COMPANY BUYS UP AN ENTIRE TOWN

Lumber Concern Purchases Big Holdings in Western North Carolina.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 12.—Rumors circulated throughout this section, which, however, have not been confirmed, are to the effect that the Whiting Lumber Company, one of the largest lumber concerns operating in the South has purchased the town of Robbinsville of about 300 inhabitants, in Graham county.

The local manager would neither deny nor confirm the report, but stated that later information would follow. It is known that the Whiting company is backed by an English syndicate which stands prepared to put up $2,000,000 for its holdings in Graham county. That the deal has been put through is the opinion of many residents of that section, who state that the money paid for the property was in $10 and $20 gold pieces. It is a well known fact that the price of real estate has advanced greatly within the last few weeks. Lot that heretofore sold for $300 and $400 now demand a price of $1,000.

Robbinsville is a sleepy little village of about 300 inhabitants, surrounded by thousands of acres of the best hard wood timber land in the South, and it offers a great opportunity for an enterprise of this kind.

The plans that are rumored are that the company will establish a $2,500,000 wood-working plant, and that about 1,500 men will be employed, which will turn the little town into one of the greatest lumber camps in the South.

It is situated on the Blount River and it is said that it will be connected with the Southern Railway by a short railroad line, connecting with the Bushnell line.

Puts Democrats to Work.

Mr. W. D. McIver, is in the city on legal business, he had this to say yesterday:

"Marion Butler was in New Bern a few days ago. As a result of his speech Democrats have become more active. Tom Settle is scheduled to speak there and this will mean more Democratic activity. The more the Radicals speak in New Bern the greater the Democratic majorities in that section.—Raleigh News-Observer 12th.

Republican Convention at Beaufort

Beaufort, Oct. 12.—The republicans of Carteret county met here yesterday and put out a full county ticket. The Mace faction was in full control and the Davis crowd got the "steam roller." Will Mace was elected chairman of the Carteret county executive committee for the next two years. The court house was crowded, not a negro present.

After the convention adjourned Moses Harshaw spoke for an hour, then Thos. Satch fired hot shot into the democrats until train time. It was a stirring day in republican circles.

WOULD CHANGE NAME OF CHURCH

Radical Revisions Recommended in Resolutions at Episcopal Convention at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 12.—Resolutions and amendments calling for the changing of the name of the church; reorganization of the Board of Missions, a general overhauling of the methods of exhortation at theological seminaries and changes in the canons bearing on numerous subjects, and the question of revising the church canons regarding marriages and divorces, were under discussion at meetings of the triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal church.

After the House of Deputies had finished discussing the work among the Jews, in which Rev. William Grosvenor, of New York, made a speech, the House of Bishops took up the subject and issued a decree. This stated that Jews who had been converted to the Episcopal faith might continue the Jewish rites, festivals and ceremonies of their forefathers as historical and racial traditions, provided they did it as a matter of morality or for sanitary reasons, but not as a form of religion.

A resolution giving the sanction of the Protestant Episcopal church to the healing of the sick by prayer was adopted in one section of the House of Deputies, but was defeated in another section of the house by the narrow margin of five votes. The voting was by dioceses.

That a majority of the House of Deputies was in favor of the report was shown clearly when the clerical bench adopted it by a vote of 41 yeas to 17 nays, with 9 dioceses not voting, or divided. The laymen of the house, however, killed the report by a vote of 27 yeas, 22 nays, four dioceses not voting.

It required a majority in both orders of the house to carry the report. While the question will come up before the House of Bishops at some future date, it is regarded as improbable that the upper house of the convention will take any action on it.

Rev. Ducius Wathman, rector of St. Thomas church, Hanover, N. H., presented the report. In doing so he explained that he had no fear of the word "supernatural." He continued: "If Jesus did heal the sick in the first century in a supernatural manner, he can do so today; and to recognize that fact is not to put the church in a position of not recognizing modern science. While the limits of modern science have been reached, we have not reached the limits of the power of God."

Rev. M. S. Taylor, of Atlanta, endorsed Dr. Wathman's resolution. He said the Episcopal church had been taken in the dark, in the matter of divine healing.

"It is our own fault," he declared, "for this magnificent gift was given to us by our blessed Lord in the beginning. The power of restoring the sick by prayer was thrown away by our church, and a woman picked up that jewel. Now, I say let us take back our own and use this magnificent gift in the name of the church."

The laity of the House of Deputies as a rule opposed the report. While the large vote polled for the resolution came as a surprise, the belief prevailed that the subject would not be revived at this convention.

Marked changes in the missionary canon concerning the work of the Board of Domestic and Foreign Missions were proposed in the House of Deputies by George Wharton Pepper, of Philadel-

WILL INVESTIGATE LUMBER TRUST

Department of Justice Trying to Find Facts Bearing on Lumber Combinations.

Washington, Oct. 12.—To determine if there is any foundation for numerous complaints received at the Department of Justice, alleging the existence of a "lumber trust," special agents of the Department are quietly investigating the operations of a large number of trade associations and other organizations in all parts of the country connected with the manufacturing and marketing of lumber.

In some of the reports received it is represented that price fixing is not the most serious practice charged to some of the organizations. Charges of black-listing, elimination of competition and divisions of territory are made.

None of the officials would admit that any plan of procedure had been determined upon or that the investigation had reached the point where any legal step is in order.

President's Wife Hums Over Child

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 12.—Not until Mrs. Taft, wife of the president, motored to the Salem Hospital did it become known that the presidential automobile in which Mrs. Taft was riding struck and injured Wilfred E. Crowell, a six-year-old girl, in Salem. The child's head was cut and her body bruised, but the injuries were not serious and she was discharged from the hospital.

Mrs. Taft was greatly shocked at the accident. She ordered Chauffeur Long to stop the car and she herself picked up the child and hurried with her to the hospital. Mrs. Taft left instructions for everything to be done to make the child comfortable and early this morning she returned to the hospital to inquire after the little patient.

Leneve Women to be Indicted.

London, Oct. 12.—The probability that Miss Ethel Clare Leneve may escape trial for complicity in the murder of Mrs. Belle Elmore Crippen was upset in Old Bailey today when the recorder, Sir Forrest Fulton, charging the grand jury, urged that indictments be found against both Crippen and Leneve.

Instead of the election in convention of 45 members of the board, the most radical change calls for 21 to be elected in convention, and 24 by missionary councils. Instead of having the work of the Board of Missions directed by the general secretary and the presiding ex-officio, the latter being the presiding bishop, it is asked that it be conducted by a president and four secretaries.

A resolution was offered in the House of Deputies that recognition of the fact that the church is part of the Holy Catholic church, be put on the title page of the book of common prayer. Both of the resolutions will be taken up for final settlement later.

Rev. Joseph D. Carry, of Saratoga, introduced a resolution asking for a commission to arrange for the celebration of 1911 of the three hundredth anniversary of the first publication of King James' version of the Bible.
