REW BERN DARLY JOURNAL	Doct
Fublished every day in the pasy or- cept Menday, Journal Dullding, 55-50 Craves street. PHONE NO. 8.	- He
CRARLES L. STEVENS,	Suffered
SUBSCRIPTION RATES One Year is advance	Mr. B. W. D. Barnes, ex - Sheriff of Warren
Advertising rates furnished on ap- plication.	County, Tennessee
Entered at the Postolics, New Bers R. C., as second-class matter,	in a letter from Mo- Minnville,
OFFTIAL PAPER OF NEW BERN AND CRAVEN COUNTY.	T e n nessee, writes:
New Bern, N. C. April 22, 1911.
OH, APRIL !	trouble and had three doo-

With the month of April more tors treating than two thirds passed, it would me. All failed to do me a ny be sobered down, and the mild, good, and gentle and tender April, with its pronounced flowers, its early vegetables and my health gone. I conspring lamb would break away cluded to from boisterous, rowdy March and try Peruna, and after using four bot ties can say I was entirely cured." be true to itself.

How can it be otherwise, "th' uncertain glory of an April day," when the month is subject to's 12 day draft from March in its beginning, and so must gain the scorn and enmity of those who hasten to cast aside the winter hat eight months without interruption so to appear in the straw hat, that the wind blows into the mud, or scribed brought me no relief. laying away in camphor the raiment that has stood off the wintry blasts to assume garments that all my farm work again. I can heart-April, promising much, catching ily recommend this medicine to any her victim unawares, falsely betrays, and sends the deceived one obtain good results." to bed with cold and fever.

False, perfidious April that promises so much, yet hedged in by blustering March and gentle May, cannot make good her promise, however much she wishes to do so.

"The sunshine of an April day" one of three things a wise man will not trust, and yet how few are the wise, judging by what one sees daily on the street !

But however capricious the first two thirds of April, may not the lines of the poet at last come true? "Old April wakes, and her last dewy

Her death bed sleeps in tears: to hail the May

New blooming blossoms 'neath the sun are borne, And all poor April's charms are swept away.'

VIENNA DEATH NOTICES

ors Said

alth fione

with Throat Trouble

Unable to Work.

Mr. Gustav Himmelreich, Hochheim,

"For a number of years I suffered whenever I took cold, with severe attacks of asthma, which usually yielded

"Last year, however, I suffered for that I could not do any work at all.

The various medicines that were pre-

"After taking six bottles of Peruna two'of Lacupia and two of Manalin, I am free of my trouble so that I can do one who suffers with this annoying

Confirmed His Suspicion.

there were some disadvantages!"

your orders promptly. Don't

to the common home remedie

Texas, writes:

will work"

visit to that ch name of the usual objections, but on account of the death notices in the papers. They appear finited by all most of ada and range in size ac-cording to the deatre for notices on the part of the family of the inte in-mented. Every possible fills is men-tioned, and fine name of givery mem-ber of the family goes to make up the notice. A death announcement black s sampl

Laurs and Hilde-and their sons-in-iaw, Military Surgeon Dr. Lois Kro-binsky and Architect Oskar Jellinek; their daughters-in-law, Louise, born Lederman, and Marle, born Anspacker, as also in the names of their grandchildren'-here follows a long string of names-'and their mother'and motherin-law, Frau Ernestine Winkler, relict of Commercial Councilor Anton Wink-ler, announce to their friends the en-trance into eternal rest, after a long and severe filness, of their dearly beloved son, Arthur, in the twenty-sixth year of his age.' "This is correct except as to the names."-New York Tribune

AVERTS AWFUL TRAGEDY. Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willough

by, of Marengo, Wis. (R. No. 1) pre-vented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Dectors had saudher fright-ful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my'little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble."

one who suffers with this annoying complaint and believe that they will obtain good results." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung trouble, "Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaran teed by all druggists.

A Memorable Occasion. Ben Nathan, the English humorist There should be order in all things. For instance, on one occasion we discovered that the proper method is to hook her party gown first and fix the furnace afterward. Reversing the order cost us $32.50 for a new gown and spoiled her whole evening besides.

