CABINET MEMBERS WITH TAFT

Assembled at White House Yesterday for Series of Conferences.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The cabinet house party at the White House is in full swing tonight. Eight of the nine members of the President's official family moved in today.

They held a formal session in the cabinet room of the executive officers during the forenoon, and continued their informal discussion of affairs of state at a luncheon which began at 1.30 P. M., and did not end until nearly 4. During the late afternoon the various cabinet officers returned to their respective departments, but gathered again at the White House for dinner and a long evening talk on the south veranda.

The President's forthcoming appointments to the Supreme Court served as the chief topic of discussion today. They were taken up after the department heads had made brief reports as to conditions in the various branches of the government service.

It is said there are no outstanding candidates for the Supreme Court vacancies. The President is keeping his mind open. He has discussed and will continue to discuss the various qualities of men who have been suggested for the bench, but there is little chance that his final selections will be made before the time for Congress to convene in December.

From the time it meets in October, until the Senate confirms a new appointee, the President, the Supreme Court will proceed without a chief justice. Nothing has happened to change the well-founded impression that Gov. Hughes, will be made chief justice, but his re-nomination will not be announced until the Senate is in session.

PREDICTS REIGN OF THEODORE

Minister Warns People Against Roosevelt Who Suffers From "Swell Head."

Boston, Mass., Sept. 27.—Predicting that Theodore Roosevelt was going to make himself in effect emperor of the United States, the Rev. H. S. Johnson, in a sermon on "Theodore I" exuded a few ideas that are causing not a little comment here among politicians. Discussing the former President and his activities, Rev. Johnson said in part: "Theodore I needs to be controlled. He has risen to such heights that there is grave danger that he will forget anybody else is living in the world."

"I think Mr. Roosevelt is the most remarkable man in our generation. He thinks so, too, and that's where the trouble lies. When a man begins to think too much of himself he begins to forget others."

"Hitherto I have always voted for him. I think he is a second Abraham Lincoln. I think everything that is good about him. He will spoil all the respect he has won in the hearts of many people if he does not follow the example of the illustrious father of our country, and be content with two terms."

Will Go To New Bern.

On Sunday night Rev. B. F. Huske closed his work in Greenville as rector of St. Paul's church. He will go to New Bern the first of October to be rector of Christ church in that city. Mr. Huske has been in Greenville two years and greatly endeared himself not only to his church, but to the people of the town and community generally. He is an able minister and a most excellent young man. Greenville gives him up with great regret.—Greenville Reflector.

SCARED HIM SO THAT HE GOT HURT

Allegations of North Carolinian Who Files a Suit For $5,100.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 27.—Claiming that he was seriously hurt because of the negligence of a motorman, who frightened him so that he jumped from a rapidly moving electric car after the man in charge had refused to let him in the gate on the left side and that his failure to get on the right side of the car was due to his ignorance of the rules and regulations of the company, Jasper Horner, of North Carolina, today entered suit against the Norfolk and Portsmouth Traction Co., in the United States court here, claiming $5,000 damages and $100 for medical attention.

In this declaration Mr. Horner claims that he was in Norfolk on Aug. 16, 1910 and attempted to board a Norfolk and Portsmouth Traction Company's car on Main street, near the Confederate monument, but was unfamiliar with the rules and regulations and got on the wrong side of the car. He stated that the gate was closed and that the man in charge not only would not open it so that he could enter the car, but would not give him a reasonable time to alight and that while the car was moving at a rapid rate of speed, frightened him so by telling him that unless he got off he would be crushed between that car and another that would soon be passing that he jumped and sustained external and internal injuries that laid him up for some time and injured his business, causing him considerable loss.

E. R. Wooten and Jeffries, Wolcott, Wolcott and Lankford are the attorneys for the plaintiff, whose suit was filed in forma pauperis.

Hon. B. F. Dixon Dead

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 27.—State Auditor Benjamin F. Dixon died here last night at 11:30 o'clock, at Rex Hospital where he was taken a week ago, suffering from an acute attack of angina pectoris. Auditor Dixon was born in 1846. He was an officer in the Civil war and also served his country in the Spanish-American war, being a major in the Second regiment, North Carolina volunteers. He was a licensed physician and an ordained Methodist minister. He was formerly superintendent of the Masonic Orphan Asylum at Oxford, N. C., and a few years later was made president of the Greensboro Female College in 1900. Major Dixon was elected State Auditor of North Carolina and was serving his third term when taken ill.

Congressman Thomas at Durham.

Hon. Charles R. Thomas of New Bern, Congressman in the third congressional district for the past twelve years, is in the city today on business, having come down this morning from Hillsboro, where he has been spending some time. Congressman Thomas has made one of the best representatives in the national legislative body the state has ever had, and it is a matter of general regret throughout the state he is not to be returned by his district. But his failure to again be the nominee of the party in the third district comes by his own choice not to again contend for the nomination, the convention naming to succeed him Dr. John M. Faison, of Duplin county.

Mr. Thomas says that conditions in his district are in good shape, and that Dr. Faison will win out by a good majority over his Republican opponent, George Butler, of Sampson county, and a close kinsman of "Mary Ann."—Durham Herald.

Not Known in This City.

The following article was clipped from the Charlotte Observer: "Roanoke, Va., Sept. 26.—E. I. Caldwell, of New Bern, N. C., traveling in his touring automobile over the national highway, ran over some chickens and pigs at Rocky Mount, Va., this evening. Upon his arrival at Roanoke he was arrested on request of the Rocky Mount officials and taken to police headquarters. It is believed Caldwell will arrange a compromise and proceed on his way. He has not been locked up."

Mr. Caldwell may have resided in New Bern at some time during the past few years, but inquiries failed to prove his identity. It is presumed that he was an excited by the outcome of affairs that he gave the name of the first city that he thought of as his home town.
