CRIPPEN PAYS DEATH PENALTY

Pitiable Spectacle as Condemned Man Was Led to His Death.

London, Nov. 24.—Dr. H. H. Crippen was hanged yesterday in Pentonville Prison for the murder of his second wife, Dr. Helen. The execution took place within a few minutes of the stroke of nine which was the time officially designated. The condemned man, in a pitiful appearance as he was literally led through the short corridor to the gallows, and then to the scaffold. His mortal anguish had been too great to be covered up by outward bravado and it was in a broken voice that he uttered the words which were obliged to assist up to the steps, as the drop upon which he was raised the shrieking figure all but collapsed. The first report that Crippen had met his fate calmly was contradicted by persons who were present in the prison during the man's last hours. The doctor who passed a restless night and appeared haggard and worn when awakened from his fitful slumber. He seemed to lose all fortitude as the end approached. A breakfast was brought to him but he left it untouched. His face was colorless as he was re-vested, headed to the gallows. The gruesome work was soon done.

When Will It Be Made Known.

Several North Carolina towns have recently received their returns from the census which was taken a few months ago, but up to the present time New Bern's population has not been made public by the census bureau and judging from present indications will not be any near day.

Recent reports sent out by the bureau informed the public that an unusually large number of clerks are working both day and night in getting the congested reports cleared away in order that they can handle the work at a faster rate in the future than they have in the past.

What the General Manager of the Home Telephone and Telegraph Co. Says About Durso.

Henderson, N. C., Nov. 23, 1910. Mr. J. Leon Williams, New Bern, N. C., My Dear Sir:—In answer to your inquiry as to how we liked Durso, it affords me pleasure to say that during the several years I have had the direction of the Henderson Lyceum Association Durso has been with us twice, and the more we see of him the better we like him. His entertainment is of a high order, original, and full of startling surprises from beginning to end. His work is not only highly interesting and entertaining, but wondrously clever and ingenious. Durso is an artist, to see him once, is to want to see him again, and like but few other things, improves with age. I can unhesitatingly recommend Durso as one of the few attractions that seem to appeal to and please every one. I hope you will give him the full benefit of his work merits.

Yours truly,
F. C. TOEPLERMAN.

Savodine Remedy for Grip.

"SAVODINE in my opinion should be in every household. I have given it an impartial trial for several ailments for which it is recommended and without a single exception have received very perceptible benefit. In cases of Headache, Toothache or Difficult Breathing its effect is wonderful. I have had Laryngitis a number of times which has left me with hoarse cough and sore throat, nasal and bronchial troubles. In these cases I get from SAVODINE a relief which nothing else has given me. I had a neuralgia excruciating in both of my ears. Continued application has removed it from the one and I believe will remove it from the other. Two great points in its favor are that it is harmless and that it does its work at once."

ALL IN READINESS FOR CONFERENCE

Elizabeth City Has Preparations Made for the Entertainment of Preachers.

Elizabeth City, Nov. 24.—The most important gathering scheduled for Elizabeth City this season is the annual North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which convenes here Wednesday, November 24, and adjourns on Sunday night following. The North Carolina Conference embraces all churches in the State not included by the Western North Carolina Conference, which has just adjourned in Winston-Salem, the churches being divided into districts as follows: Raleigh, Warrenton, Fayetteville, Durham, Washington, Wilmington, Elizabeth City, New Bern. From all of these districts, which include the Methodist churches covering a large territory, delegates from among the laymen, together with many of the ministers' and women's wives and families, and delegates from the various women's organizations of the Methodist church, there will be many to attend the annual meeting and from 300 to 500 visitors in the city are expected. The Methodist of this city have about completed all the arrangements for the entertainment of the distinguished body and to those who are acquainted with the manner in which the people of Elizabeth City dispense hospitality there can be no doubt but that this annual meeting of the preachers and their co-workers will be one of the most enjoyable in its history. The people of this city, regardless of denomination, will give the visitors a warm welcome and will leave nothing undone to make their stay one of comfort and great pleasure. To emphasize the assertion that elaborate preparations are being made, it might be stated that the market is being flooded with chickens and other fowls which is generally considered prima facie evidence of an approaching gathering of Methodist ministers.

Railroads Come Forward.

The Norfolk Southern and Atlantic Coast Line Railroads have very liberally agreed to make up the shortage in the expenses due to the Bi-Centennial celebration in New Bern last July, for which the city and county appropriated $5,000. This pleasing word was received by Mr. L. H. Cutler in reply to his letter to President E. T. Lamb, of the Norfolk-Southern dated November 7. Mr. Cutler was appointed to take up the matter of liquidating the remaining indebtedness, and naturally feels much gratified at the successful closing up of the matter.
