OFFICIAL PAPER OF NEW BERN AND CRAVEN COUNTY.

New Bern, N. C. Aug., 14, 1910 LACK OF RELIGIOUS STREN UQUENESS

A pastor in one of New Bern's churches recently during his sermon asked, why is religious excitement lacking in the church! The query is a pertinent one not mere ly to every religious leader, but to every christian man or woman, those identified with the church by membership.

It is not that revivals have these periods of religious excitement, or that here and there some minister may not be heard dealing straight and hard blows against sin. The excitement meant by the pastor above referred to, had in its meaning the force, the strenu ousness of today, where men and NORFOLK SOUTHERN RAILROAD women go into the daily world and engage in its pursuits at a speed that is appaling, if one would but give it heed. In the business marts, there is today the sacrifice of reputation and the shortening of life, to gain the money that will make today and toworrow yield its pleasures to the flesh. In politics, the brief rule, of power, the fame that a minute's weakness may find overthrown and made a mockery, men struggle for with greater eagerness than wealth. In society, women for the show and glitter, thrown away happiness and the security of home and peace. For amusement, how youth rushes after the blare and tissel, and image will send free to any mother her sucine that dissipation means joy. that the faster the candle burns at each epdy the greater the life is sophatcan stand the pace.

" all these the call is "hurry!" The rush has lack of dignity, for people troubled with urine difficulties the age is one demanding speed, by day or night. strenuousness. Men and women take active part in these things of the world, that make for the hour at most, and may only last for the To the Democratic Voters of Craven minute, and yet hesitate to put a like force in their daily religious. efforts, as this that which maketh for righteousness was no more at the primary to be held Sept. 3d. stable than that which worketh unto sin. It is not that the church should copy closely worldly methods, in order to arouse christians to Yeligious strenuousness, but State of Ohio, City of Toledo. that christians should show in their daily lives the serious, earnestness, the force of character, that he is senior partner of the firm of F will make those of the world realize that there is much more in the city of Toledo, County and State this life than to eat, drink and be merry, that there is a life here after, a life that demands every thing worth while of those of to day, who desire this future life.
