OFFICIAL PAPER OF NEW BERN AND CRAVEN COUNTIES.

New Bern, N. C., April 20, 1911.

A PERIOD OF MUNICIPAL UNREST.

The reports from those North Carolina cities that have had primaries this spring, have shown an unusual spirit of local discontent. The papers have merely indicated this discontent, probably the full story would not prove edifying, for there have been bitter animosities engendered, that the decision at the polls has not settled.

Why this unusual rancor among those who have hitherto been political friends, each community must determine for itself. But that the primaries have been bitterly contested is no secret in any city. Perhaps Raleigh has shown the most remarkable primary exhibit, in the registration of negroes and the taking of the Democratic oath by white Republicans. The fact that Republicans have no voice in way of nominating and voting in municipal elections in this State, because their party attempts no ticket, may be the reason for Republicans taking part in so many cities this spring, in Democratic primaries. It is doubtful if a single city can prove an exception in this, the few, it might be said only Raleigh has made a full confession of it. That Republicans are thus taking part in municipal primaries, hitherto exclusively for Democrats, indicates the gradual elimination of politics on strict party lines. This is not unhealthy, where good tax paying Republicans can have a say in their own business, as tax payers of a city.

But the fight this spring in Democratic primaries has been personal, and a family fight is always the fiercest. The May election, to carry out the primary nominations, will settle who is who, as office holders, but it will not settle the bitterness that has been and still exists.

Mr. Fly and his family will soon call. Greet them with well screened windows and doors and save a doctor's bill. We have the Screens. J. S. Basnight Hdw. Co., phone 99, 67 S. Front St.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS
Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is only as strong as its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver, or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may at any time snap. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of exercise, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are caused by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which were excited from the stomach which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The stomach must have a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you will have a strong stomach and a strong body.

STORES IN BURMA.

You Can Make Purchases in Them if You Try Hard Enough.

You may walk through the muddy old markets of Rangoon for hours at a time or through the bazaar at Mandalay without any of the people taking the slightest notice of you as a possible purchaser of their wares. The dear little ladies sit cross-legged upon long tables in front of the high cupboards containing their goods. They are placidly smoking or chatting or painting their faces or braiding their hair. They are not attending to business in the least.

If the European is conspicuously dressed or presents a figure which the Burman, with his finely trained sense of humor, considers at all ridiculous then a gay ripple of laughter passes along the stalls, and then indeed the would-be customer is noticed, but otherwise the tourist is an object of no interest whatever.

It requires a great effort to get a Burmese shopwoman (they are nearly all women) to show you her silks, and when at last she has spread her merchandise broadcast upon the table and you are reveling in the illusion that you are living in the middle of a rain-bow, with a chance of being fast to some of its colors, she will ask her price, which is seldom more than a trifle too much, and will stick to it like glue.

She is an indolent lady in many ways, who loves a quiet life, and she has determined that her most comfortable course is not to haggle in the market place. So you may make up your mind that bargaining and persuasion are useless arts to practice in Burma, however valuable they may be elsewhere. - Blackwood's Magazine.

The Ratort Courtesan.
James Russell Lowell was once a guest at a banquet in London where he was expected to reply to a toast. The speaker who preceded Mr. Lowell said many contemptuous things about the people of the United States, avowing and repeating again and again that they were all braggarts. As American minister at the court of St. James Lowell could hardly overlook this speech, so as he rose he said smilingly: "I heartily agree with the gentleman who has just spoken. Americans do brag a great deal, and I don't know where they get the habit, do you?"

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.
North State Lodge, No. 105, A. F. and A. M., Haselock, N. C., March 28th, 1911.

WHEREAS, The Supreme Grand Master, in the exercise of His Sovereign will, has inflicted irreparable loss on this lodge by the death of our lamented brother, Adam Whitehead; therefore, as a tribute of respect to his memory, and in expression of our appreciation of his Masonic wisdom, we do resolve:

1st, That Bro. Whitehead was an upright Mason, faithful in his allegiance to the benign tenets of this institution, and who, in their fullest exemplification entrusted himself with all his interest to the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, by whom his body will be raised and become as incorruptible as his soul.

2d, That Bro. Whitehead was an affectionate and devoted husband, a kind and loving father, a genial, constant friend and a useful loyal citizen, without enemies, and respected by all who knew him.

3d, That we tender our warmest sympathies to the bereaved family, and pray that God's blessings may attend and comfort them until they are called to meet their departed loved one in the great beyond.

4th, That these resolutions be spread on the records of the lodge, a copy sent to the family and also published in the New Bern Journal.
