Why Not?

While in conversation with a gentlenan who resides on Broad street a few days ago, he made the suggestion that the city pass an order that the police-man on night duty at Five Points be required to strike the hours on the fire bell over the station at that place. This seems to us to be a good plan, Unless a person who lives in that locality happens to be listening attentively at the time it is seldom that they ever hear the hours tolled from the bell
