ROOSEVELT HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

Horse Which He was Riding was Struck by an Auto and the Col Was Almost Thrown From his Seat.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Oct. 5.—Colonel Roosevelt had a narrow escape from death at the entrance of his Sagamore Hill estate today when a spirited black horse which he was riding, was struck by an automobile and the Colonel was half thrown to the ground, sustaining slight bruises.

Mrs. F. Southack, widow of a millionaire New York real estate dealer, was riding in the automobile. Colonel Roosevelt, a western experience doubtless saved him from a fatal fall upon the macadamized road way. Shortly after 10 o'clock the Colonel rode down the driveway from Sagamore Hill upon a prancing black horse. The spirited animal was in high fettle and it was all the Colonel could do to hold it in.

As he turned into Cove Road, which skirts the Roosevelt estate, an automobile driven by John Buttrick, a chauffeur, in the employ of the Southack family, and containing Mrs. Southack dashed up.

Colonel Roosevelt saw the machine whizzing toward him and with a quick movement tried to swing the horse out of danger, but was a second too late, and the car crushed into it.

The shock threw the animal upon its haunches and the Colonel attempted to free both feet from the stirrups and dismounted, but he was too late.

The Colonel managed to free one foot but the other stuck fast. As the horse lurched the Colonel was half flung across the pommel of the saddle, sustaining a few slight bruises. Later he said he wasn't hurt at all and laughed at the experience.

Killed at Navy Yard.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The explosion of a cartridge primer at the navy yard this afternoon killed two machinists and injured one other. Two other men who were handling the primer at the time escaped unhurt.

Following the loud report of the heavy explosion the fire brigade of the yard, men in the various shops in the yard and sailors from the ships at the nearby wharves responded. The fire which followed the explosion was quickly extinguished.

PROCEEDINGS IN SUPERIOR COURT

Large Number of Cases Disposed of Yesterday.

Yesterday was indeed a busy day in Superior Court all during the day both the counsel and the jury were taxed to their utmost in disposing of the cases that were brought before them and when the session closed for the day the docket was cleared of a large number of the cases.

The capital cases have not yet been reached but they will doubtless begin today. Those will doubtless consume the remainder of the session many of the cases yesterday were of particular interest to the public and all during the day the court room was crowded to its utmost capacity, but despite this fact there was scarcely a murmur to be heard only when some ludicrous bit of evidence was brought forth by the attorneys.

Judge Ward is being highly complimented upon the efficient manner in which he is disposing of the cases of the docket.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

State vs Leonard Miller, charged with assault with deadly weapon, defendant pleaded guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of the cost.

State vs David Bryan, charged with carrying concealed weapon, not guilty.

State vs Joe Johnson, charged with gambling, guilty; sentenced to six months on county roads.

State vs Joe Credle, charged with assault with deadly weapon on police officer Parker; guilty; judgment of the court was that the defendant be sentenced to the county roads for a period of fifteen months.

State vs Rosella Harris, charged with assault with deadly weapon; not guilty.

State vs Bob Jones, charged with larceny; not guilty.

State vs Ferny Branch, retailing guilty, 6 months on the county roads.

State vs Norris Beeton, larceny not guilty.

State vs Columbus Barnum, retailing, guilty 5 months on the county road.

UNWRITTEN LAW IS UPHELD

The Girl Was Justified in Taking a Life to Save Honor, Her Good Character.

Pittsburg, Oct. 3.—Katherine Bette, a girl of thirteen years, who slew her god father with an axe and a red hot poker in avenging his theft of her honor, was cleared of criminal charges late today on the ground that the homicide was justifiable. Judge John M. Swearingen, in charging the jurors, after a two days' recital of testimony, upheld the unwritten law. The girl had faced the trial with confidence that her act was warranted and she went home this evening free, but to face motherhood again.

Pasquale Volpe, an Italian, who had boarded at her home in Wilmerding ever since the girl's infancy, and who acted as her godfather, was the victim. While she was in the cellar getting a sack of potatoes he is alleged to have abused her on August 11th last, following which she struck him unconscious with an axe and ran a red hot poker through his body.

On the stand she related her story. She said: "He had burned my heart and I wanted to burn his."

A number of witnesses testified to girl's good character in the neighborhood, but her studious habits in school and hard work at home helping her mother.

Although the girl had been indicted for first degree murder, the prosecution had not pressed for a continuation entailing so severe a penalty. Attorney Richard merely urged that the child be placed in an institution, but the girl's counsel dramatically demanded "liberty or death."

Judge Swearingen's charge was that if Volpe went to the cellar with the express purpose to commit an abuse upon the girl, she had a right to kill him.

Nine Spoons in Her Stomach

Concord, N. H., Oct. 4.—Nine spoons in a human stomach have been discovered by an autopsy performed on Miss Catherine Moore of Manchester, 26, inmate of the State Insane Hospital here.

A few days ago one of the attendants saw the woman swallow a spoon. Medical assistance was summoned, but the patient died within a short time. An autopsy yesterday revealed nine spoons, all but one of them bearing the woman's name.
