VICTIMS OF HUMOR.

Proctor Knott and "Sunset" Cox recalled their Funny Taps.

The late Proctor Knott seems to be remembered chiefly as the author of the famous Duluth speech made in the New York World. Yet he was a great lawyer, and as chairman of the house committee on the judiciary he had to do with serious and vastly important affairs. Mr. Knott's single appearance as a humorist fixed his reputation for all time, and no amount of profoundly serious work could change it.

Samuel S. Cox had a similar experience with greater reason. For to early life he had cultivated the ribbles quite devotedly. Mr. Knott lived long enough to perceive that he was to be identified not with learning or public service, but with an oratorical exaggeration, and Mr. Cox found in his maturity that the speaking, the goal of his career, was denied him because it was no place for a funny man.

Although never a humorist, Proctor Knott accomplished something with satire and irony in which most men fail. He made himself understood. Everybody knew that he was joking. Nobody ever demanded an explanation of his remarks on Duluth or a retraction or an apology. From that viewpoint, therefore, he was one of the successful men of his generation.

MARK ANTONY'S TRICK.

It Worked Like a Charm Till Cleopatra Learned the Secret.

According to Plutarch, Cleopatra was a votary of the pleasurable art, and so keen did the rivalry become between her and Antony that he resorted to the meanest artifices to insure victory. Mortified and irritated by the queen's superiority, he engaged divers to take live fish and place them on his hook. This was done so expertly that he pulled up fish after fish in rapid succession. Learning in some way the secret of his sudden success, Cleopatra pretended to congratulate him and to admire his dexterity, and at the same time she devised a cunning theme of revenge.

Another match was arranged, and the fishing began in the presence of a large company of friends. Antony soon had a bite and pulled up a large salted fish to his great disgust and amid the loud laughter of all present. The secret was out; Antony's trick was exposed, and once more woman's wit had proved too much for man's ingenuity. A diver, specially instructed by the queen, had got the start of Antony's and attached the salt fish to his hook.—Mathews in "Angling."

TORTURED FOR 15 YEARS.

by a cure-defying stomach trouble that baffled doctors, and resisted all remedies he tried, John W. Modder, of Modderville, Mich., seemed doomed. He had to sell his farm and give up work. His neighbors said, "he can't live much longer." "Whatever I ate distressed me," he wrote, "I tried Electric Bitters, which work such wonders for me that I can now eat things I could not take for years. It's surely a grand remedy for stomach trouble." Just as good for the liver and kidneys. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. at all druggists.

SEEMED TO GIVE HIM A NEW STOMACH.

"I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good," writes H. M. Young, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio. "The first few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gave me surprising relief and the third and fourth seemed to give me a new stomach and perfectly good health." For sale by all Dealers.

Very Serious

It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

Honored by Women

When a woman speaks of her silent secret suffering she trusts you. Millions have bestowed this mark of confidence on Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. Every woman there are women who have written to the wonderful working, curing-power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—which saves the suffering woman from pain, and successfully grapples with woman's weaknesses and stammers.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG IT MAKES SICK WOMEN WELL.

No woman's appeal was ever misdirected or her confidence misplaced when she wrote for advice, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets induce mild natural bowel movement once a day.

THE EARTH'S CHANGES.

What the Fossil Remains of Plants and Animals Tell Us.

There was a time when even the polar regions bloomed with many of the splendid and varied forms of life that now adorn the tropics.

The fossil remains of these ancient forms preserved in the bosom of the rocks carry us back perhaps millions of years in the earth's history and show clearly what wonderful revolutions the surface of the globe has undergone since the first plants and the first animals appeared upon it.

Who would think of meeting a rhinoceros nowadays on the prairies of northwestern Canada, unless perhaps a traveling manager should pass that way? Yet at one time, as a discovery of recent years prove, a creature closely resembling the rhinoceros of India and Africa dwelt in that now comparatively cold, snowy and barren region.

Remains of these extinct ancestors of an animal that in our day thrives only in the tangled tropical forests and under the hot equatorial sun have been found buried in the Canadian rocks, where now the cold blasts of winter blow over treeless plains and sweep the flanks of ice incrustated mountains.

