TWENTY NINTH YEAR

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

OUR income is the only support of your family. What would you do, if it should be stopped by sickness or some other trouble? Well, you are reasonably sure that it will stop some time. Did you ever think what you would do then? Why not begin preparation for the day when the income may stop by saving just a little from what you have now?

A savings account at this bank will pay you 4 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually.

beid in his hand a bible which has been used by nearly every Chief Justice and Associate Justice on similar occasions during the last century, but unlike most of them, he kissed the book at the conclusion of the oath.

For the first time is history an Associate Justice had been elevated to the Chief Justiceship and for the first time a President and Senate of one political party had honored a member of a rival party by placing him at the head of the highest court in the land.

Because of the overwhelming modesty of Chief Justice White, officials of the court were uncettain as to exact details of the ceremony of the day until they had actually occurred. In a general way, the broad customs attending the induction into office of the head of the court were followed.
