Some High Cotton

Seeing in the market telegrams in Monday's Reflector about the price of August cotton reaching 20 cents on the New York exchange, which was stated to be the highest level reached since the civil war, Mr. D E House dropped in to tell us of an instance in which this price was a little more than trebled. It was in the year just after the close of the war that his father, the late Elder David House, had a lot of twenty odd bales at a gin. The cotton was set on fire by Yankees, but friends saved three bales and hid them. Elder House was told where the three bales were hid, and he sold them for 61 cents a pound—Greenville (N. C.) Reflector.

In order to make room for our fall and winter stock we are disposing of our Screen Doors and Window Screens at cost. J. S. Basnight, Hdwr. Co.

SHORT PASSING EVENTS

There will be prayer meeting tonight at Centenary church, conducted by Rev. J. M. Wright, of Bridgeton.

Capt. Barker's gun boat arrived last night with about 5000 pounds, mackerel trout and drum, caught in Pamlico Sound.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Presbyterian lecture room. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. W. B. Blades houseboat, the "Comfort" has returned from Nass Head, where the family and a number of guests have been enjoying the ocean breeze since August 2nd.

There were only two cases on the docket in the Police Court yesterday afternoon and as neither of these were of any importance but a short while was consumed in the session.

Citizens living at and near the corner of Broad and Metcalf streets are becoming very solicitous as to the better drainage of that section. The entire corner is a veritable lake for hours after every rain, necessitating pedestrians walking nearly a block out of their way, besides endangering the health to all nearby citizens.

The remains of Mrs. C F Wilks, who died at Waynesville, N. C., Tuesday morning, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon on the east bound train and were taken at once to Centenary church where the last sad rites were performed by Rev. J. M. Wright. The interment was made in Cedar Grove cemetery.

While playing in a pool of water on West street a few days ago the small son of an Asyrrian who lives in that section of the city was bitten by a lamprey eel and in consequence died a few hours later. The boy was only three or four years of age and when the poison from the bite of the eel began to take effect his suffering was indeed horrible to behold.

Should Either Rent Telephone or Leave Other Alone.

During the past few weeks, and especially during the past few days the writer has heard a number of telephone subscribers say that if it was not necessary for them to have a telephone they would have it taken out, as they were being continually harassed by neighbors dropping in to use the instrument. The telephone is a necessary adjunct to the business house but when it is used by some love-hick Romeo to say sweet nothings to the fair Juliet and when these conversations usually consume from 15 to 20 minutes it is enough to cause even the most obliging to tear their hair.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF CRAVEN COUNTY

Having been advised that a report is being circulated that I have publicly declared that unless I receive a majority of all votes cast for sheriff in the primary on Sept. 3rd, that I will retire from the contest and not ask for a second primary, I beg to state that the said report is utterly without foundation and that I am unitedly participating in a second primary that I shall certainly ask for on Tuesday, and I believe how ever that my many friends who have stayed by me in these days will rally to my support. If such report
