

A SAVINGS ACCOUNT

It is well known that a person in poor physical condition is more subject to attacks of disease than a person who is strong. It is just as true that a person who is in poor circumstances financially, is more liable to misfortune than one who is protected by some ready money in the bank. A savings account is the best means of strengthening yourself financially. Open an account at once. This bank accepts deposits of one dollar or more and interest is paid at the rate of 4 per cent per annum.

FAVOR INCREASE
GOV'S SALARY

Bill For Twenty Judicial Districts
Protection Insurance Companies.

Raleigh, Feb. 9.—The house committee on salaries and fees has voted unanimously for a favorable report for the senate bill to increase the salary of the governor of North Carolina from $4,000 to $6,000. This is the bill introduced by Senator Gardner, and has already passed the senate. The committee considered the Spanishhour resolution to appoint a legislative commission to investigate salaries of clerks in state offices and put them on a more equitable basis with school teachers and college instructors whose salaries he declares to be all too low. However action as to favorable or unfavorable report was deferred and a joint committee provided for with two from the senate and two from the house to look into the salaries and duty of state clerks and report so that the need for an investigating commission may be ascertained.

The House passed a joint resolution for the ratification of the amendment to the Federal Constitution for the income tax by a large majority and it was ordered enrolled for ratification.

Senator Green, of Craven, introduced a bill to permit the sale of pure beer as well as wines in North Carolina.

The bill of Senator Hobgood, of Guilford, to divide the state into twenty judicial districts, gets a favorable report from the joint senate and house committee on judicial districts, and if passed the committee will then redistrict the state so as to relieve the congested dockets of superior courts in many counties by the work of the four additional judges.

The Ross bill to protect the insurance companies and the people of the State coming up for third reading, it was strongly opposed by Conner, Wooten, Bryan and others and a long contest was precipitated. The bill provides that citizens insuring in companies not licensed to do business in this State shall pay the 5 per cent tax on the premiums the State Treasurer. The charge against the bill was that it is an infringement on the liberties of the citizen and an effort to effectually exclude all companies from the State who are not in the Southeastern Tariff Association.

In defense of the bill Mr. Ross insisted that it is largely a revenue bill drawn by the attorney general of the State and the State Commissioner of Insurance and was expected to bring into the State about $35,000 additional revenue and would protect citizens from irresponsible insurance companies not subject to and actually evading the North Carolina law. There was opposition by Kellum, of New Hanover; Taylor, of Brunswick, and Wallace, on the ground that it would prevent citizens from getting cheaper insurance than the Southeastern Tariff Association provides. Mr. Koonce raised the issue that some companies now having license in the State might drop license and do business on this 5 per cent basis as cheaper than the State burden they now carry.

Farm Life School Bill.

Raleigh, Feb. 9.—After spending over two hours in a general discussion of the farm life school bill, the joint senate and house committees on education Wednesday night decided to appoint a sub-committee to revise and change it so as to accomplish the best results. There was no disagreement in the discussion as to the idea of establishing farm life schools in the various counties and several speeches in favor of the measure were made. The speakers including State Supt. J. Y. Joyner, Dr. B. Q. Alexander, president of the State Farmers' union, and Mr. Shaw, representative of the union. Representative Spanishhour, of Burke; Senator Dargatz, of Harnett; Senator Cobb, of Robeson, and others. The bill as introduced so as to meet the approval of all concerned and the different speakers made valuable suggestions, which were to be incorporated in the bill, with provision that the state is to appropriate $5,000 for each school when a county raises a like amount for building and equipment and the farm attached for demonstration work is to contain not less than 25 acres except in certain instances when only 10 acres will be cultivated.

KILLED IN TRAIN
ACCIDENTS

Was 2,948. Shown by the Commerce Board For Three Months.

Washington, Feb. 9th.—During the months of July, August and September the number of persons killed in train accidents was 821, while 3,893 were injured. These facts are disclosed in a bulletin issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the first under the revised accident law. It includes many accidents not heretofore included in the bulletins.

The total number of casualties of all kinds for the quarter was 22,328, or 2,948 killed and 19,380 injured, on steam operated railways. The totals are largely increased over corresponding periods in previous years, because of the inclusion of highway crossing accidents and those to trespassers on the tracks, etc. At the same time the totals of certain classes of accidents to employees are diminished by the exclusion of accidents which are not peculiar to railway operation. For the quarter in question this total is 21,130—132 killed and 21,002 injured.

The accident statistics of those electric lines on which interstate traffic is carried show 146 persons killed and 1,070 injured.

Bill Nye Day in Public Schools.

To the County Superintendents and the Public School Teachers:

The public press of North Carolina has always responded generously and unselfishly to every call of the public schools for service, and no agency has been more potent in promoting the development of these schools and the progress of education in the State. The county superintendents and the public school teachers now have an opportunity to express their appreciation of this service, and to render at the same time a valuable service to a most worthy cause by co-operating heartily with the "Bill Nye Memorial Committee" in their commendable effort to raise funds for the erection of a central or main building at the "Stonewall Jackson Manual Training School," to be known as the "Bill Nye Memorial Building."

