FORESTRY BILL PASSED

The Bill to Amend Charter of Pollockville is Ratified. Other Bills Passed.

Raleigh, Feb. 28.—The Senate reconsidered the vote by which a bill to protect the forests of North Carolina passed Saturday night, and it was recalled from the House.

The Senate bill to prevent forest fires is now to be amended in the house committee so a number of counties be exempted, these including Transylvania, Swain and Haywood. Fire wardens are to be paid out of a tax of one-half cent per acre on large tracts and a flat tax of 25 cents on owners of less than 50 acres of forest.

The bill requiring medical supplies and surgical appliances to be kept in factories employing 25 or more people passed with an amendment making the penalty for failure to keep these first-aid materials $25 instead of $50.

Kellum, of New Harver, made an unsuccessful attempt to get an amendment that no boat or vessel shall be taxed more than $50, but this was voted down. Rawles offered an amendment that was lost to strike out the $1 oyster tax. This bill creates the State Fish Commission that has the regulation of the commercial fishing interests of the State.

The bill to amend the charter of Pollockville was ratified. Bills passed in final reading to allow New Bern to issue fire improvement bonds; to provide for interest on bonds; to amend charter as to levying tax on property. The bill to regulate fishing in Neuse river passed final reading.

While walking around the various docks in the city yesterday the writer noticed a number of large boats unloading cargoes of merchandise. Inquiry elicited the information that they were from northern ports and were loaded with cargoes of merchandise for merchants in and around this city. Each week a number of these boats arrive in this port from northern ports, the merchants claiming that the freight rate is cheaper.

It is understood that the citizens of LaGrange will begin work at an early date to rebuild the section of town that was destroyed by fire last Sunday night. This shows an excellent spirit of progressiveness. Although they have suffered a severe loss out of the ruins they can build a town that will be one of the foremost in that section.

FOUND DEAD IN HER BED

Mother Attempts to Arouse Daughter and Finds That She is Dead.

When Mrs. M. E. Taylor attempted to awaken her daughter in-law Mrs. C. F. Taylor, who resided at No. 122 Broad street, yesterday morning she received no answer and upon investigating found that she was dead.

Mrs. Taylor, who is the wife of Mr. C. F. Taylor, a saw filer who is now working in South Carolina, has frequently had attacks of heart disease but by prompt action had succeeded in gaining relief within a short while. During the past few days she had complained of feeling unwell and it was suggested that a physician be called in. This however was not done. Monday night she retired at an early hour and sometime during the night she was taken with another attack of heart disease and before she could summon aid her soul had flown into its maker.

Arrangements for the funeral had not been completed yesterday afternoon.

FOREVER ENDS INDIGESTION

No Heartburn, Gas, Headache or Dizziness five minutes after taking a little Diaprepain.

Every family here ought to keep some Diaprepain in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Fapo's Diaprepain and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid or stomach gas or heartburn, flatness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or irritability of griping. This will all go and besides, there will be no more food left over in the stomach to poison your health with next morning.

STUBBORN FIRE LAST NIGHT

Destroyed the Eubank Building Located on the Corner of Broad and Middle Streets.

Shortly before 8 o'clock last night fire was discovered in the Eubank building, a wooden structure located on the corner of Broad and Middle streets, and before the alarm could be turned in it had gained so much headway that the entire building was practically destroyed before the flames could be extinguished.

Just how the fire originated could not be learned but when first discovered the blaze was issuing from the second story over Carter Tisdale's store, and it is supposed that it was caused by a defective fuse. Mr. Tisdale was able to remove the majority of his stock of goods before the flames reached him. J. D. Barfield, colored, who conducted a grocery store adjacent to Mr. Tisdale's lost a portion of his stock of goods. Joseph Rahid, an Assyrian merchant of the Middle street side Bangert building, carried his stock of merchandise out of his store and placed it in the street where much of it was ruined by being trampled upon. Thomas John, a fruit dealer located adjacent to Rahid had a portion of his stock damaged by water and smoke.

Eubank building was partially destroyed by fire several months ago and had been repaired. A fair estimate of the entire loss would not reach over $5,000. Whether any insurance was carried could not be ascertained, but it is more than probable that there was some insurance on part of the property.

If You Wish to Keep Your Wheel,

If you are the owner of a bicycle and wish to be certain of retaining possession of your wheel it would be a wise plan to purchase a strong lock and put on it whenever you are not using it. A fair estimate of the bicycles stolen here during the past few weeks would place the number at about 25. Yesterday two others were left on the street by their owners who upon returning failed to find them. Evidently the persons stealing them are taking them away from this city as none of them are ever seen again.
