MASSACRE OF MISSIONARIES

Confirmed. American Women Included Among Victims. England Suspicious of Russia.

London, Nov. 21st.—Confirmation of the rumored massacre of foreigners at Heienfu, China, is received in messages from Tientsin to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The number of victims is not stated in the Exchange dispatch. It is only known that most, if not all, foreigners at Heienfu were English and Scandinavian Baptist missionaries.

The rebels seem to have been responsible for the slaughter, since they recently captured the city from the Imperialists.

Reports of a massacre of French missionaries in Lolos territory, south of Szechuen province, still lack confirmation, but the gravest fears are entertained. The actual outbreak of anti-foreign violence in China is causing the deepest anxiety in government circles here. Not only is it feared that the Heienfu outrage will be followed by murders of foreigners all over China, but since it is evident that outside intervention cannot be longer delayed, the danger of friction between the powers becomes imminent. It is of Japan and Russia that England is most suspicious. It has alliances with both but trusts neither very far. The English believe the Czar and the Mikado have long had a compact for partitioning China, to the exclusion of other powers. Anxiety was intensified by Saturday's landing of Japanese troops at Chifu without what was considered her adequate reason at the time. News that Russia has been secretly partially mobilizing in Eastern Siberia is considered another dangerous symptom.

Further messages from Tientsin say there were about 25 Europeans at Heienfu and an American woman physician, Dr. Young, the wife of one of the Scandinavian missionaries. It is now understood at Tientsin that they were included in a massacre of Chinese of Heienfu.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES

New Bern Bar Will Pay Tribute to the Late Hon. Chas. C. Clark Tomorrow Between 12 and 2:30 O'clock.

Upon the convening of yesterday's session of superior court, which is in session here this week for the trial of civil cases, ex Judge Henry R. Bryan announced to the court the death of Hon. Chas. C. Clark, which has occurred since last term of court, and on behalf of the members of the New Bern bar requested the court to take a recess tomorrow at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of giving the Bar an opportunity of paying memorial tribute to the distinguished deceased. Whereupon it was ordered that on Thursday of this week at 12 o'clock, noon, the court take a recess until 2:30 o'clock for the purpose of holding suitable memorial exercises.

The regular business of the court was then taken up.

In the case of Fulcher & Gaskins, a land suit, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant.

In the case of Wiggins vs Norfolk-Southern Railway Co. The jury awarded the plaintiff damages in the sum of $450.

The case of Burrus vs Witcover was next taken up. This resulted in a non suit and will be carried to the Supreme Court.

ANNUAL ELECTION HELD MONDAY

Daughters of the Confederacy Elect Officers For the Year. Resolutions of Respect.

Monday afternoon the Daughters of the Confederacy met in their rooms at Wolfenden hall and held their annual election of officers. The following were elected for the year:

Mrs. Dets Roberts—President.
Mrs. T. G. Hyman—1st. Vice-Pres.
Mrs. J. T. Hollister—2nd. Vice-Pres.
Mrs. R. B. Nixon—3rd. Vice-Pres.
Mrs. F. S. Duffy—Rec. Sec.
Mrs. Thomas Roberts—Cor. Sec.
Mrs. W. P. M. Bryan—Treasurer.
Mrs. Wallace—Registrar.
Mrs. Geo. Henderson—Historian.
Leader of Children's Chapter—Mrs. Hughes Holland.
Assistant Leader—Mrs. Benj. Moore.

At the conclusion of the election the following Resolutions of Respect were offered and adopted:

Resolved; That in the death of Mrs. S. R. Street, the New Bern Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy have lost a most zealous and enthusiastic member. Those who were present at a meeting held in the Daughters hall, on Broad street, will recall an excellent paper, read by her, giving her war experiences. She remembered, as a child peeping through her father's fence, in Danville, Va., to see President Davis. He was to dine next door, and she watched him, both going in and coming out. After being seated in his carriage she saw the gentleman, with whom he dined hand him a bag, which he said, contained gold coins, and which he begged Mr. Davis to accept. It may be interesting to follow this gold. The President was fleeing from Richmond. At Salisbury he was joined by Major Hugh L. Cole, who became one of his body guards. At Washington, Ga., a cabinet meeting was held, the last act of the Confederacy May 6th, 1865.

In parting from his escort, Mr. Davis divided this gold among them. Maj Cole's share is still kept as a sacred legacy. Mrs. Street related many other interesting recollections.

As Vice-President of the New Bern Chapter D. C., Mrs. Street was faithful in the performance of her duties. She was a good neighbor, a faithful friend, warm hearted and charitable, a kind mistress, and a devoted wife and mother.

In the latter part of her life, she was a confirmed invalid. Death came as a welcome release from long years of intense suffering.

The Daughters extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Resolved. That a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the papers for publication, one to the family and one kept among the records of the Chapter.
