MUST TAKE IT WHETHER OR / NOT.

Some weeks ago it was intimated that New Bern could have a Postal Savings Bank if such an institution was wanted here. Men prominent in local affairs looked the situation over, and all who were consulted said such a bank was not needed, that local banking conditions were very favorable for all depositors and money savers, and that the Postal Savings Bank had nothing to offer in comparison, as a help to money savers.

All this was sent to Washington City, but the wise men up told them, and so this city is to eign population, no doubt draws out money that would otherwise be hidden in bureau drawers and banks. But in New Bern the foreign population is possibly one per a bank account and bank accommodations are always wanted.
