

The Prudent Farmer

THERE is a great deal being said throughout the country about the importance of farming as an occupation. The fact is, that the great mass of people are just beginning to understand the value of land and the independent position of the farmer.

The farmer who deposits his surplus money in a strong, safe bank can tide over a season of bad crops, when it comes. This bank issues Certificates of Deposit, yielding interest at the rate of Four Per Cent.

LIFE CRUSHED OUT BY ELEVATOR

Daniel Perry, of North Carolina, Receives Fatal Injuries Stepping on Car.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 17.—Caught in the door of a rapidly descending elevator in the building which is undergoing repairs at Ely and Franklin streets, Mr. Daniel Perry, about 28 years old, and from North Carolina, was crushed and almost instantly killed on Saturday morning.

Crushed beneath an elevator, Mr. Daniel Perry, one of the painters employed at the Graham Apartments at Rowland and Franklin streets was instantly killed Saturday morning. The elevator was on its downward trip, and without giving warning that he wished to get on, the man tried to board the car as it passed his floor, jumped too soon and fell under the car, being caught between it and the floor and horribly mutilated.

As soon as possible the elevator was stopped, but the body of the man had fallen to the ground floor some distance below. The city ambulance was called and Dr. Harshbarger responded, but nothing could be done, as the man had been killed as soon as caught under the car.

Mr. Perry was 28 years old, and came to Richmond some time ago from North Carolina, where he leaves a wife and three small children. Mrs. Perry has been notified of her husband's death, and the body is being held until she telegraphs what disposition she wishes made of it.

Coroner Taylor was sent for immediately after the accident. It is hardly probable, however, that an inquest will be ordered, as those working on the building point out that no one can be held responsible for Perry's death, it being due in a large measure to his own misadventure in trying to jump aboard the car.

Labor is Depressed in North Carolina

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 17.—The wage earners of North Carolina have not yet been able to recover the favorable conditions which prevailed for some years prior to 1909, declares Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman in the introduction to the section of his 1910 report just prepared for the State printers. A sense of depression, he says, probably affects this class of citizens more than any other, in that it forces them from permanent employment and brings about the necessity of searching for positions or remaining in enforced idleness. He says it may be suggested truthfully, however, that these avocations, commonly termed the trades and embracing representatives embracing experience and ability, have afforded employment more regularly. If at reduced wages, than the daily wage worker in many of the mill districts, lumber plants and other industrial centers, where the more efficient class of labor is not in demand so much. He finds, he says, that comparatively few skilled laborers, willing to work, are without employment at reasonable wages. He says the wage earner is confronted with the most annoying situation in the demands upon his earnings for actual living expenses, prices for actual home necessities having advanced out of proportion to his income or earning capacity.

one way out of it. The world says unless you have "the goods" you are not it. It matters little what you make unless you save regularly and persistently. Therefore it is not wise to save money while you may and invest in something that is good and absolutely safe. Stanley Ketchel Shot.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 17.—Stanley Ketchel, champion middle-weight pugilist of the world, died here as a result of being shot early by Walter A. Hurtz. The shooting took place on the ranch of R. P. Dickerson, a friend of Ketchel, near Conway, 40 miles east of here.

An hour before he died Ketchel regained consciousness. There was thought to be a slight chance for his recovery. His condition soon took a decided change for the worse, however, and he died quickly.

The pugilist died in the Springfield hospital where he had been rushed after removing him to Conway on a special train chartered by Mr. Dickerson. Three physicians were on the spot.

An operation was performed on Ketchel at the ranch house in an attempt to locate the bullet. It was not found.

Out in the wooded hills east of here, Hurtz, Ketchel's slayer, heavily armed and fleeing before a pack of blood hounds and a posse of officers and citizens. Dickerson has placed a price of $5,000 on his capture dead or alive.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 17.—Walter A. Hurtz, who shot and killed Stanley Ketchel, world's middleweight champion, was captured today at the home of Thomas Haggard, one mile from Niangua, Mo., Hurtz was taken to the Webster county jail at Marshfield, where he is being closely guarded.

