the prioe of publiolit.

 The action of the Ohamber ofCommerce in zaliog that annual sppropriations be mede by thir co ty and counts, to sadvertige th advantages of city and county, in arder to attract investors and pet lers to this seotion, is a moxe in business direction, one that is needed. The suggestion of maniaipal and to briug io new people and cavie new investanents, has long met ap. proval in othec place. The price o(publicity is today generaily ro cognized as a consistent expense item by cities, connties and states. Pablicity by approved methoa that come uyder the bead of ad thing, from the individual to the State. The world only recognizes matter is so great that those wh ave good things to sell and do no avertise, reep their property hatever it may be the goods o vertised, find buyers.
its annual fair, this city was ad vertised as it never has been since. Hundreds of visitora eame here during fair week, were splendidly time, going away to tell of New Bern. There were sent out to ad the Journal, b,000 copies, a Jerge ustrative of what a little expen tare did to make this city and see tion prominent and knovia to out tors and even after the fair we out of existance, there were vis ors coming here every winters one, no matter what money may be the gain. The protit oan go on for years after the advertities eesper crease the publicity outlay, ean
