HYPOCRISY OF POLITICAL BUYING AND SELLING.

As the political almanac would say, about this season of the year, look out for squalls on the buying and selling of votes.

Political morals are exclusive, that is they belong to one person or one party, as the proclaimer at the moment may be. The proclaimer is above political price as his party is beyond political reproach, and this is applicable to every present political faith and every follower of each particular political faith.

THE SOUND SLEEP OF GOOD HEALTH. Cannot be overestimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southern, East Chira, Wis. says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley's Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley's Kidney Pills have cured me."—F. B. Duffy.

MAYSVILLE NOTES.

Mr. Ernest Mills and Miss Lola Scott, both of this vicinity, were happily married Monday night at the home of the bride, Mr. A. A. Eubanks officiating.

There will be a picnic at Mayville, Wednesday April 26th, under the auspices of Brotherhood Lodge No. 284. I. O. O. F. Everybody invited to come and bring well filled baskets, there will be good speaking by the Hon. Louie M. Davis.

A run-away horse belonging to Mr. G. P. Rodgers created quite a little excitement yesterday, the vehicle was totally demolished, but fortunately no one was hurt.

Friends and relatives were grieved to learn of the sickness of Mrs. R. L. Jenkins, also Hugh Parker, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mattocks. We hope for their speedy recovery.

We understand that a series of meetings will begin soon at the academy conducted by the Northern M. E. Church.

A handsome residence is being built in the southern part of the city for Mr. A. C. Doene. This building will be a costly one, and will add much to the town.

Mrs. Moore of Greenville, N. C. is visiting her daughter Mrs. J. E. Whitehurst.

AN UNEASY FEELING in the stomach or bowels, caused by indigestion or constipation, yields quickly to SIMMONS' RED B LIVER REGULATOR (THE POWDER FORM). It removes all impurities or fermented food, cleanses and tones the stomach and bowels and restores that fine feeling of exhilaration, mental activity and cheerfulness that belongs only to perfect health.

When a Dead Whale Sinks. It happens on rare occasions that a dying whale, "sounding" deeply falls to rise again to the surface and remains in the sea depths after death. The "fish" is not lost however. From some unexplained cause the gases set free by decomposition inside the carcass find their way to the whale's tongue. This organ becomes inflated, resembling a large balloon, and by its buoyancy brings the body of the dead whale to the surface, where it is picked up by the crews. The process of inflation and flotation commences within a few hours of death, and the lapse of two or three days will generally suffice to bring the body of a "lost" whale up from the sea floor.—Wide World Magazine.

AVERTS AWFUL TRAGEDY. Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her sister urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Tough Combination. Probably there is no combination on earth harder to live with than an artistic temperament housed in a bad cold.—Galveston News.

GIVES AID TO STRIKERS. Sometimes liver, kidneys and bowels seem to go on a strike and refuse to work right. Then you need those pleasant little strike-breakers—Dr. King's New Life Pills—to give them natural aid and gently compel proper action. Excellent health soon follows. Try them. 5c. at all druggists.

More and More. The gravest danger in "Hamlet" was a very witty man, wittier far than many of the epithet makers who have adorned banquets with their fling. A sample of the punning rhymes which are cut on tomb follows. It comes from the grave of William More, at Steppay, near London: Here lies one More, and no more than he. The More and no more—how can that be? Why, one More and no more may be less alone. But here lies one More, and that's more than one.

Eye of the Gleaner. The gleaner, which is a very timid animal, is approached with the utmost difficulty on account of its eyes being so placed that it can see as well behind as in front. When approached with great caution, it will often dart with great precision the rapid action of kicks with which it defends itself.

LONDON STREET CRIES.

They Must Have Made the City a Bedlam in Olden Days. London must have been a lively city in the days when the street cries joined in competition with the bell of the postman and the mufin man. The boy who goes round the streets with the early morning cry of "Hot rolls!" still lingers in the outer suburbs, but the old street cries has long been all but dead.

Some of the ancient cries have been collected by Frederick W. Hackwood in his book, "The Good Old Times." They include "Cherry Ripe, O!" "Baking or Baking Apples!" "Green hanging" (these were early peas); "Lavender, sweet lavender, six bunches a penny," or perhaps "Rabbits, wild rabbits," and when there was a good catch of fish it might be "Mackerel, O!" or "Harrings, alive, all alive!" "Some of the cries," writes Mr. Hackwood, "would sound strange to the ear now, as 'Bandboxes,' 'Basket,' 'Buy a broom,' 'Hair brooms,' 'Hot spiced gingerbread,' 'Brick dust,' 'Band, O!' 'Bellows to mend,' 'Chairs to mend,' 'Bill of the play.' More familiar perhaps were 'Old clothes,' 'Cats and dogs' meat' and 'Dust O!'"

"Now we are reduced to little more than the shriek and howl which are supposed to represent milk and coals."—London Chronicle.

FOR CONSTIPATION. Mr. L. H. Franham, a prominent druggist of Spirit Lake, Iowa, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are certainly the best thing on the market for constipation." Give these tablets a trial. You are certain to find them agreeable and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by all dealers.

Willings, but Cautious. "Yes, my daughter eloped." "I suppose you will forgive the young couple?" "Not until they have located a place to board."—Washington Herald.

ONE CONDUCTOR HELPED BACK TO WORK. Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes: "I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism and used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect. The third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., Street Railway. It will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." It clears the blood of uric acid.—F. S. Duffy.

Testing a Hat. Put on your hat and all outdoor regalia, says the London Chronicle, and then go where you can stand between a strong light and a bare wall. Notice your silhouette and note the proportions and symmetry. If these are not artistic or satisfactory, throw away the hat and buy another.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS FOR NEURALGIC SCIATICA AND BLADDER. Idleness is the neighbor of a living man.—Holland.

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup making it pleasant to take. It has no superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by all dealers.

Wonderful Financier. First Sport—Dickens is a wonderful financier. Second Sport—How? First Sport—He borrowed a nickel from me this morning to take him up stairs to see a man that he could borrow $5 from, and with that $5 he blew off another man that he borrowed $5 from.

A Well Known Judge Hands Down an Opinion. The Savoyard Company New Bern, N. C. Dear Sir: From the use I have made of SAVORINE I believe it to be a very valuable remedy for catarrh and colic. It gives almost immediate relief in case of difficult breathing and labored or heavy checks and gives relief in severe coughing. So far as I have had opportunity to use it, which is only a short time, I am much pleased with its efficiency. Very truly yours, T. F. SHEPARD, Bay City, Mich. Judge T. F. Shepard is widely known and highly respected. He is a lawyer of recognized ability. For years he was Circuit Judge of the Eastern District of Michigan.
