"THE EXPLOSION FROM OUTSIDE"

The Plates And Supports Are Bent Upward 18 Feet of Wreck Exposed.

Havans, July 20th.—With the berth deck of the demobilized battleship Maine partly uncovered, workmen have started on a systematic search for the skeletons of the remaining dead of the crew whose bodies have reposed in the hull since the night the battleship was blown up.

The work of recovering the skeletons will be difficult as the mud and marine growth is so thick and heavy it will not yield to hydraulics, but will have to be dug out with pick, shovel and rake.

The scene of wreckage revealed, now that the water has been pumped to the 13-foot level, is appalling. The entire structure from "frame eighteen" forward is a twisted mass of shattered steel.

It is known that the officials at work on the wreck believe now it will be an easy matter to prove that the initial explosion was an outside one. The frames which supported the deck plating and planking forward are bent upward, and what is believed to have been the flat keel of the Maine is curved, plainly, it is understood, from the effect of an outside explosion.

The engineers in charge of the work started the lying of the foundations for the cranes and derricks which are to be used to remove the heavy portions of the wreckage. They are also inspecting the central bulkheads. If the latter are intact they will be closed and the after part of the wreck will be floated and towed out of the harbor.

The cofferdam is holding tight. The stone dumped to strengthen the leaky portions has strengthened the structure so there is now no apparent danger of it collapsing. The work of getting out of the mud, which now enshrouds the entire wreckage, will prove most difficult and more costly than was at first anticipated.

Struck by Lightning.

Information received in this city yesterday stated that Oscar Grantham, a colored farmer who lives near Havelock, was knocked unconscious Wednesday afternoon by a bolt of lightning that struck a tree in his yard. Grantham had been working in his garden when the storm arose and had gone into the house and sat down in a chair near one of the doors. When the lightning struck the tree, which was near the house, Grantham fell from the chair and it took his family more than half an hour to revive him. The shock was felt by the other members of the family.

The Savodine Co., New Bern, N. C.

We have derived so much benefit from the use of SAVODINE, that we wish to add our testimony to the list of those already acquainted with its merits.

My wife has been using SAVODINE for quite a while for cold in the neck, and has found it a ready relief for CATARRH but above all that, is the fact of its having proved itself invaluable to us for our baby. A short time ago he was taken very sick, and as he would clap his little hands to his ear, we decided he must be suffering with earache, and realizing that something must be done at once, we put a tiny bit of SAVODINE in his ear covered it with warm cotton and in a few minutes he was sleeping as sweetly as though he had never had a pain. We thoroughly recommend Savodine as we will always be grateful for Bill Before New York Senate To Prevent Use of Benzoin of Soda Probably Killed.

Albany, N. Y., July 20.—The canners' lobby has probably killed the bill of Senator Stilwell, which prohibits the use of benzoin of soda as a preservative in goods sold in this State. The bill is now at the foot of the Senates general orders calendar and, in the natural course, cannot be reached before the recess is ordered on Friday.

The fight on the bill has been very bitter. It was prepared by Dr. Henry S. Blackmore, who was forced out of the Agriculture Department at Washington. When the bill was introduced the canners' lobby immediately opened war on it.

SHORT PASSING EVENTS

The police of this city are getting right down behind the vagrants and that class of undesirable will soon be a thing of the past, for a few months at least. A few weeks ago there was a horde of these unemployed men, both white and colored, loafing around the various public places in New Bern and it was necessary for the Mayor to issue an order to his officers to bring them before him to make them seek employment.

The soldier boys left for encampment at Camp Glenn, this morning at 3 o'clock and will be gone a week, returning to the city next Thursday morning. The boys are anticipating a jolly time as well as instructive one in military tactics and they left in high glee. On the train bearing the Kingston contingent, including hospital corps, band and company B, were two companies from Goldsboro and one from Clinton. Kingston Free Press 20th.

The revenue officers are finding but little to do in this section of the State just at this time. While in conversation with one of these gentlemen several days ago he informed the writer that not before in years had there been so little illicit distilling and that they had known of only one retelling case within some time. The risk is so great and the profit too small for them to often attempt the manufacture of whiskey within prohibition territory.

Since Messrs M. E. Whitehurst & Company have remodeled the interior of their store on Follock St. and added a new stock of goods the entire appearance of the place has been changed and they now have one of the most complete and modern stores of its kind in this section of the State. Mr. Whitehurst stated to the writer yesterday that they intended putting in stock one of the most complete lines of china goods now on the market and that they would carry a large line of tin and enamel ware in connection with their book department.

CHOLERA CAUSING MUCH ALARM

Whole Country May Be Called Upon To Help Repel Asiatic Scourge.

New York, July 20.—The health officers not only of New York, but of the whole country may be asked to help repel the threatened invasion of Asiatic cholera. The discovery of five "cholera carriers" among the 400 immigrants undergoing bacteriological examination at Quarantine emphasized what Health Officer Doty has said about the difficulty of confining the disease to the quarantine hospitals of ports of entry.

Dr. Doty is conferring with Surgeon-General Wyman, head of the United States marine hospital service to plan how the country may be protected against "carriers" who harbor the germs, while themselves free from their ill effects.

A system of general observation is contemplated, so that even after the "carrier" is released from quarantine the health authorities of the place where he settles may watch for possible transmission of the disease.

The case of these cholera carriers presents a puzzle.

As yet the health authorities have not decided how soon it will be safe to permit them to be at large. Only the careful system of bacteriological examination put into effect here when cholera appeared could, it is said, have detected the presence of cholera germs in these apparently healthy persons.

The following bulletin relating to the cholera situation was given out at Quarantine at 9 a. m.

"At Hoffmann Island early this morning Domenico Rancitelli, aged 68 years, one of the steerage passengers of the steamer Moltke, was taken with symptoms suspicious of cholera. At the Swinburne Island Hospital no further details have occurred. On board the Anchor Line steamer Perogias cautions are satisfactory.

London, July 20.—According to figures received in this city the deaths from the plague in India have reached the enormous total of 650,690 for the half year ended on June 30.

The disease has taken such a hold on that country that its ravages are little heard of except through the occasional official statistics.

The British India office in recent reports stated that the epidemic was particularly virulent this year and that the most persistent efforts to stamp it out failed to effect a permanent improvement in the situation.

Fifty Half Pints of Whiskey.

Fifty half pints of Maryland whiskey were confiscated yesterday morning by policeman Daugherty. The officer had seen the whiskey delivered to a colored drayman at the Trent river warehouse and decided to make an investigation. The bag in which the whiskey was located had been wrapped in several tow bags, and upon tearing these away it was found that there was no address on it. The drayman told several conflicting stories as to whom the "booze" belonged, but as none of these were satisfactory the officer decided to take the box and its contents to the city hall where it is now being held awaiting an owner.