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR TRAINS

Uniform Standards For Equipment of Railroad Cars and Locomotives.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Uniform standards for the equipment of railway cars and locomotives, with safety appliances, were prescribed today by an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

This order is the result of long continued agitation for uniformity in the equipment of cars.

All the appliances covered by the Commission's order are now used on cars with the exception that two additional still steps are now required on all cars.

The change which will be brought about by the new order will exempt all cars to be equipped alike, and the Commission can enforce the desired uniformity.

Although the statement was made by the railroad that the proposed changes in the standards would cost American railways approximately $20,000,000, the Commission is of the opinion that "compliance with the order will not cause any undue expense to the railroads," as the order applies primarily to new equipment and is immediately effective only with respect to new cars.

A sufficient amount of time will be granted to the railroads to permit them to equip their old cars with the new standard, as the case, from time to time, are relegated to the shops for repairs.

WILL INDICT LAND GRABBERS

Federal Jury Rewards Months of Secret Efforts by Department.

Washington, Oct. 17.—After months secret effort and patient waiting, the officials of the general land office were able to announce the indictment of a number of claimants to valuable coal lands in Alaska. The entries involved number 184, and cover almost 25,000 acres of land, all of which lies in the Barrow straits. In which the Cunningham claims are located. They are what is known as the English or Stracy and the Christopher-Simmons groups, the former containing 99 and the latter 74 claims of 160 acres each. The deposits covered by those claims are believed to be as rich as those of the Cunningham mines, which cut a conspicuous figure in the Bullinger-Pinchof controversy.

The indictments handed down in the United States District court, now sitting at Tacoma, and the information that they had been returned was conveyed in two telegrams received by Commissioner Bennett from Special Agent Christensen, in charge of Alaska matters, to whose efforts the findings are especially due. The first message contained the announcement of the action against the English group and stated that indictments had been returned against C. F. Munday, A. H. Stracy, Archie W. Shields and E. E. Tingles. A few minutes later came the second telegram telling of the indictment of Cornelius Christopher, George Simmons and Mortimer C. Sweeney, of the second group. He adds that warrants would be issued as soon as the indicted men could be apprehended.

The first group takes its name from the fact that a number of people in western Canada are supposed to be interested in the claims taken up by this party.

Stracy, one of the men indicted, is a resident Vancouver, and is charged with being instrumental in making some of the locations. Monday is a prominent attorney in Seattle.

The charge against the indicted men is that the entries were made in the name of "dummy." Most of the entries were residents of Washington and their claims are said to have been located with an agreement that the claims should be assigned to third parties as soon as such parties willing to become interested could be found by the locator. There is said to have been a further understanding that the locator should receive a large percentage of the sale price.

The charge differs from the charge made in the Cunningham claims in which there was no allegation that the entries were made for persons other than themselves, but rather that they had a previous agreement to work or dispose of their claims as a unit. It is said that very few of the claimants in the new cases ever saw the land on which their names were used for locations.

For Sale.

I will sell on Oct. 31, at auction, a one horse truck to collect payment for repairs on same.

To Write Message on Trip.

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 17.—During the four or five days' journey to Panama and on the way home the President expects to write the greatest part of his message to Congress.

Into the message there will go a recommendation which seems likely to please Congress between two fires. Visitors who have talked with the President recently have found him in favor of legislation which will empower the States to lease and develop their water power. In the proposed law there will be conditions under which the power sites would revert to the Government unless every requirement is strictly carried out. In making such a recommendation, the President will be acquiescing to the views of Mr. Roosevelt, James B. Garfield and Clifford Prentiss.

President Taft's message will recommend legislation for a leasing system from coal, oil, phosphate and mineral lands, and for making it possible to lease these lands to prospectors for oil on Government-owned lands.

"Don't Let The Girls Get You."

That's the theme that runs through the song of this week now being sung in the immense chorus in the grand musical farce, "Aloha, Where Do You Live?"

The words of the song are by George V. Robert, the well-known author, while Jack DeWitt is given credit for the music.

This is the song and the play that is drawing the crowds to Water's Theatre, New York city.

and it is this song, the music and the play that will give us our first musical success in New York.
