IN THE MATTER OF BE-QUESTS.

It is the natural and accepted thing that a man leaves all or the greater part of his estate at death to his wife, children or next of kin. Very large estates may find tives of the deceased, but usually domestic woolens of the very latest desuch bequests, in comparison with sign, for your fell and winter suits. They may gather at his bachelor quarters, and in various ways there is cemented a daily intercourse of companionship that grows with the years. The man dies. How natural that he should leave each friend some on. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it while alive his friends enjoyed contains no harmful drug. Biliousness is due to a disordered condition of the stomach, Chamberlain's Tablets are essentially a stomach medicine, intended especially to act on that organ; to clean it, to regulate the liver and to banjah biliousness positively and effectually. For sale by all Dealers,

The Biter Bitten. A Philadelphia man went to a dealer to purchase a dozen homing pigeon and was both surprised and delighted at the extremely low price asked fo the birds. The bargain was finally concluded and the pigeons delivered Two weeks later the gentleman hap pened to be passing, when the dealer stopped him and asked him how the birds were getting on.

"I don't know," replied the gentle man. "I have not heard from my friend." "Your friend?"

"Yes: I bought them for a man in San Francisco.

The drafer's faw fell in dismay, and then, with a rueful laugh, be admitted that he had sold the birds so cheaply because he knew that on being released they would immediately return to being bitten.-8t Louis Globe-Denie
