

Meet Me Down On The Corner

Jack Hazard's Big Hit in Chas. B. Dillingham's Musical Play

"THE CANDY SHOP"

JOHN L. GOLDEN

Allegro moderato
Waltz

1. Down on our block, ev-ry night a-bout eight o'clock,
2. What do you say if we play kids a-gain to-day?

Was-a- it great.....
We are a- great.....

Aft-er the meal from the house the boys and girls would steal, I'll get a dime and you bet we'll have a cork-in-time.

To keep a "date,"
That'll we need.

Cor-ner of our street, was the place where we used to meet,
Soon as it's dark we can spark up in Cen-tral Park.

Was-n't it fun!
Well I de-clare!

So
folks'll let you go, Why I'll take you to a show, So meet me, do..... do.....

each aft-ernoon you were al-ways sure to hear this tune Then we can stop for a so- - so - at the Cor- - - - -
From ev-ry - - - - -
Will be there.

REFRAIN.
Meet me down on the cor-ner. Aft-er your sup-per's done, Say you won't be late, but that you've got to keep a date, And we can have a lot of fun.

Meet me down on the cor-ner. I'll be wait-ing there for you, If the folks'll let you go, Why I'll take you to a show, So meet me, do..... do.....

THOSE PIES OF BOYHOOD
How delicious were the pies of boyhood.
No pie now ever tastes so good, what's changed? The pie? No. The you. You've lost the strong, healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowels of boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food.
What's needed? A complete toning up by Electric Bitters of all organs of digestion-Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels-Ery them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. 50 cts.

A New Reason.
Annoys, aches, throbs, has two feet talkative little aches, and sometimes she finds it difficult to make herself heard at the table. One day when the colic has been manipulating the convulsion longer than she had anticipated, she finds with a warning gusture and whispered half aloud, "Everybody who still, My love's saint." -Delimitor.

Health Certificates For Sale.
Any woman who changes doctors no doubt has her own reasons for making the change. The woman in this case was threatened with fever. Her first question was, "Shall I lose my hair?"
"Most likely," said the doctor.
The next day he found a man with a pair of shears standing at the bedside.
"Doctor," said the man, "I wish you would write out a certificate that this hair is healthy. The lady wants to let it grow. She says if she's bound to lose it anyhow in this spell of sickness she is in for the night as well as the day.
I'll write it if you'll give me a good price.
It she waits till it falls out nobody will buy it. Women with nice hair and not much money are smart enough nowadays to sell their hair as soon as they fall ill. Most doctors take it and no questions asked, but I'm too conscientious. I want a doctor's certificate every time in a case like this. I hope you'll be obliging."
The doctor was not obliging, and the next day a new doctor was called in-Philadelphia Ledger.

Historical Wash Lists.
Pretty old inventions are our modern wash lists. The old German housewife had an odd way of keeping track of the garments she gave out to be washed. She had a picture of each article and wrote down the number of everything opposite to it with a piece of chalk, which was rubbed out when the article was returned. It was really a clever and practical wash list.
