THE VALUE OF AN ACRE.

Never in the history of man has there been so much value in an acre of land. Always has land, the home place, appealed to man. It was the stronghold, the sanctuary, the place of possession to be kept inviolate. The contest has ever been for land between tribes and nations. Territorial acquisition has been the Anglo-Saxon desire, and not always has territory been acquired honorably, yet never has a people complained that Anglo-Saxon rule did not give them benefits.

Acre value today, in many localities has more a sentimental than practical worth. The exodus to northwest Canada caused acre values to rise rapidly, because of the demand from American farmers, who found great prospects in wheat raising on lands selling at ten to twenty dollars an acre, when their American acres were one to three hundred dollars. Irrigation in the far West has made arid territory fertile, vast land wastes have become acres under cultivation producing one to five hundred dollars annually. Southern lands have come under cultivation, cut up into acres and often reduced to town lots.

The natural value basis of an acre should be its productiveness. But it must not be forgotten that the speculative must also be considered, for many an investment of land is made today, not for what it is today producing, but for its prospective value when brought under more modern cultivation. Just how much an acre may be able to produce, has not yet been found out. It is this that makes acreage values without limitation.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sassafras have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.
 In older times the only way to get a body tone of the sort was to have it in the hair. A method which was tried for years, and which was not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every one knows that a body tone can be supplied with a reasonable product, skillfully compounded in scientific laboratories. The World's Greatest Company of New York, Inc. has an ideal remedy of this nature. Wynn's Hair and Scalp Hair Restorer, and authorizes druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as advertised.
 Full particulars are offered in the enclosed circular, which will be sent you free of charge.

SNOBBERY BELOW STAIRS.

The Way English Servants Appraise Their Masters' Aims and Graces.
 Writing on snobs in the New York Tribune, Frederick Townsend Martin, the society millionaire, says:
 We are all familiar with the ludicrous snobbery among English servants that existed in the time of Mr. Pickwick. Not so many of us, however, appreciate what snobbery exists today in the realm of the servants' hall. I was once visiting Baron Ferdinand Rothschild, when my valet came to me and asked if he could go to London by the morning train and get back in the afternoon.
 I said to him, "Why do you want to go?"
 He replied: "Oh, sir, as we are only stopping here a few days, I did not put in my evening suit, and last night, you being a foreigner, I found myself ranked above all the others and had to take precedence of those who were traveling with dukes, earls and viccounts. I outranked them all and took in the housekeeper to dinner. And my mortification was great when I noticed that every one of the men around the table was in evening clothes, and I alone was in my ordinary black suit. By the way, sir," he continued, "perhaps you, being an American, don't know that in the servants' hall the valets and maids are always called after their masters' and mistresses' names. They don't call them Lady So-and-so, but simply by the last name. Thus, Earl Cork's servant would be called 'Cork.' And in the servants' hall they are seated at the housekeeper's table in exactly the same grade and rank as that observed by their masters and mistresses upstairs."

BAD DREAMS

Nightmare, Restlessness and Nightsweats all Caused by Indigestion.
 Half of the nervousness in the world, all of the disturbing dreams and nightmares can be ended in a few weeks by a simple, inexpensive treatment guaranteed by Bradham Drug Co.
 Upset stomach is the cause of nervousness and bad dreams. Your food is lying in your stomach undigested and fermenting; it is forming poisonous gases which irritate the pneumogastric nerve that leads direct from the brain, and ends in a network of tiny branches running through the stomach. It is also the irritation of this great pneumogastric nerve that causes headaches. Many times people have severe headaches and know they are caused by the stomach, but do not know how.
 If you are nervous, have dreams or nightmares, and do not sleep sound at night, get a 50 cent box of MI-O-NA stomach tablets and take one or two after or with meals. MI-O-NA stomach tablets relieve distressed stomach in 5 minutes. Sold by Bradham Drug Co. and druggists everywhere who guarantee MI-O-NA to cure indigestion, or money back.