THE SOUND SLEEP OF GOOD

HEALTH. Cannot be overestimated and any ail king. and wire cloth. We can fill Duffy.

Lighter at the Equators

the Famous French Painter and His Critic.

An interesting story is told of Jacques Tissot, the great French paint-er. While in England he painted a beautiful religions picture and, meet-ing a country woman, asked her opinion of his work. "It's a chef d'oeuvre," she replied, giving a remarkably just and detailed appreciation of the vari-our merits of the reality micedid usint. ous merits of the really spiendid paintor in every case where it fails to give satisfaction, there can be no doubt. "Are you satisfied?" asked a friend ber of the family goes to make up the notice. A fleath announcement black bordered and covering half a page of the paper is nothing unusual. Here is perience I know what Vinol will do. . I fair critic, who pronounced it ad-"Bruno Weiss, purveyer of Inbri- had a chronic cold all the winter, and nirable and remained silently admirenting oil to his imperial and royal maj-esty, and his wife, Amaila-born Hor. Nothing seemed to help me until I tried sitzky-in their own and in the names of their children-Hans, Otto, Minna, mereled to help me until I tried until the names ing it with smiling criticism. again when the lady had departed. "No," replied the artist, and he set to the cold but built me up and cured me work for the third time. of a severe stomach trouble that had When the Parisienne saw the new bothered me for twenty years. Vinol is certainly a wonderful medicine," (We painting she gazed at it for some mo ments with evident emotion and then without a word sank softly to her guarantee this testimonial to be genuknees and began to pray. ine.)

We ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person or any person suffering from chronic coughs and colds to try a bottle of Vinul with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not do all we claim - F. S. Duffy, druggist, New Bern, N. C.

Appropriate. "Why do they call your new dog

Aviator? "Because be's a Skye terrier."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

If you are going to marry a man to reform him include an ax in your trousseau.-Galveston News.

GIVES AID TO STRIKERS.

Sometimes liver, kidneys and bowels seem to go on a strik and refuse to work right. Then you needs those pleasant little strike breakers-Dr. King's New Life Pills-to give them natural aid and gently compel proper action. Excellent health soons follows. Try them. 25c at all druggists.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

At a regular meeting of the board of Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA We have Screen Doors and Windows, in all sizes and styles, knocked down frames and wire cloth. We can fill

An election is hereby called by the said board of county commissioners, at young children it should be pleasant to made from loaf sug r, and the roots Advice to Girls.

Gandor. Shopper-Can I hang this paper on star."

field.'

myself? Salesman - Yes, sir, but it would really look better on the wall. Harper's Bazar.

Tissot answered in the negative. He entirely repainted his picture, working

When finished he sent again for his

"Are you satisfied ?" asked the friend

"Are you satisfied now?" whispered

the friend, and Tissot said "Yes."-

To Star and to Starve.

Charles Mathews, the English actor,

once went to perform at Wakefield.

where, owing to the depressed state of trade, the drama received no support. He was afterward asked how much money he had made at Wakefield and replied, 'Not a shilling." "Not a shilling?" repeated his questioner

"Why, I thought you went there to star." "So I did." replied Mathews.

"But they spell it with a 've' in Wake-

When a medicine must be given to London Saturday Review.

light and day.

Discretion of speech is more than loquence .- "Tancis Bacon

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

A Double Barreled Grievance. "What is Smith's grievance against the railway company? "He has two grievances. One o them is that some of the trains don't London Telegraph A HEALING SALVE FOR BURNS, North and North-West.

CHAPPED HANDS AND SORE NIPPLES

points

curately filled. Pullman for Winston-Salem leaves Raleigh 2:30 a m, arrives Greensboro on returning home from a visit to this country was expatiating to a friend upon the glories of California. After listening patiently the friend said: "But there must be some disadvan tages in living there?", "No," said Mr. Nathan, "it is a perfectly ideal place. For any man who Detroit Free Press "Ah," broke in the friend. "I knew

