The contestants were the Central Citys of Syracuse and the Athletics of Philadelphia, and the score was 41 to 12

The game was delayed a half hour by the difficulty in finding an ampire. Then the report goes on to state:

"The game opened loosely upon both sides, and at the end of the first innings the score stood Athletics 5. Centrai City 4, each side making its tailies promptly from the loose playing of the out club. After the first inning the Athletics played more cafefully, while the Central Citys grew more careless until the fifth inning, when they became more demoralized than was the Union army at the battle of Bull Run.

"Considerable dissatisfaction was manifested and expressed, and in two innings rightfully so, at the evident one sided decisions of the umpire.

"We will not particularize, but suffice to say that several of the players on both sides did well, while others, especially the Central City side, were The following is the

"Is that wise?" she ventured to remonstrate. "Won't the excitement over what is going to happen in the next number have a bad effect?"

"No. Even if it does it will be coun teracted by the encouragement. Sick people have queer fancies. One of the queerest pertains to literature. Feed patient's mind with nothing but short stories and he will certainly get into his head that he is going to die so soon that it isn't worth while to start him on a long one, and he will droop accordingly. But give him only yarns of the to-be-continued-in-our-next variety and he will take it for granted that you expect him to get well so he can finish the story, and he will perk up amasingly. Just try it."
