CONGRESS ONE WEEK

Three Months To Carry Out Administration Plans.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 28—When congress meets a week from today it will have just three months in which to perform whatever may be the demands of the Republican administration. After that the fate of the Taft legislative program will depend upon the will of a Democratic house and a Republican senate, a condition which will continue until the end of President Taft's present term of office.

Confronted with a situation fraught with confusion, the success or failure of the approaching short session of the Sixty-first congress is believed to rest with the character of the executive message to be sent to the legislative bodies according to Republican party leaders who are now in the city. Many of the regular Republicans who were defeated in the recent elections are not expected to carry with the best of grace the blows so harshly administered, and this fact of itself cuts out for the president a task offering dire difficulties far more complexing than any that have been presented to an executive within a score of years.

Realizing that he will be criticized if he fails to demand of congress further revision of the tariff and that prospects would be all against the success of such a program if submitted, the president, it is said, has not made up his mind definitely what his course will be. The chances are that he will not sit upon action during the approaching session but he will offer to the Democratic house and the Republican senate, a year hence, a program for tariff revision which will be bolstered up with facts, and figures gathered in the meantime by the tariff board.

Married at Coffin of Bride's Mother

Easton, Pa., Nov. 28—Sylvanus J. Fehnel and Hattie M. Abel, both of Bath Pa., are today man and wife, having been married beside the coffin of the bride's mother.

The young people chose this rather than wait for several months. They were to have been married some time ago, but interference put off the wedding three times, and although the bride's mother had just died, the two young people carried out their plans.

Chickens Found in Gypsies Wagon

During the past few days a band of Gypsies have been encamped just outside of the northern part of the city. People living near that place had frequently missed a number of fowls from their coops since the wanderers had been encamped there and they concluded to search the wagon in which the Gypsies carried all of their paraphernalia. Early Sunday morning this was done and the result was that three of the missing fowls were recovered. It was thought that it would be best to have them arrested for stealing. The Gypsies, however, promised to leave this locality and no action was taken.

AFTER EFFECTS OF THE GRIP

It is fortunate that the Grip epidemic this year is milder in its action than in previous years. This does not mean that it is less dangerous.

The after results of the Grip are apt to be exceedingly serious. Do not take any chances, — for the general weakness and to allow all bronchial irritation after the fever passes, nothing equals Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the health-giving properties of the cod's liver, with the grease eliminated and tonic iron added.

A lady from Long Branch, N. J., writes: "The Grip left me in a nervous, weakness, run-down condition. After taking three bottles of Vinol I am better and stronger than I have been for years, and I cheerfully recommend Vinol to all who have been ill and need strength." (Name furnished on request.)

A Grip or any other illness try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your mother will be assured if it does not restore your vitality and strength. F. R. Duff, Druggist, New Bern, N. C.

TEN MEN IN MINE BELIEVED DEAD

Only Half of Those in No. 3 When Explosion Came Able To Make Way Out.

Providence, Ky., Nov. 28—It is believed today that the ten men entombed in mine No. 3, or the Providence Coal Company, by an explosion, are dead.

The mine rescue car of the government bureau of mines arrived from Linton, Indiana, early today. At 6:10 this morning the rescue crew, aided by volunteers, entered the mine. It was at first believed that the mine was free from gas, but it developed early this morning that dangerous gases had accumulated, and hopes of getting the entombed men out alive dwindled.

A windy shot in the mine Saturday afternoon caused a terrific explosion, and ten of the twenty miners employed in the mine escaped before gases had time to form, but ten others in the lower levels were unable to reach the surface.

SOCIETY

BOAT-HOUSE PARTY.

Mr. J. Vernon Blades was host at an original and delightful party at his boat house Saturday evening, from nine to eleven.

The party was complimentary to Miss Elizabeth Ellis and Miss Elizabeth Burrus, brides of Tuesday and Wednesday. The boat house presented a scene of beauty, with its profusion of Southern amilax and colored lights.

As the guests were served with punch, each was asked to give a toast to the brides and much merriment was caused by this, as well as the drawing of the carnations and what was attached to the stems.

Messrs. William Griffin and Dr. N. M. Gibbs were the leaders of the wedding toasts. Messrs. Wade Meadows and Jack Street drew the thimble while Miss Isabel Simmons and T. C. Daniels drew the money. Dancing was indulged in until the wee small hours. Lovely music was rendered by the Italian orchestra. Delicious refreshments, lemon-aid and heart design were served.

