

The natural laws govern the development and growth of cities. First location, then the first nuclei of a citizenship that co-operates...

Local standing together on every local matter. Local betterments, continually. The promotion of industries that are suitable to the environment, and the securing of all others that can possibly be brought in by local inducements...

With such a progressive movement cities are created. Like success, cities grow tremendously because its citizenship works towards and upon lines that make successful growth. Men rush to cities because of this very apparent success...

But the opportunity exists somewhere about the city, and while thousands must contribute their hours, their labors, even their lives for the few who accumulate vast wealth, yet this same opportunity lurks ever in the great metropolis, to attract outsiders to attempt the securing of this opportunity and making it win them honor, fame or wealth, or all three.

While the metropolis has the greater drawing power of men within its borders, yet every town or small city can attract men, if its citizenship shall make the proper endeavors. Every community has at least one attractive feature, and others can be developed. It is just a question, a local issue, will the effort be made? And it is not just gaining desirable citizens that is all that is involved in making a place attractive...

For less than the local attractions that make life pleasant, and there is created the dialike, a dissatisfaction, locally. Women and children find nothing to do, to amuse them, and the men are soon looking outside for a new home. Make the local situation attractive in every way possible, and people will rush in, and add their effort and weight to further the local betterments already begun.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Parke

The Mikado, in an autograph letter, congratulates President Diaz upon his recent re-election.

Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough remedy I ever used as it quickly relieved a severe cough that had long troubled me.

President Diaz's Cabinet was officially announced yesterday, Costa being named War Minister.

Faded in Health

"My mother died six years ago," writes Miss Ruth Ward, of Jerseyville, Ill., "and left me to care for six children. I had never been strong, and this, with the shock of her death, was too much for me."

I faded in health, I was tired all the time and did not want to go anywhere, nor care for company. I had the headache all the time and such bearing-down pains. A very dear friend advised me to take Cardui, as it had done her so much good, so I commenced to use it and now I am in good health.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Women's pains are relieved or prevented and women's strength is quickly restored by Cardui, the woman's tonic. You yourself know best when you need it, or not.

If you do need it, do not delay, but commence to use it at once. Every day of delay, only lets you slide further down the hill.

Don't wait, then, but begin to take Cardui today for its safe, no matter how prolonged, since both you and surely do

Dandierine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!

DANDIERINE is the hair restorer from secretions of skin and scalp. It is not a vegetable. It goes right to the roots, irrigates and strengthens them. Its calibrating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance, as follows: "When I began using Dandierine my hair would not come in my shoulders and now it is over my shoulders."

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

Dandierine enjoys a greater sale than any other preparation regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.

Chance for Office.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces a stenographer and typewriter examination to be held at Goldsboro April 6 and Wilmington on April 8. This may prove a good opportunity for some New Bern boys as it is understood that a vacancy in the local U. S. Engineer Office will be filled by an eligible from this examination.

Dr. D. E. Morris and four of his children were burned to death in their home near Aurora, Mo.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.

When your doctor orders you to stop work, it staggers you. "I can't," you say. You know your work is your life, but you must work as long as you can stand. What you need is Electric Bitters to give you strength and vigor to your system, to prevent breakdown and build you up.

CASTORIA

FOR DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

Nearly all diseases of the skin such as eczema, tetter, salt rheum and hives, are characterized by an intense itching and smarting, which often makes life a burden and disturbs sleep and rest.

Blinding the Odors. It has been proved that two odors which do not seem to have anything in common, that of purified phosphorus and that of pineapples, are so chemically allied that if they be a few minutes in contact an intense smoke is evolved, which is easily made and retained in a small amount of three chloroform-water.

John W. Sackelamith, Greensboro, Pa., has three children, and like most children they frequently take cold. "We have tried several kinds of cough medicine," he says, "but have never found any yet that did them as much good as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy."

An Accidental Omission. The cycle was discarding on machinery. "You say that no man ought to marry a woman who is fat or thin, tall or short, large or small," he said.

WHITE BEER SKINS.

They Passed About an Ounce of One Time in China.

In China, the first century in the world existed with using banknotes, certain skins were so valuable that they were accepted as cash and passed from hand to hand in the same way as banknotes are at the present day.

The Emperor On Ti, being in want of money, gave his treasurer to understand that such a state of affairs must not continue. At that time it was customary for princes and courtiers on entering the royal presence to cover their faces with a piece of skin.

A Faith Cure. Towne—Do I understand you to say that Spender's case was really a faith cure? Brown—Yes. You see, the doctor and the druggist both trusted him.
