation was accepted, but as soon as the old professor saw the artist he uttered an ejaculation of surprise and anger. "Why, you are quite a youth!" he exclaimed. "I thought you were old and, like myself, had spent your life in vain endeavor to obtain recognition of your abilities. I conceived that picture to be the last despairing cry of a man as unfortunate as I am. I find you are quite young and your eyes are full of hope. You are a bungler, sir, and I request that you leave this house immediately!"
