MURDER CASE POSTPONED

The Grand Jury Returns True Bill Against Burrill Casey And Wife For Murder.

After a very careful investigation in which a large number of witnesses were examined, the grand jury yesterday morning returned a true bill against Burrill Casey and Leona Casey, his wife, both of whom are charged with the murder of Joseph Whitty, Mrs. Casey's former husband.

Yesterday afternoon when court convened for the afternoon session the prisoners were brought into the court room and arraigned for trial. When the charge had been read to them both Casey and his wife entered a plea of not guilty.

The Solicitor informed Judge Ferguson that the woman would become a mother within the next few weeks, and in view of this fact he would suggest that the trial be postponed until some later date, and that in the meantime she be placed in a local hospital and be given the best of treatment. The judge thought favorably of this suggestion and the case was ordered postponed, probably until the next term of criminal court which convenes in October.

When brought into the court room yesterday afternoon, both Casey and his wife showed that they were greatly excited. He was attired in a coarse cotton suit of a dark color and the collar was thrown open. The contrast between his pallid face and his dark clothing was very marked and called forth considerable comment. The woman was dressed in a red calico dress and wore a brown gingham apron. During the time the preliminaries were taking place her gaze wandered around the court room in a very abstracted manner, and at no time during the proceedings did she exhibit undue interest. From her physical appearance one would judge her to be of a very low mental calibre.

After the judge had rendered his decision that the case be postponed both of them were carried back to their cells, where they will remain until arrangements can be made to have the woman placed in a hospital.

ALLEGED WHISKEY DEALER CAUGHT

S. D. Jones, Of Fort Barnwell, Arrested Yesterday By Revenue Officer.

For some time the revenue officers in this section have known that someone at Fort Barnwell or in that vicinity was engaged in the sale of whiskey. A quiet investigation was made with the result that S. D. Jones, of that place was arrested at Maple Cypress charged with selling whiskey without a government license.

Deputy Marshal Lill made the arrest on a warrant sworn out upon complaint of Deputy Collector Cameron by Commissioner C. B. Hill. Upon being questioned in regard to the matter Jones solemnly declared that he had never sold a drop of whiskey in his life and his arrest was entirely without foundation, but when he was carried before Commissioner A. J. Loftin, at Kinston, three witnesses swore positively that they had purchased whiskey from him.

Despite this fact, however Commissioner Loftin allowed the defendant a continuance until he could have a number of witnesses subpoenaed to prove that he was not guilty.

Pays Loving Tribute To Memory of Mistress.

Fredericksburg, Va., June 15—A simple and touching tribute was paid her "Misia" by an old negro woman a few days ago. Willie Carter, a former slave in the family of the late J. P. Caskley, of Spotsylvania, has been living in California since a short while after the war. She has prospered and a few days before the last Decoration Day she sent a check for $5 to be used in purchasing flowers for her former mistress' grave. This act shows the pure loyalty that still exists among the old negroes for their ante-bellum owners.

THIS MEANS PARCELS POST

Express Companies Under Fire Before Congressional Committee.

Washington, June 15.—War on the express companies has begun in earnest before the House Committee on postoffice and postroads which opened hearings on the parcels post, for which several measures are pending.

Representative Lewis, (Dem.) of Maryland, appeared to support his bill which provides for condemning and purchasing all the express companies. He asserted that the cost of living is now largely influenced by the unsatisfactory method of quick transportation between points of food origin and consumers.

"There are two main reasons why the express companies must be added to the postal system," said Lewis. "First, the express company service does not reach beyond the railway to the farmer, which the post office does, through the rural free delivery. Second, the contracts of the express companies with the railways give them an average transportation rate of three-quarters of a cent a pound, and with this rate the express charges by post would be reduced from two-thirds to one-half as parcels ranging from five pounds to 15 pounds and about 25 per cent, or better weight, as a consequence of the consolidation of the express companies."

PROCEEDINGS IN SUPERIOR COURT

Yesterday Was a Busy Day. Quite a Number of Cases Were Disposed of.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the present term of superior court for the trial of criminal cases, and at the close of the session both the Judge and the counsel were tired out. A large number of cases were disposed of, many of them being of considerable interest, and all during the day the court room was filled with spectators who were interested in the outcome of the different cases.

In the case of the State vs S H Barnett, the young white man who was charged with the embezzlement of $240 from the Hall Tailoring Co., of this city several days ago, and who was arrested at Wilmington and brought to this city and placed in jail to await a hearing, the grand jury failed to return a true bill and he was released from custody. The following other cases were disposed of during the day:

- State vs Will Jones, charged with larceny, guilty; 4 months on the county roads.
- State vs Joe Anderson, larceny, guilty; 4 months on the county roads.
- State vs Charlie Bell, assault, guilty; 60 days on the county roads.
- State vs Robert Jones, carrying a concealed weapon, guilty; 60 days on the county roads.
- State vs Oscar White, Charles Slade and David Bryan, larceny, guilty; six months each on the county roads.
- State vs Ernest Cooper, larceny, guilty; 3 months on the county roads.
- State vs Ed Moore, retailing, guilty, 4 months on county roads.
- State vs Romeo Ebron, larceny, guilty; 4 months on county roads.
- State vs John Gaston, disturbing religious services, guilty; 60 days on the county roads.
- State vs Henry Kerman, larceny, guilty; sentence not yet passed.

Teeth Now Needs Extracting Badly.

Shepard Harrison is a colored man, employed in one of the local livery stables, and takes his meals at the kitchen of the proprietor. Shepard is past the meridian of life, but he likes to conform to the fashion of the times, in dress, spectacles, gold filled teeth, etc. Some time ago a colored dentist set up shop in town, and Shepard forthwith discovered that he needed a new set of grinders, at least part of a new set, six or seven. They were procured and worn with great pride. But pride, it is known, goeth before a fall.

Yesterday morning while Shepard was eating his breakfast, his fake ivory, became loosened and he swallowed them, every one. Now, the pressing object is to get them out of him.

It is far from a joke to Shep. He was taken to the hospital and given medical attention, and his fears alleviated, but it is quite likely that he is scheduled for a surgical operation.
