Miss Henriette Hancock Becomes Bride of Mr. Claude L. Marshall. Other Social Events.

BEAUTIFUL CHURCH WEDDING

Of interest to North Carolina as well as New Bern was the wedding of Miss Henriette Bryan Hancock, youngest daughter of Mr. Charles Hancock, and Claude Lee Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boman Marshall of Leesville, Louisiana, which was so solemnized in Centenary Methodist church, yesterday morning, at eight thirty o'clock. Rev. J. B. Hurley, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The decorations of the church were entirely of white and green, the chancel was a mass of palms and ferns with love's baskets of narcissi and lighted by hundreds of candles.

The entrance of the bridal party was made to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. Jane Meadows.

The bride entered with her father, Mr. Charles Hancock, she wore a handsome going away gown of brown chiffon broadcloth, trimmed with venetian lace and a touch of hunters green, with hat and gloves to match, her only ornament was the groom's gift, a diamond brooch.

She carried a cornucopia bouquet of Bride's roses.

Mrs. David Congdon, sister of the bride, as dame of honor wore a lovely pale blue embroidered robe, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses.

The groom with his best man, Mr. William Wintle, entered the church from the side door and met the bride at the altar.

"Oh, Promise Me" was softly and sweetly played during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's march was played as the party left the church.

The ushers were: Mr. Edward Hancock, brother of the bride, Mr. Ralph Hunter Smith, Mr. Robert Atkinson, of Norfolk, and Dr. Joseph Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to New Orleans and Hot Springs after which they will make their home in Leesville, Louisiana.

The popularity of the young couple was attested by the many beautiful and useful presents, which they received.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were:

Mr. Boman Marshall of Leesville, La., Miss Sallie Jones of E-enton, Mrs. Claud Barbee of Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. Joseph Congdon, of Newport News, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lane, of Oakley, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Mabrey Hart, of Tarboro and Mr. William Wintle, of Leesville, Louisiana.

NEGRO MAN FOUND DEAD.

Had Fallen Out Of Small Boat and Body Was Partly Submerged In Water.

With his body partially submerged in water and the remainder in a small boat, Israel Gardner, an aged colored man, was found yesterday morning near Mr. Council Brown's Mill at the foot of Medcalf street.

When found only the lower limbs of the body were visible, the head and trunk being almost completely below the water level. Assistance was secured and the body removed from the water and sent to Gardner's home in Smith-town, a suburb in the north western section of the city.

Gardner was known to have been drinking heavily on the previous day and it is supposed that he wandered down to the boat and crawled aboard thinking that he could secure shelter from the cold. Becoming numb he doubtless fell over the side of the boat into the water and drowned before he could pull himself back into the boat.

J. J. Baxter received by express today a good supply of Ladies, Mens and Childrens Rubbers.

Pepsi-Cola Bottlers Here.

The bottlers of Pepsi-Cola, that delicious beverage which is manufactured in this city, are now holding their annual convention in this city. The convention opened yesterday morning and will continue through today. This convention is an occasion of much interest to the men who handle Pepsi-Cola and they look forward to it with much anticipation. The attendance this year is large, despite the inclement weather and each one of the visitors is enjoying his visit to New Bern greatly.

County Teachers Association Meeting Postponed.

The meeting of the County Teachers which was to have been held last Saturday has been postponed until first Saturday in February.

ANTE NUPTIAL RECEPTION.

Tuesday evening at their home on Graves street, Mr. and Mrs. David Congdon entertained the bridal party at a beautiful ante nuptial reception.

The house was artistically decorated, for the occasion, in palms, ferns and trailing bamboo.

The dining room presented a scene of loveliness, as the guests entered, with its profuse bridal decorations.

The centerpiece of the table was a handsome basket of Killarney roses, overhung by smiles, wreathed around the chandelier, perched high at the top were two cups and half way were two more, looking as if they bud, except closer to view the pretty scene below, wedding bells were also suspended from the chandelier. The table was lighted by shaded candles.

A lovely bride's cake was cut by all, Mr. Robert Atkinson cutting the wedding ring, Mr. Charles Hancock the thimble and Mrs. Ralph Hunter Smith the engagement ring.

At eleven o'clock an elegant supper was served.

BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. Raymond Pollock Jellighfully entertained the Bridge Club and a few other friends, Tuesday afternoon, from four to six o'clock, at her home on Middle street.

Mrs. Pollock's home was attractively decorated in bamboo, palms and cut flowers, and the open fires added warmth and cheer to the rooms.

Little Miss Emily Pollock opened the door to the guests and they were received by Mrs. Pollock in the reception hall and invited to have a refreshing cup of tea and wafer.

The tea table was presided over by Mrs. Edward Visk of Rossmore, Va., and Mrs. Claude Fay Jr.

There were seven tables of Bridge and the place cards were lovely past cards.

After two rubbers a green and white tea course followed by ice cream and coffee was served by Miss Hazel Taylor and Agnes Fay.

Among those invited were: Miss Emma Wade of Baltimore, Miss Mary Jane Bennett, Mrs. Mary Bennett, Mrs. J. B. Hurley, Mrs. J. B. Hurley, Mrs. J. B. Hurley, Mrs. J. B. Hurley.

COLD WEATHER STILL WITH US

Ice Covered Neuse and Trent Rivers, Roads Still In Bad Condition Travel Almost Impossible

For the first time in ten years both Neuse and Trent rivers were frozen over yesterday morning. The ice was so thick on Neuse river that nearly in the morning before the sun had sufficient time to thaw the frozen sheet of ice, many skaters were seen on the ice off East Front street. However, it was rather dangerous sport and when one youngster broke through, fortunately in shallow water, the skaters decided that the sport was not worth the risk and returned to their homes.

Snow and ice still cover the streets and roads and it was almost impossible for horses to keep their foothold on the slippery pavements. So bad are the roads leading into the city Postmaster Bassnight would not allow the rural free delivery men to venture out and will not do so until travelling by conveyance is practicable.

Practically the same conditions prevail all over this section. In Pamlico county the roads are in such condition that travel is simply impossible and it is the same in other sections of Craven.

Much of the snow and ice was melted during yesterday and if the sun continues to shed its rays in this section again today, much more of it will disappear and travelling will be easier and safer.
