OFFICIAL PAPER OF NEW BERN AND CRAVEN COUNTIES.

New Bern, N. C. Jan., 19, 1911

THE HUMAN CHATTEL.

"I will be master of what is my own; She is my goods, my chattels; she is my house,
My household-stuff, my field, my barn, My horse, my ox, my ass, my anything; And here she stands, touch her whoever dare."

Man was a proud creature in the time of Shakespeare, if the above voices the true situation. Occasionally in this day, here and there, a man will arise and declare his sovereignty, but he may be unmarried, or if married, that one word from a feminine throat, "George!" will cause his collapse.

Husbands are recognized in this age in a very different light from that of the times of The Bard. It might be extreme to place husbands in the 'human chattel' class, yet in many situations they might be said to be property. Instances to sustain this position are constantly seen in the press. The Adams county, Ohio, bribery cases so notable in political bribery history, offers a conspicuous example, where a woman of sixty years came into court, and confessed to having sold the votes of her husband and son. In a recent court suit by a married woman, the argument was advanced and not denied that "a husband is property to a wife and a family, and to win him away is nothing short of stealing." If this does not come pretty close to making the husband the "human chattel," there is little in argument.

The further right, title and possession of the husband is being continually established in courts in the various suits for non support and abandonment, with the saying clause for the woman's after marriage right to alimony. As being matrimonial property the husband cannot successfully deny, and few attempt it, for the decision is against man in the controversy. It may be that the "human chattel" idea was overdone in the early ages, certain it is that man today is wisely keeping silent on the subject, for whenever it does come up, man's pompous importance receives a severe jolt.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure.

Doan's

GROWS HAIR and we can PROVE IT!

A lady from Missouri writes:
"As a result of using Doan's, my hair is close to five feet in length."

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost
Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention it merits. It would do no good to water the soil if the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment; when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural thing to do in either case, is to feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Doan's Doan's has a most wonderful effect upon the hair, it cleanses and feeds the scalp, it is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair food or liquid of the scalp.

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

OLD LONDON LEGEND.

The Church That Stands in the Field of Forty Footsteps.

The church in Woburn square, London, is said to occupy the site of the "Field of Forty Footsteps," to which a tragic legend attaches. The story dates from the days of Monmouth's rebellion. According to the version given in Mr. J. S. Ogilvy's "Relics and Memorials of London Town," two brothers fell in love with a woman who either from calous vanity or fearing reprisals from the unsuccessful suitor, would not say which was to be the favored swain, suggesting that they should fight a duel and to the victor she would give her charms. They came from the town to this suburban field. The woman calmly sat down to await events. She had not long to wait, judging from the number of footprints, when one of the brothers fell dead, and as the victor approached she held out her arms to greet him, when, with a sudden revulsion of feeling for his brother's death, he slew her as she stood, and, turning the weapon, he drove it through his own heart. So they were found stiff in death with the footprints stamped in the wet clay, where they remained indelible through summer heat and winter frost; no green thing would grow, nor any man build himself a dwelling there. Streets were erected all round, but it was not until the nineteenth century that men took heart of grace and built a church there, when the consecration of the ground rolled back the curse and the memory of the legend grew faint and faded away.

Cleverness and Cunning. Cleverness and cunning are incommensurable. I never saw them united. The latter is the resource of the weak and is only natural to them. Children and fools are always cunning, but clever people never.—Byron.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS.

Are tonic in action, quick in results. A special medicine for all kidney and bladder disorders. Mary C. Abbott, Wolfboro, N. H., says: "I was afflicted with a bad case of rheumatism, due to uric acid that the kidneys failed to clear out of my blood. I was so lame in my feet, joints, and back that it was agony for me to step. I used Foley Kidney Pills for three days when I was able to get up and move about and the pains were all gone. This great change in condition I owe to Foley Kidney Pills, and recommend them to anyone suffering as I have."—F. S. Duffy.

Hard to Deny.
As Miss Hypatia Squares reached the culminating point of her lecture on "Woman's Rights and How to Wield Them" she threw back her head and stood in an attitude of defiance.

"Talk of man!" she cried. "What has man ever done for woman?"
"He's furnished the model she's trying her best to imitate" boomed a manly voice from the rear of the hall. And then a palpitating silence reigned for nearly a minute.

Threatening feverishness with children is quickly and safely calmed by Preventive. These Little Candy Cold Cure Tablets should always be at hand—for promptness is all-important. Preventives contain no quinine, nothing harsh or sickening. They are indeed, "the stitch in time." Carried in pocket or purse, Preventives are a genuine safeguard against Colds. 25c, Sold by Bradham Drug Co.

The Apocalypse.
There is no other book in the New Testament about which so much has been written and to so little purpose. Dr. South said of it, "It either finds a man mad or makes him so." It is said of Calvin that he showed his wisdom in not writing a commentary on this, as he did on other books.—Chadwick.

A RELIABLE COUGH MEDICINE.
It is a valuable family friend. Foley's Honey and Tar fills this condition exactly. Mrs. Charles Kline, N. 8th Eastern, Pa., states: "Several members of my family have been cured of bad coughs and colds by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar and I am never without a bottle in the house. It soothes and relieves the irritation in the throat and loosens up the cold. I have always found it a reliable cough cure."—F. S. Duffy.

ANOTHER COLORED PATTI.

Plymouth, N. C. Jan. 17.
Ed. Journal:—Please allow me space in your paper to state that you have, in our opinion, one of the greatest colored singers in the State, Miss Etta E Mann of New Bern. She gave entertainments in our town Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Monday night, and her singing was the finest we ever heard. Her voice is wonderful, Miss Mann is a fine young lady, that all should know, and hear. She left us Tuesday, much to our regret, returning on the N.-S. train to her home at New Bern. We are in hopes that we will have the pleasure of welcoming Miss Mann to our city again soon, and our best wishes are with her always.

That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. ENDS WINTER'S TROUBLES
To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, colds, sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Great relief for Burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at all druggists.

Some Famous Men of Old.
The "fine worthies" were Joshua, David, Judas Maccabees, Hector of Troy, Alexander the Great, Julius Caesar, King Arthur of Britain, Charlemagne of France and Godfrey of Bouillon. The list varies somewhat, but this is the most popular one. The "seven wise men of Greece" were Solon, Thales, Pittacus, Bias, Cleobolus, Myson and Chelion of Sparta. The supposition is, of course, that these were not the only wise men in Greece, but the wisest.—New York American.