Souvenirs of the occasion were glass satin tied with white ribbon to each guest and beautiful green ribbon baskets of unique design, to the brides.

MISS ELLIS ENTERTAINS.

Miss Elizabeth Ellis gave an anticipatory reception at her home on East Front street last night.

The occasion was a very gay one, the health of the bride being drunk in every glass of punch.

The dining room which was all in green and white, presented a scene of loveliness as the guests entered.

The centerpiece of the table was formed of tulip and amilax, wreathed around the chandelier and extending to the corners, perched high at the top were four cups and half way down were two more.

The table was lighted by candles placed in white. The bride's cake was cut by all. Miss Mullens, of Marion, S. C., cutting the ring; Miss Sara Congdon, the money; Mr. William Griffin the thimble, and Miss Elizabeth Burrus the collar button.

Each guest was presented with white satin boxes, with E. H. engraved in the corner, the initials of the bride and groom holding wedding cake and silver slippers holding six as souvenirs of the occasion.

At 11 o'clock an elegant supper was served. The punch cards were hand-painted wedding balls.

Those present were Miss Elizabeth Burrus, Miss Mullens, of Marion, S. C., Miss Maud Mungar, Ed Meadows, Jess Stewart, Vernon Blades, Margaret Shattwood, Beulah Bealwood, Harriet Manks Mark (Misses), Dr. N. M. Gibbs, Adolph Nunn, Mr. James Wabab, Mrs. J. H. Cook, Mrs. E. H. Kates, Miss Estelle Willis, Miss E. Burrus, Miss Douglas Hand, Miss E. Ellis, W. G. Hand, W. J. Griffin, John Perry, Frank Warrington, Sara Congdon and J. C. Chapman.

Just received a fine line of Indian long black Cloak light weight. J. J. Baxter.

PLEADS FOR THE RAILROADS

Insurance Official at Rate Hearing 45,000 Policy Holders.

Washington, Nov. 28—Speaking for 20,000,000 life insurance policy holders in the United States, President George E. Ide, of the Home Life Insurance Co., urged before the Interstate Commerce Commission that in its disposition of the pending freight rate increase in the Eastern Trunk Line territory the commission avoid any move which would strike a blow at railroad securities.

Mr. Ide said, in his testimony, that he was not taking a position for or against the proposed increase, but pointed out that in his company alone 87 1/2 per cent. of its total assets is invested in railroad securities and that his company held these bonds secretly in trust for its 45,000 policy holders. Mr. Ide said he appeared for the life insurance interests generally.

"If for any reason," he said, "there is created in the mind of the financial world the slightest suspicion that our railroads cannot earn a fair living then credit will be at once impaired for buyers of those securities will not be found."

E. E. Williamson, freight commissioner for the commercial organizations of Cincinnati, resumed his testimony, telling about the "remarkably good" financial condition of American railroads. He said that since the Hepburn Act the public had been contributing greater revenue to the railroads and that the effective enforcement of the law against rebates practically spelled the difference between bankruptcy and prosperity for the railroads. He declared that the basis of credit of nearly all the railroads was good.

Man Returns to Childhood.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 28—Following a surgical operation in Chicago for the removal of a tumor from the brain, Jesse V. Taylor has been brought to his home in this city in the mental condition of a five-year-old child.

Taylor was editor of an agricultural publication in Chicago when he suffered an almost complete loss of memory. Physicians say that Taylor must now begin to learn as a child would and that it will be necessary to start anew in teaching him. Physically he is as well as ever, but there is small hope of his complete mental recovery.

Peace in Mexico.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Nov. 28—With the whereabouts of Francisco I. Madero, rebel, still a mystery, Mexico's most recent revolution has ended after a two weeks' attempt to install Diaz, according to the consensus of dispatches received here today.

Quiet reigns throughout the republic where the red flags of revolt have stirred citizens since the night of November 20, the date of the first concerted uprising in the city of Puebla. American passengers arriving here report that peace has been restored.

New Words of Praise For Savodine.

Winston-Salem, N. C., November 21, 1910. The Savodine Co., Gentlemen—

I have been a sufferer from asthma for 25 years and had to do a lot of my sleeping sitting up, could not lie down. Your representative placed two samples of Savodine in my hands which I used, and much to my surprise, for they gave me relief. I now use Savodine as night and day and sleep well. Use my name any way you wish, and refer any one to me.
