PERU AND BOLIVIA CLASH

Garrison on Frontier Surprised. Many Reported Killed. Boundary Dispute.

Lima, Peru, Dec. 9.—According to dispatches received here Bolivian forces surprised and attacked the Peruvian garrison Guayabal on the Bolivian frontier. A sharp engagement ensued in which many of the Peruvians were killed or wounded.

Peruvian troops have been rushed to the scene. There are fears that this may lead to a serious rupture between the two countries.

The insurgents, under Ferro, have taken refuge in Ecuador.

There was a serious boundary dispute between Peru and Bolivia last year, but on October 1909, a protocol, signed by representatives of Peru and Bolivia, was ratified by the congresses of both countries. This apparently disposed of the dispute arising from Bolivia's disinclination to accept the boundary award as made by the arbitrator, President Alcega, of Argentina.

Unity Is Strength

The bricks delivered on the Academy Green, to be used for the walks, were dumped by the teamsters in a disarranged manner. Noting this Supt. Craven made a brief talk to the pupils, on how much and how quickly things could be accomplished by united effort. His hearers not only "tumbled," but acted, and it was short work for the pupils, who turned out in numbers, to have the scattered bricks arranged in orderly piles.

You Can't Make A Pauper of Anyone.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 9.—No man has a right to make a pauper of anybody else by interfering with his employment, and if this is done, the person so meddling is liable to damages through the courts. This broad decision was laid down by the Supreme court of the state yesterday in the case of Charles R. Jones against the Seattle Cracker and Candy Company, being a reversal of the decision of the Superior court, which granted no suit.

Jones seeks $3,000 damages by reason of his discharge by a transfer company at the alleged behest of the Seattle Cracker and Candy Company. The case is remanded to the lower court for a trial.

Bradstreet's Weekly Trade Report.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 9.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say for Richmond and vicinity.

Trade in most lines is of a satisfactory volume and traders as a rule have optimistic views for the near future. Dry weather has retarded the marketing of loose tobacco in the sun-dried belt and slightly less money is in circulation locally. Dry goods and notions continue fairly active, considerable filling-in orders being noted. Manufacturers of stoves and ranges have had a good fall trade and buying with them is still brisk. Produce and fruit are in good demand and cool weather has favored the handling of such products. Manufacturers and wholesalers of shoes continue to secure good orders. Dealers in toys and holiday goods report buying well up to the average and retail trade in general has a more favorable aspect. Collections are fair.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The campaign committees of the Republican and Democratic parties filed their lists of contributions and expenditures for the recent Congressional campaign in Congress.

The Democratic list shows a total expenditure of $27,771.22.

The Republican committee received and expended $74,373.35. Of the total contributions to the Democratic committee $13,258.22 represented the balance on hand June 25, 1910, and $3,650 was all that came in, in contributions of $100 or over. The contributions of less than $100 amounted to $10,882.68. The cash on hand aggregated $19.69.

The Republicans collected $77,460.93, or three times as much as the Democrats.

Fine Christmas Stationery M. E. Whitehurst & Co.

Mr. Lane Entirely Right.

Editor Sun: I noticed in a recent issue of the Sun a card by Mr. R. B. Lane explanatory of an item in the report of the auditor recently published. Mr. Lane is entirely right about that. The order was made by Mr. John Richardson's administration, and every Register of Deeds, including Mr. J. W. Hiddle and myself, got $1.50 for fee in issuing marriage licenses, and they had a legal right to get it, as did Mr. Lane.

The conduct of the office of Register of Deeds during Mr. Lane's administration was absolutely honest and correct and thoroughly competent.

Against Taft's Plan.

New Orleans, Dec. 9.—President Taft's recommendation in his annual message to Congress relative to the guaranteeing of through cotton bills of lading has stirred a furor among the cotton interests of the South, who assert that the President's suggested plan would result in a heavy tax upon this industry. Commercial bodies generally throughout the South will probably protest to Congress against the adoption of any such plan as that outlined in the President's message.

BIG FIRE AT CAROLINA BEACH

The Hotel, Pavilion, Bath Houses And Residences Burned.

Wilmington, Dec. 9.—Fire of supposably incendiary origin at Carolina Beach, a summer resort, 15 miles below this city, late Wednesday night, destroyed the hotel and pavilion, the property of Captain John W. Harper, promoter of the beach, and bath houses, and two 2-story residences owned by H. A. Kure, of this city. The entire loss is estimated at $15,000 with practically no insurance.

It is almost certain that the fire was of incendiary origin as there were no people staying at the beach and no occasion existed for any fires in any of the buildings.

The blow is quite a severe one to Carolina Beach, as the season just closed was a very successful one and Captain Harper had about closed negotiations with northern capitalists for a lease of the properties for next summer. He will rebuild immediately and on an even more elaborate scale than before.

Mark Twain and the Preacher.

Upon one occasion he was introduced to a well known preacher, whose church he had attended the previous Sunday. The preacher ventured to inquire how he had enjoyed the discourse, when Mark Twain replied that he would have liked it better if it had been original. The cleric looked at him in amazement and inquired his meaning, remarking that he prided himself that every sermon he preached was original.

Mark Twain fixed him with a steely eye. "Then how comes it, sir," he demanded, sternly, "that I have in my possession at home a book that contains every word you uttered?" The preacher looked more bewildered at this question than ever, and expressed a desire to see this volume and Twain promised to post it to him the same evening. The preacher was greatly entertained to receive the next day a packet from the humorist containing a copy of an ordinary pocket dictionary.