The committee has prepared an interesting program for the celebration of Bill Nye Day in the public schools. An hour devoted to honoring the memory of such a man, who loved all children and all men, who devoted his splendid talents to making them happier and better through his writings, will be properly and profitably spent.

I earnestly request and urge the Co. Superintendent of each county to distribute these programs to the public school teachers of the county, accompanied by a letter to each teacher, directing the setting apart of an hour in the school for this celebration, and urging the hearty co-operation of the teachers for the success of this celebration.

The noble work of Stonewall Jackson Training School for giving wayward boys of the State a chance to be trained into good citizens should appeal strongly to the hearts of the children of the public schools, who but for the mercy of God might be like these wayward boys. It is a privilege, therefore for these children to have an opportunity to make a contribution to such a work. It will do them good. I earnestly urge, therefore, that county superintendents and teachers lend their hearty co-operation in securing at least a penny contribution from every child in the public schools for the erection of the Bill Nye Memorial Building for increasing the facilities at the State's school for training wayward boys.

On Wednesday, the 22nd day of February, for this celebration, I suggest that the teacher devote an hour on this day to reading to the pupils this booklet and to arousing an enthusiastic interest in Bill Nye and his work and in the work of the Stonewall Jackson Training School, concluding the exercises with an earnest appeal for a contribution of at least one penny from every child, to be brought next morning.

All contributions should be forwarded by the teacher or the principal of the school to Mr. E. W. Wooten, secretary of the Bill Nye Memorial Committee, Charlotte, N. C., and they will be acknowledged in the Charlotte Observer.

Very truly yours,
J. Y. JOYNER,
Supt. Public Instruction.

"BLIND TIGER"
CASE TRIED

Ben Brinson, Alleged Whiskey
Dealer Placed on Trial Yesterday.

At the opening of yesterday's session of superior court the case of the State vs. Ben Brinson, who was charged with selling whiskey was called.

The first witness was W. H. Smith, of Vanceboro, who is known as "John Doe." Smith said he had been on the Vanceboro police force for about two years, that on December he came to New Bern and was employed by Mayor McCarthy as a special officer at a salary of $50 per month; that he knew the defendant and had been in his car near stand on Middle street several times; on Dec. 23d was in Brinson's place, purchased half pint of whiskey for 35 cents, also went into Brinson's one night and purchased whiskey from J. W. Smith, a clerk.

W. B. Parker, a member of the New Bern police force was placed on the stand and said on the night of Dec. 23d he met Smith, alias John Doe, and he asked to be searched; this was done, no whiskey found, walked down to Brinson's place with him, Smith went inside and in a few minutes came out with a bottle of whiskey which he said he had purchased from Brinson's clerk; did not know Smith's real name until few days ago, knew Brinson had U. S. license, did not see sale made.

W. H. Griffin, another member of the police force, told of making a raid on Brinson's place and finding 59 pints and a barrel two-thirds full of pint bottles of whiskey and a number of bottles of beer.

The next witness, J. W. Smith, said up to a few weeks ago he was employed as clerk in Brinson's place, that he had often sold whiskey for defendant; that the sales aggregated about $11.00 per day, couldn't tell how much whiskey he had sold during the time he was employed at this place, that he had seen Brinson sell whiskey to a number of persons.

Mr. C. Lupton, a police officer said he had seen U. S. liquor license displayed at Brinson's place of business, that he knew Smith, the detective, only as "John Doe," had searched him, found nothing, watched him go into Brinson's place, a few moments later came out with a pint of whiskey.

Mr. F. S. Ernel, of this city, W. C. White and B. R. Warren of Vanceboro, were placed on the stand to prove that Smith's character was unsalable.

Mayor McCarthy said that after Smith came to him last December and told him he could catch some blind tigers he employed him at $50 per month. Investigated Smith's character before employing him; had never made Smith's real name known to the public.

Mr. J. H. Crawford, freight agent of the Norfolk Southern R. R. Co. in this city produced bills of lading which showed that Brinson had received 4 bbls of beer in December, but no whiskey had been shipped to him over their road.

Ben Brinson was placed on the stand in his own behalf, said he was 46 years old, and physically unable, had not worked any during the past few months, that he conducted a near beer saloon on Middle street, and had near beer license which had been purchased by John Golding, that J. W. Smith was employed by him, had never seen W. H. Smith alias "John Doe," never sold him liquor. Had never sold whiskey to anyone. Was at home when the raid was made on his place of business and was greatly surprised when he was told that a barrel of whiskey was found in his place. Had never had any whiskey carried to his saloon, but did have one barrel of Budweiser beer which he had for his own use.

John Golding, the last witness placed on the stand told of purchasing the United States liquor license. That he had never seen any whiskey sold in the place.

Counsel for both the State and the defendant both made forcible speeches after which the case was given to the jury. At a late hour last night a verdict had been rendered by the jury.

The following other cases were disposed of:

State vs. John H. Tucker, charge G. G. W. guilty he was sentenced to 60 days on the road.

State vs. Sheldon Clark, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, guilty sentenced to three months at the county road.

State vs. Cogdille and Hobbs, charged with larceny, guilty. Cogdille got 6 months and Hobbs 4 months on the road.
