$100,000 AND WANTS MORE.

"I can best answer your enquiry as to my opinion of The Union Central Life Insurance Company by saying I carry your Company's limit of $100,000 and would consider another policy if you will raise your limit. I think the Union Central is one of the best Companies in the country. I admire the way they invest their money in farm mortgages instead of stocks and low interest bearing bonds, and I certainly appreciate the rapid increase in my dividends, while in some companies I am insured they remain nearly stationary. It is my opinion that your Company is under an excellent, progressive and conservative management, and I will cheerfully recommend it to the insuring public."
The above letter was written at Omaha, Neb., Nov. 10th, 1910, by the president of a large wholesale dry goods house. Have you an UNION CENTRAL policy? If not, WHY NOT? They are the BEST.
W. G. ROYD, Agent.

Since it became known that a horse race would be held in this city on Christmas day unless some unexpected delay occurred, a number of local owners of racing animals are exercising them daily. A citizen of Pamlico county who was in the city yesterday informed the writer that on Thanksgiving day a party of hunters who were supposed to be from New Bern, set the woods on fire near Stonewall and it was only after the strenuous work on the part of a number of citizens of that locality that the fire was extinguished.

A number of local football players are endeavoring to organize another team for the purpose of playing two games in this city with a team in some nearby town on Christmas day and also on New Year's day. Several players have already been secured and it is hoped that others will join later. If you care to play on this team, communicate with Mr. Lyle Smith.

The visiting members of the North Carolina Fire Association were given an example of how quick the New Bern Fire Department can answer to an alarm when an alarm was sent in from box 24 yesterday afternoon. The first hose wagon arrived on the scene in less than three minutes after the first tap of the bell, and the other wagons and engines were on hand within 5 minutes.

During the past few weeks the Norfolk-Southern Railway Company's conductors whose runs fall on Sunday have had much trouble in keeping loafers who hang around the union station off their trains. Last Sunday afternoon the platforms of the westbound train were crowded with these persons who were heating a ride as far as the coal chute. There is an ordinance prohibiting this nuisance and should be enforced.

If you are a poultry raiser and value your fowls, it would be advisable to keep them under lock and key at least until after the Christmas holidays have passed. During the past few days a number of chicken thefts have been reported. Evidently the guard-rail is collecting a supply of fowls sufficient to supply his needs during the festive season and you should use care to see that not any of your flock is added to his collection.
