This experience being repeated with two or three other cabmen, the Russian turned indigmently to the police, with no better results. One officer would hogh, another would imp bis head and make a motion imitating the reveletion of a which, and so ou.

Finally the poor foreigner gave it up and with a great deal of difficulty, recalling the tandmarks which he had observed the day before, round his way to his friend's house. Arrived there and in company with one who could understand him, he delivered himsalf of a severe condemnation of the cabmen and the police of London for their impertinence and discourtesy.

His friend asked for a look at the mirth movoking address and the mystery was solved. This was the entry:

Sulphur is a Natural Element of the Hair

When there is not a sufficient amount of sulphur in the hair, it loses its life, color and strength, turns gray, and falls out. There are many forms of sulphur, but only one kind that is suitable for treatment of the hair and scalp, and that is the kind used in preparing WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY.

BALDNESS CURED.

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin, until the top of my head was entirely baid. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulpmir. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair, and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.