The rhinoceros of that remote age was no less formidable a beast than its descendants, for the skull of one of the skeletons discovered is three feet long, while some of its teeth are four inches across.

The fossil remains of many other forms of animals have been found in the same region within recent years.—Harper's Weekly.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT.

New Bern Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of New Bern given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

Mrs. James Day, 99 E. Front St., New Bern, N. C., says, "I suffered terribly from dull, nagging backaches and I had acute pains through my kidneys. Whenever I attempted to stoop or lift, I suffered more intensely and sound sleep at night was out of the question. In the morning when I got up, my back was very lame and sore and I was also annoyed by a kidney weakness. Finally I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from the Bradburn Drug Co., and it did not take them long to remove my aches and pains. I have been feeling so much better in every way since I took this preparation that I willingly give this account of my experience." (Statement given January 25, 1908.)

THE BENEFIT LASTED.

On November 28, 1910, Mrs. Day was interviewed and she added to the above: "I have been free from kidney complaint and backache ever since I used Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago. I willingly allow the continued publication of the statement I gave at that time, as I wish to show my gratefulness for the benefit I received."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

JOY IN THE SCHOOL.

How Infant Classes in Some Foreign Countries Are Handled.

The man in the club had been talking politics with the school inspector until that gentleman declined to discuss the subject any more.

"Well, talk about the youngsters themselves, for a change," he said. "Do you know that both in France and Belgium reading, writing and arithmetic are being omitted from the subjects taught in infant schools? The children are simply taught to be happy instead. And when they bring their dinners to school the food has, under the official regulations, to be put into a basket which must be labeled at the school and set on a special shelf in a clean, airy place. Fancy such regulations in England! Any old newspaper and any cupboard is good enough for our children.

"In Germany toys are provided for play time, and all little children are compelled to bring clean pocket handkerchiefs to school, and they must have a bath once a week.

"In Finland the tiniest children are taught to wash dolls, dust, sweep, look after flowers and so on, and in some Japanese schools a resting room, with a bed, is provided, so that overtired children may have a nap!"—London Answers.

Bill and His Watch.

"Bill, can you give me the correct time?" says one of Bill's friends.

"Sure," says Bill, dragging out his watch. "My watch was just seven seconds slow at twenty minutes of 4 day before yesterday afternoon, and I don't believe it's varied more than a quarter of a second since. It's now twenty-two minutes and seven seconds past 5."

"Thanks, old man," says Bill's friend, who then drops his own watch into his pocket and goes on his way.

Really he wasn't so particular about knowing the time himself as desirous of giving pleasure to Bill, for he knows that Bill is one of the few million men to the world who think each that his watch is a wonder and who feel themselves flattered when their friends ask them for the correct time.—New York Sun.

WHAT IS BEST FOR INDIGESTION?

Mr. A. Robinson of Drumquinn, Ontario, has been troubled for years with indigestion, and recommends Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets as "the best medicine I ever used." If troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at all dealers.

A Matter of Breed.

"They fellers in the office of the Rev. what I call fresh." Deacon Eggs Bullock remarked to his wife at the supper table on his return from his monthly visit to the town of Balston.

"How so, father?" inquired Mrs. Bullock.

"Well, Mr. Bullock said, 'one o' my sermons was from St. Paul's Epistle. He wanted I should find out why they hadn't punctuated his last poem. They sent a copy, an' she said it made her most sick the way they'd applied her beautiful ideas."

"Well, when I'd got landed up to come home I drove round to the Bee office an' compos' room an' beckoned a young feller in his shirt sleeves to come out."

"Now, I says, 'you'll do her a favor if you'll tell me why you didn't punctuate St. Paul's Epistle last poem?'"

"'Corry,' he he. 'I'm not a poet an' I'm a settor.'"—Youth's Companion.

Instead of Liquid Antiseptics—Peroxide

Many people are now using Farnine Toid Antiseptic

The new toilet germicide powder to be dissolved in water is essential. For all toilet and hygienic uses it is better and more economical. It cleans and whitens the teeth, removes tartar and prevents decay. To disinfect the mouth, the deep creases, and purify the breath, it is equally effective. It is a germicide and a deodorant. It is the best and most economical.
