LOWER PRICES FOR PRODUCTS

Notwithstanding Reports of Short Crop Prices Are Gradually Dropping.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The problem of the high cost of living apparently is being solved, at least so far as farm products are concerned, for the farmers are getting lower prices for their products this year than they received a year ago according to official figures issued by the Department of Agriculture. ### SOUTH CAROLINA GOVERNOR ANGRY

Denied Being Rude To Woman Ticket Agent And Will Have Revenge.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 11.—News-paper publication of a statement, with a sworn affidavit, that Governor Coleman, Blaise had been rude to Miss Mary J. Rogers, railway ticket agent at Belton, S. C., was followed by the revocation by the governor of the commissions as notaries public of J. B. Alexander, who made one of the affidavits that the governor was impolite and of J. A. Horton and J. A. Merritt, before whom the affidavits of Mr. Alexander and Miss Rogers made.

Governor Blaise issued a statement, saying in part:

"I have cancelled the commissions of the three notaries public taking part in this dirty transaction and some other people will hear from it later. Everyone who has known me from my childhood up, will certify to the fact that I have at all times and on all occasions to everybody, and I am particularly so to ladies, and I am satisfied that my friends do not believe that I was disrespectful on this occasion."

Dry's Wont Give Staunton Up.

Staunton, Va., August 11.—Something of a sensation was sprung by the dry leaders when they made known late this afternoon that a notice of a contest of the recent wet and dry election had been filed, the election having gone wet by 102 majority.

The main ground for contest is that the registration list was not legally certified to by the city treasurer and corporation judge, showing that all poll taxes were legally paid.

Judge W. R. Staples threw out the Roanoke election on this ground and it is claimed that Judge Holt will either have to do the same thing or reverse the opinion of Judge staples.

Standpaters Will Back Up Mr. Taft.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Stand pat Republican leaders of Congress informed President Taft they would fight to the last ditch before they allowed either the Senate or House to pass any measure over the President's veto.

"We don't propose to let any attempt at making laws over the head of the President go through without a fight," said Republican whip John Dwight.

Senator Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, endorsed this statement.

A Well Known Man's Opinion.

The Savodine Co., New Bern, N. C.

We have derived so much benefit from the use of SAVODINE, that we wish to add our testimony to the list of those already acquainted with its merits.

My wife has been using SAVODINE for quite a while for cold in the head, also has found it a ready relief for CATARRH but above all that, is the fact of its having proved itself invaluable to us for our baby. A short time ago he was taken very sick, and as he would rasp his little hands to his ear, we decided he must be suffering with earache, and realizing that something must be done at once, we put a tiny bit of SAVODINE in his ear covered it with warm cotton and in a few minutes he was sleeping as sweetly as though he had never had a pain. We cheerfully recommend Savodine as we will always feel grateful for what it has done for us.

TOGO SEES UNCLE SAM'S SHIPS

Japanese Naval Hero Marvels at Immensity of Our War Boats.

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—A semblance of the future strength and resourcefulness of the United States navy, was revealed to Admiral Count Togo when he went aboard the giant battleships Utah and Arkansas as they lay under construction on the ways of the New York Shipbuilding Co., on the Delaware river. Alongside the American ships he saw the monster dreadnaught, "Morona," being built for the Argentine government with a displacement of 28,000 tons, the largest man-of-war yet to be created.

The glimpse which the Japanese sea-fighter obtained of the battleships of the future made a deep impression upon him.

A formal call on Mayor Reyburn at the city hall, returned a half hour later by the latter, began a day of activity by the Japanese. He inspected the Philadelphia navy yard, saw the battleship Minnesota in drydock and the Keatswago a few yards away. He was given a luncheon by Capt. A. W. Grant, United States navy commandant of the Philadelphia navy yard, at which all the naval officers stationed here were present. After an exchange of toasts to the Emperor of Japan and the President of the United States, the party boarded a yacht for a ride up the Delaware to the ship yards, a salute of 19 guns being fired.

On board the yacht Admiral Togo lauded the work of the Japanese, who had received their tutelage in the United States navy, indicating that almost every one of these officers had won distinction in Japan.

Madame Cyrena, Palmist Here.

A little more than a year ago there arrived in the city of Raleigh a Palmist that startled the people of that city by her marvelous revelations. This was Madame Cyrena. For a year she stayed in that city and gave general satisfaction. A few days ago she arrived in this city and secured the suite of rooms over the Bradham Drug Co., and is now located at that place. Without any doubt, she is the most wonderful palmist that has ever visited this city and you should not fail to visit her. The charges for her readings are nominal and you will feel each time that your money has been well spent. Visit her at once, for her stay in this city is limited.

Glittered, But Not Gold.

A citizen of Jones county arrived in the city yesterday morning with a piece of slate through which ran a vein of some mineral which very much resembled crude gold. The gentleman in question found this on his farm, and thinking it was a specimen of the precious metal, and that there was more on the place, was very jubilant. He went at once to one of the local jewelers and had him to examine his find but imagine his chagrin and surprise when told that it was only a piece of slate on which some one had painted a line with gilt. He returned home last evening a sadder but wiser man.
