WHALES OFF ALASKA COAST

Four Hundred, the Season's Catch by One Company—Largest 86 Feet Long.

Seattle, Oct. 31.—With a hardy crew of whalers who have just completed a very profitable season along the southeastern and southwestern Alaska coast, the steam whaling vessel Fearless, of the Tyree Whaling Company, has arrived on the Sound.

The season is practically over and one by one the vessels are being laid up for the winter. The Tyree and Resolute have already arrived from the North and the barge Diamond Head, which has been with the fleet, will soon be sent to San Francisco.

Over 400 whales were captured during the season and their carcasses taken to Tyee, Alaska, where the bone and the oil is extracted and the rest of the carcasses converted into fertilizer.

The biggest whale of the season was 86 feet long and was captured by the crew of the Fearless. She gave the Tyree's crew a fierce battle before being landed.

Stoves polished and put up. See Basnight Hdw. Co., Phone 99.

President Taft Designates the Annual Thanksgiving Day.

Chicago, Oct.—President Taft today issued his annual Thanksgiving Day proclamation, calling upon citizens of the United States to celebrate Thursday the 30th, of November next as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer. The proclamation reads as follows:

"The people of this land having by long sanction and practice set apart toward the close of each passing year a day on which to cease from their labors and assemble for the purpose of giving praise to Him who is the author of the blessings they have enjoyed, it is my duty as chief executive to designate at this time the day for the fulfillment of this devout purpose.

"Our country has been signally favored in many ways. The round of the seasons has brought rich harvest. Our industries have thriven far beyond our domestic needs, the production of our labor are daily finding enlarged markets abroad. We have been free from the curses of pestilence, of famine or war. Our national councils have furthered the cause of peace in other lands and the spirit of benevolence has brought us into closer touch with other peoples, to the strengthening of the bonds of fellowship and good will that link us to the comrades in the universal brotherhood of nations. Strong in the sense of our own right and inspired by a strong sense of the rights of others, we live in peace and harmony with the world. Rich in the precious possession and abundant resources which with the unstinted bounty of God has endowed us, we are unashamedly glad when other people pass onward to prosperity and peace. That the great privilege we enjoy may continue and that each coming year may see our country more firmly established in the regard and esteem of our fellow nations it is my prayer that should arise in every thankful heart.

"Wherefore, I William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America, designate Thursday, the thirtieth of November next as a day of thanksgiving and prayer and I earnestly call upon my countrymen and upon all that dwell under the flag of our beloved country then to meet in their accustomed places of worship to join in offering praise to Almighty God and devout thanks for the loving mercies He has given us.

"In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused this seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Chicago, this thirtieth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty sixth.

By the President,
"F. C. Knox, Secretary of State."

A REAL BARGAIN

Owing to the fact that my business requires my attention and presence at another place, I have decided to place my house and lot on the market. The lot contains 3 acres of the best land in the vicinity of Clark's. The dwelling house is new and modern, and the out houses are in the best of condition. A fine young orchard is also located on the lot, also a fine grape vineyard. I will sell this place cheap to the proper person. If interested write to or see me at once.

GRANTED CONSTITUTION TO CHINA

Providing Parliament Revision Existing Constitution, Military Force For Orders, Killing Reports.

Peking, Oct. 31.—The Government issued its expected edict granting practical constitutional rule for China.

Reports of Harkow's capture by the Imperial troops last Friday are confirmed today, though it is said the Imperialists' position is now strong, and the rebels are expected to regain possession of the town soon unless it is decided to accept the throne's offer of concessions to the revolutionists.

Five hundred rebels were killed and 1,500 wounded in Friday's fighting. They were enormously outnumbered, and suffered a cross fire from the fleet under Admiral Sah—previously reported captured—at the same time the Imperial land forces were attacking them. They fought desperately, and when they retreated did so in good order. Today the loyalists are threatening attacks on Wuchang and Hanyang.

The Rev. A. H. Kepler, the American missionary wounded, proves to be in a more serious condition than at first reported. He was struck in the neck by a bullet while watching the fight from the roof of a building in the Japanese concessions. His shooting was undoubtedly accidental.

The Imperial edict apologizes for its neglect in not having bowed to the people's wishes sooner. It promises to exclude the nobility from the new Cabinet and extends free pardon to all rebels.

The edict, as already forecast provides for a Parliament, revision of the present effective Constitution, the substitution of civil for military methods of maintaining order, responsibility of the Cabinet to Parliament instead of the Emperor, and curtailment of the latter's power to a point considerably less for example, than that of the President of the United States.

TOBACCO TRUST SAYS PLAN IS REASONABLE. INDEPENDENTS SAY WILL GIVE TRUST GREATER TRADE MONOPOLY.

New York, Oct. 31.—The United States Circuit Court, to which was referred by the United States Supreme Court the task of passing upon the reorganization or plans proposed by the American Tobacco Company has begun that work.

Despite the widespread interest in the fight being made by independent growers against the plan proposed on the grounds that if approved the trust will gain even a greater monopoly in the tobacco trade, there were very few in court when proceedings began.

Judge Lacombe, presiding, announced that the attorneys of the American Tobacco Company would first present their plans. Following this representatives of the security holders and attorneys representing the independents and other outside interests, will be heard. The American Tobacco Company will then be given an opportunity to answer the objections of the various opposing interests.

Attorney-General Wickersham will be heard after all the other speakers have concluded. Lewis Cass Ledyard, of counsel for the Tobacco Trust, was the first speaker. He opened with a general argument for "a sane and reasonable plan of a justment" and pictured the "dire disaster" that might follow the appointment of a receiver for the trust. A receivership, he said, would force the security holders to protect themselves, and would result in the strongest kind of monopoly of the tobacco business of the country. The plan under which the trust proposed to reorganize, Ledyard declared, had had the benefit of suggestions from the Supreme Court, from Attorney-General Wickersham and from other high government officials.

In the brief filed by Attorney-General Wickersham the right to intervene any time within five years, regardless of what dissolution plan is approved, is asked. He says it is impossible to tell whether any plan which might be approved by the court would be satisfactory; hence the request for the right of intervention.

The Attorney-General asks that no one of the companies into which the combination is to be broken up shall be permitted to own stock in any of the other companies.

Further to divorce business interests, he asks that the companies be denied the privilege of having the same officers and directors, of occupying the same offices, employing the same clerks or purchasing through the same agencies. The government does not object to each company controlling up to 40 per cent. of the business in its particular line.

Help Secure Aviation Meet.

The subscription list for the Aviation Meet has now reached seven hundred and thirty-eight ($738.00) dollars. Thirteen have subscribed $10.00, thirty-eight for $5.00, five for $4.00, seven for $2.50, four for $2.00 three hundred and seventy-four for $1.00 and seven for 50 cents.

If there is a man in New Bern who has not been approached, in reference to securing his subscription, the management does not know it. Every effort has been made to see everybody. Unless a few hundred dollars is added to the subscription list there will be no Aviation Meet in New Bern. If three-fourths of those who have subscribed for $1.00 will double their subscription this will put the subscription list up to one thousand ($1,000) dollars and the Aviation Meet will be assured.

Now Mr. Subscriber, for one dollar, you will be approached in the next few days in reference to doubling your subscription, so loosen up a little, double your subscription and be instrumental in bringing to your city an attraction that will draw thousands of people to New Bern, November 22 and 23, thus making the Agricultural and Stock Exhibit a great success, giving impetus to a movement which we believe will ultimately mean a permanent fair for New Bern.—J.
