are less than two in a million; they will remain just as frightened for all this mortuary knowledge. And after the storm has passed and nerves are steadled the woman who was so trightened a few minutes before will start getting supper on the gas store, smilling through her tears that the danger has all passed and only laughing if you venture the remark that twice as many people are killed by gas stores as by lightning—Country Life in America. Learned His Own Value.

A husband and wife combination in vandeville, with the busband as the feeder and the wife as the reat attraction, worked for Lew Fields in one of his summer shows. The two were very popular and got much new-paper space; also they had $1,000 a week. One day the husband, puffed up by what the newspapers said about the singing of his wife, went in to see "Mr. Fields," he said, "it is $1,200 a week from now on for us or we quit "Twelve hundred, eh?" Fields asked, with interest. "Yes, sir, $1,200 a week or we quit and go out on the big time in the Morris circuit." "Well, sonny," said Field, "I think an awful lot of your wife's work, but don't think she is worth $1,175 a week to me."—Saturday Evening Post.

Theory and Practice.

Here is a good story from the colle tion of a German school inspector. The pupils were being examined on the subject of personal hygiene, A boy was asked, "What have you to do in order to keep your teeth sound and white?" "Clean them," was the prompt reply. "When ought you to clean them?" "Morning, noon and night." "What are they to be cleaned with?" "With a toothbrush." "Very good. Have you a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "Has your father a toothbrush?" "No. sir. "Has your mother a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "But how do you know about the use of toothbrushes?" "We
