

A LUCKY MAN

How often do we hear people say, "He is lucky." This is one of the popular errors which has gained a considerable foothold.

The lucky man is the man who works diligently and uses careful judgment in handling his money. The richest men in the world were, strange to say, almost the poorest boys. There is no limit to what can be done in accumulating a substantial fortune if prudence and diligence are exercised.

THE PROHIBITION AGAIN OPENED

Re submission in Maine is Voted. As Urged by Democrats.

Augusta, Maine, Feb. 18—Whether the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor shall continue under the Constitution of the States of the State at a special election next September.

By a vote of 105 to 49 the House of Representatives Thursday passed the Senate resolution resubmitting to popular vote the constitutional prohibitory amendment adopted in 1820. As both branches have sanctioned the measure, all that remains is the signature of Governor Plaisted, who was elected on a platform pledging resubmission.

Nineteen Republicans voted with 38 Democrats for resubmission, while the 40 votes in opposition were all cast by Republicans.

In last fall's campaign the Democrats championed resubmission and made their chief appeal on this issue, resulting in the passing of the control of the State government to the Democrats for the first time in half a century.

Tug Boat Sinks.

Friday afternoon the "Commodore Ivey," a tug boat owned by Mr. John Ivey, of Seven Springs, sunk to the bottom of Neuse river near Goldsboro, with a cargo of fertilizer. Heroic efforts were made by the crew to keep the ill-fated boat from sinking but these prove futile, and all parties on board abandoned their useless work, which was necessary for their own safety. This boat, in previous years, made New Bern its home port but during the past year or two has plied only between Kinston and Goldsboro.

A Wise Investment.

Most people think of what a dollar will buy, but the prudent man or woman thinks of what a dollar will earn. It is the earning power of money that makes men rich.

If man had to depend upon their personal earning power alone, there would be no millionaires. It has been well said that no man can earn a million dollars during his life time. But the man who earns a dollar and sets that dollar to work earning more money will be rich.

The greatest trouble with most people comes when they undertake to set their dollars to work. Because a man can earn money, is no assurance that he knows how to invest money. When money is lost, all is lost—both the money and the money that money earns.

A perfectly safe and sure way of using surplus money is to deposit it with the New Bern Banking & Trust Company of New Bern in a Savings Account, yielding interest at the rate of 4 per cent, per annum. The pass-book affords positive evidence of the amount of money on deposit and the money is secured by the Capital and Resources of this Bank.

When life ceases to be a promise it does not cease to be a task.—Amiel.

THOUSAND CHINESE DYING DAILY AT HARBIN

Chinese Dying Daily at Harbin—Frozen Ground Makes Burial Impossible.

Washington, Feb. 18—Two hundred and fifty Chinese are dying daily at Harbin, reported Consul General Wilder, in the Red Cross Society. The frozen ground makes burial impossible, and half a mile of coffins line the roadside outside the city. Four thousand bodies have been cremated after violent opposition by the populace.

The plague is spreading in Shantung province, and practically every village is affected. There are absolutely no recoveries from the plague, death following within a few hours following the infection of the lungs. A dozen doctors engaged in all work have died. Through the efforts of Japan, the advance of the plague in South Mukden has been checked, but elsewhere in Manchuria, its ravages are increasing.

MOVING PICTURES DISPLEASE

Indian Chief Protest Against Being Deported As Villain.

Washington, Feb. 18—As an aid to fiction in its more lurid spots, the American Indian has long been known to fame and nobody has offered any objection, certainly not the noble red man himself. With the development of the latest thrill producer, the moving picture show, however, the situation has changed.

Indian chiefs now visiting the lodge of the White Father have voiced emphatic protests to the uses to which their race is put in the unwritten literature of the five and ten-cent picture shows. Indian Commissioner Robert G. Valentine has promised to take the matter up with the White Father himself.

Big Duck and Big Bear, of the delegation from the Cheyenne and Arapahoe tribes, who called upon President Taft, this week, inspected a picture show last night during a tour of the White Father's village. They saw a story of unmitigated villainy unrolled before their eyes and a native red American, in full war paint and feathers, played the villain.

"I don't like it," said Big Bear when the show was over. "It is bad to be lied about to so many people. We have to go home. If we did not, I would go to President Taft and ask him to stop it. We will attend to it when we get home."
