TAL PAPER OF NEW BERN AND CRAVEN COUNTY.

Bern, N. C. August 26, 1911.

UDSON HARMON FOR AGRI-CULTURAL PROGRESS

Among the many State interest vanced by Governor Harmon, of Ohio, his help to the farmers has seen notable as the following will show. Judson Harmon is a man who does things, who wastes no time, who cares for all the inter- a ramrod in his hand, was bustly enests submitted to his care. If his rule is wise over a state it will be over a nation as President. Governor Harmon is one of the strongest characters ever found in the foreranks of the Democratic party, a man who lends dignity and force to a party.

First of all a decent respect for the farmer and his calling has been inspired and firmly establish. ed. A law has been enacted that values the property of the railroads and big corporations up to equality with that of farm property- Every county may now establish an experiment station of its own. Eliminated the fertilizer frauds which existed for years prior and which were an economic loss of millions of dollars to the agricultural interests.

Established a State Serum Farm and Research Institute for the protection of live stock interests.

Increased the appropriation of money for the suppression and prevention of contagious and infectious diseases among live stock from $5,000 to $90,000 a year.

Introduced pruning and demonstrating work which has resulted in saving thousands of seres of orchards and rejuvenating the fruit interests in the State.

Under his administration over $100,000 have been appropriated for the holding of five days agricultural schools in each county of the State.

The funds available for farmer Carre of the Louvre, in Paris. institutes, four in each county, have been increased from $22,000 to $30,000 per annum.

A bureau of Bee Inspection has been established, which has stopped the ravages of a disease that terests of the State.

The enactment of a law making it compulsory to teach agriculture DOLLARS for each and every ease at aight bed soon claims one. I select in the public schools is one of the crowning events of his efforts and administration.

A thorough and rigid inspection of commercial feeds and fertilizer, the result of which has been to compel the lisening of almost twice as many brands, and thereby doubling the revenue to the State from these sources.

Liberal appropriations for the running of agricultural trains throughout all parts of the State, and which have been of great edncational value.

Liberal and unprecedented appropriations for the support of the Experiment Station at Wooster and the sub-stations four in num-field court house, Va., and the introduction of testimony will her in today.

Appropriations providing for a complete soil survey of the entire LIVED

Wanted-Two Good Murderers ne curious letters passed between Garrick and a man named Stone. The latter was employed to get recruits for the low parts of the drama, and one night he wrote to Garrick, "Sir, the bishop of Winchester is getting drunk at the Bear and swear he will not play tonight."

At first sight this seems peculiar conduct for a bishop, but it should be ex-plained that the communication only refers to the man engaged to take that character in the play of "Henry VIII." On another occasion Garrick wrote to Stone: "If you can get me two good murderers I will pay you handsomely particularly the spouting fellow who keeps the apple stall on Tower hill. cut in his face is just the thing. Pick me up an alderman or two for Richard' if you can, and I have no obection to treat with you for a comely
