VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

WAKE UP THE DEAD CLOCK.

ANY women are better savers of money than nen. It is often a piece of wisdom for the bread winner to put the household financial affairs into the hands of his wife. A regular allowance for housekeeping expenses should be managed so wisely that something could be saved every week. A check can be drawn to pay for a purchase in the exact amount required. There is no making change, no chance for a mistake.

The farmers are looking with faith and works combined, where they have lost for a few years, to make a find thus year. In some cases better preparation is being made, and especially for the corn crop. The boys of this and other atates are beating some of their fathers raising corn, and it is atimulas ling some farmers to renewed efforts in the production of this very important crop in our great corn section.

We hope to see our citizens aroused on the subject of the Farm Life School in our county.

The good people of New Harn looked forward with great segerness, for a look two when a clock should adorn the top of our handsome Federal bandsing. Congretement Thomas had worked harden senson and out of season, for an appropriation for it and thus again for move appropriation.

At a creat expense a tower was built and a clock was pinced in it. Such a clock as this never been seen in the second before, one that any city might be proud of.
