"SLIP IT TO ME"
SAYS HOPE DEALER

Victim of "Mad Pace Set by New Yorkers" Wants Early Trial for Theft.

New York, Sept. 16.—From his cell in the city prison today, Adolph Roth, 34, the hope merchant, who was able to borrow $24,000 from several of the most prominent banks in New York on his own personal notes, sent an urgent appeal to District Attorney Whitman, to hurry his prosecution so that he may begin serving his sentence at once. His wish will be granted and the grand jury asked to return judgments immediately to which Rothbarth says he will plead guilty.

He will not be prosecuted on all the charges against him. The big banks which lost money will accept his plea of guilty to grand larceny in connection with the $24,000 he secured from the Mercantile National bank. On this he can get 10 years, being a first offender he is likely to be given an indeterminate sentence.

The victimized banks will urge the speediest possible disposition of the case, as their officers openly express fears that the ease with which Rothbarth worked his game, may cause them further trouble from those who feel that they are clever enough to go the German swindler one better.

At the Tombs today, a close guard is being kept over the prisoner whose defection is really pitiable. He is loud in his lamentations and blames his downfall to the "mad pace set by New Yorkers," and to his desire to become a millionaire in Wall street.

The New Bern Banking & Trust Co. speaks in the advertisement on this page of the service that a bank renders. Few people appreciate all that a bank does for its depositors and the community at large. The fact is that the bank is the financial heart from which flows the resources that develop manufacturing and other enterprises, furnishing employment and general commercial activity.

Charged With Retailing.

Brown Peterson, colored, was given a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner C. B. Hill yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with retailing without a United States license. Two witnesses were placed on the stand who testified that they had purchased whiskey from the defendant but at the conclusion of the trial Commissioner Hill informed the defendant's attorney that he would reserve his decision until he could further investigate the case.

To Patrons of the Post Office

Letter carriers are required to request patrons to provide boxes for the delivery of their mail at their residence or place of business.

Such boxes should be attached to the building, where the carrier may safely deposit the mail and pass on without delay.

This request is not primarily in the interest of the carriers, but for the improvement of the service.

The universal adoption of home boxes will materially expedite the delivery of mail and at the same time be found to be of great convenience to the household.

TAFT HAS ENOUGH OF PRESIDENCY

He Will Leave Clear Field For Colonel Roosevelt in 1912.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 16.—President Wm. H. Taft has reached the conclusion that Theodore Roosevelt is laying plans to be the next president of the United States. He is determined that so far as the present incumbent of the White House is concerned, Col. Roosevelt will have a clear field. Mr. Taft does not want another term.

While the above is not an authorized statement from President Taft, it comes from a source close enough to the president to have distinct value. The attitude of President Taft has been made apparent during the past few days by the efforts of his friends to stir him to activity against the present movement of Col. Roosevelt.

It can be stated authoritatively that President Taft will make no public statement or no offensive move against Col. Roosevelt and the latter's projects, no matter what tactics may be made by the latter.

"Dignified silence" sums up both the defensive and offensive measures that will be employed by the President. He has made this known in no uncertain terms to those of his friends who, during the last few days, have repeatedly urged him to "go after" his predecessor.

It is pointed out here that practically all of the reform for which Roosevelt is still urging on him the fact that his administration is not being well advertised and that the Crane-Norton idea of keeping out of print is not a success. They have urged him to learn to "use" the newspapers and to resort to the tactics which have enabled Colonel Roosevelt to monopolize more first page news paper space than any other character in the world's history.

To date, however, these people have not succeeded in carrying their point and there is every reason to believe that the soft pedal policy of the administration will continue.

Sad Ending of Romance

Memphis Tenn., Sept. 16.—Ending a romance which was to have terminated in marriage, but was disrupted by death in Memphis, Mrs. Olive Weller, a widow 23 years old, wired her mother today for funds to return home to Philadelphia.

She had come to this city to marry John Gregory, the sailor whose body was found Wednesday floating in the Mississippi river. Mrs. Weller read the news of his death in a local paper which she had purchased with her last nickel. The remains of Gregory were sent to Warren, R. I., the train bearing the body of intended husband and the happy would-be bride passed each other en route.

Advice About Cotton.

Farmers are urged by buyers not to gin damp or green cotton, but to let it lie in the house for several days and dry out before ginning. That this will be to the advantage of the seller is pointed out in the following reasons: Cotton ginned green or damp makes a very undesirable staple, both in grade and quality, for it is liable to be ginned out; the demand for this class of cotton is very low and at much lower prices. It means a loss to the farmer of from $1 to $5 a bale; cotton left in the seed, after going through a little heat, improves the grade and secures a better out turn of lint.

BANKERS REFUSE
THIS PROPOSAL

American Bankers Against Guaranteeing Cotton Bills of Lading.

New York, Sept. 16.—American bankers decided here today that they cannot assent to the plan for guaranteeing bills of lading proposed by British bankers. Instead they asserted their independence, denounced the British proposal as unsound finance and insisted their own plan of a validated certificate be adopted.

Yesterday a committee of London and Continental bankers announced their refusal to accept American cotton bills after October 31st, without an American "bank guarantee." Today a sub-committee of the American Bankers' Association put itself on record, after a long session, in the following cable:

"We deeply regret your decision and cannot but feel that it was reached through misapprehension. We have accomplished much in securing the validation certificate, thus placing the business on a safe basis. Further consideration of bankers' guarantees is absolutely out of the question, being incompatible with correct banking principle. This is final. Situation could not be changed by our committee going to London, but of course we would welcome your disposition in New York, where all data and information are obtainable and where railway and cotton people also could be heard. We are confident this would lead to a better understanding with mutually satisfactory results."

Their decision is of great importance not only to the cotton interest of the South and of New York, but to railroad and business in general. It terminates a long debate in which all the evils of the present system and the defects of the various remedies proposed have been set forth in full.

Cook Discovered Near Pole

New York, Sept. 16.—Dr. Fredrick A. Cook, the discredited Arctic explorer, is now en route to Etah, on the northwest coast of Greenland, to recover records which he left there on his return from the North Pole, according to the Copenhagen correspondent of the Central News.

Dr. Cook is aboard the yacht Beauty, belonging to Mr. John R. Bradley, who backed him in his last Polar hunt. News of Dr. Cook was brought to Copenhagen by a ship that sighted the Beauty and learned of the doctor's mission from the explorer himself.

Dr. Cook is after records which he says will prove his claim to being the discoverer of the North Pole.

The vessel bringing the news of Dr. Cook also brought letters from officials of Greenland, stating that all the Eskimo who were associated with him or his last Polar trip are confined here, in the city.
