IT OFTEN HAPPENS

The holes that make their appearance in the dish-pans and milk-pans come without warning, like the ghost that walks at night. No one knows how it happened. We don't mind, of course, because it makes business good for us. The holes are there, and the new pans are here. That's what we are trying to get at. Solid, honest tin, fashioned in convenient, shining pans, etc., waiting to save you many steps and keep the food clean and wholesome. As much honesty has gone into the making of this sinware as goes into a diamond ring.

THREE MORE CONVICTS PARDONED

Raleigh Council J. O. U. A. M. Exercised Over Political Activity of One of its Members

Raleigh, March 5.—John Noyes, a member of the national legislative council of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, has been pardoned by Capital City council, No. 1, for a tempting to have the various officers induce the position of Senator Simmons in his fight to place a literary qualification on immigrants being admitted to the United States. The Raleigh council asks that Noyes be removed from the national legislative council and request another council to join with them in their request. The order, the local council says, is not in politics. Noyes, it is said, tried to secure the indorsement of Senator Simmons' position by illegal methods.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner, state superintendent of public instruction, has returned from St. Louis, Mo., where he attended a meeting of the department of superintendents of the National Educational Association. Two thousand educators were in attendance, and during the meeting a banquet was given in honor of Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States-commissioner of education, 400 persons being seated at the tables. Dr. Joyner responded to a toast, in which he referred to Dr. Claxton as the South's contribution to the nation, praised the ability of the noted educator and commended president Taft for selecting a man for the position because of his fitness rather than his political leanings.

Three prisoners, two of them state convicts, and the other serving a three year sentence, were granted conditional pardons by Gov. Kitchin. The men pardoned are Oscar Potot, convicted in McDowell county in July, 1907, and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years for highway robbery; J. B. Cheek convicted in Yadkin county in 1901, and sentenced to 17 years in the penitentiary for murder in the second degree; and Eugene Fox, convicted in Ashe county in July, 1910, of larceny, and sentenced to three years on the roads.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

A good residence No. 7 Grayes St. near the corner of Union. Easy terms will be given if wanted. Also one building lot on George St., near Pollock C. T. HANCOCK.

Information Wanted.

A letter has been received at this office, written by Mrs. C. A. Bryan, Elkton, W. Va., asking for information of the relatives, if any are living, of Chas. Francis Bryan. The latter was born in New Bern, June 21st, 1844. If any of the Journal readers can supply the information asked for, it can be addressed to this office or to Mrs. C. A. Bryan, Elkton, W. Va.

THURMAN ITEMS.

Thurman, March 5.—We are afraid our many friends will think we are either dead or sleeping, so will have to jot down a few notes to let them know we are as lively as of yore, only a little more busy.

The farmers are somewhat behind with their work on account of the wet weather. No doubt they will appreciate Spring when it does arrive, then there will be "something doing."

People have been kept at home so long that they can stand it no longer, we notice some coming and going.

Mrs. G. L. Hardison left Saturday afternoon for Ocean to spend some time with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Sanders.

Mrs. E. J. Conner and Miss Laura Conner have gone to Behaven for an extended visit.

Misses Jennie, Ella and Annie Conner, of Riverview, were at Thurman Saturday evening on the bride, Mrs. W. A. Cahoon.

Miss Annie Haskett, teacher of the Croatan school, spent Friday night with her aunt, Mrs. Sue M. Haskett.

Mr. W. R. Hardison and sister Miss Leona, of Croatan, came up to visit their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hardison. They attended the shadow party Friday night and returned to Croatan Saturday afternoon. Mrs. R. A. Hardison, Mrs. Cahoon and Miss Ella Conner accompanied them home.

Miss Carrie P. Hardison spent Saturday in New Bern attending Teachers' Association.

The shadow party at Thurman school house was a success socially and financially. The two cakes were bought by Mr. Cathey; he presented one to Miss Gerje N. Hardison, of Croatan, and the other to Miss Carrie P. Hardison, of Thurman. We are pleased to state that the amount raised was sufficient to pay for the new desks. We extend thanks to our good friends who helped us so much.

The R. F. D. route through this section started March 1st, we are glad to get our mail so often, and hope the route will continue in operation.

IMPERIAL TROOPS AT HWANG-HSIEN NEAR CHI-FU, PUT OUT THEIR EYES—HEADS HANGING ON TRIPOLDS AS WARNING.

Peking, China, March 5.—A letter from a missionary at Hwang-Hsien, near Chi-Fu, received here states that the imperial troops put out the eyes of forty Christian converts and then beheaded them saying that they were naturally rebels.

Heads still being warningly on tripolds here and there in the streets of Peking, although some of the bodies have been removed and buried.

Cheng-Ting-Fu, an important city on the railroad, about 100 miles to the southwest of Peking was added to the list of places which have been looted and burned. No details have reached here, but it is thought there need be no fear for foreigners there because the mineers everywhere are observing the same rule of not touching strangers. Parties of mineers returned here intending to resume looting. They were arrested and decapitated. A private telegram says that 2,000 troops mutinied at Kin-Kiang, in the Yang-Tse valley, and looted the town. French and Japanese troops have been dispatched by special train from Pao Ting Fu to bring back their compatriots.

AS THEY MEASURED TO OTHERS

Even so were London Suffragettes Paid Back. Their Headquarters Stoned.

London, Mar. 5th.—The much advertised meeting of suffragettes in Parliament square to protest against the refusal of Premier Asquith to receive a deputaion, proved a fiasco, so far as concerned any sensational display of militant prowess and cunning, which was predicted by the organizers. About fifty women were arrested, but the damage done was inconsiderable compared with Friday's raid.

While the militant suffragettes were vainly endeavoring to break through the cordon of police around about Parliament square, 200 medical students organized a raid on the suffragette premises to pay them back in their own coin. Marching to the building occupied by the women's press in Charing Cross road, where there was a big display of suffrage literature, they bombarded it with stones, smashing all the windows to an accompaniment of cheers from delighted spectators.

Another band bent on retaliation, attacked the international suffrage shop, in Adam street, the Strand, smashing a big plate glass window and wrecking the entire front of the building.

Meanwhile the suffragettes were being balked in all attempts to hold a meeting through elaborate police precautions. Mounted police were stationed at about intervals along the main thoroughfares leading to parliament, while solid phalanxes of officers on foot lined the sidewalks.

Long before the hour for the meeting to begin, a huge crowd filled Trafalgar square, Whitehall and adjacent streets. Notwithstanding the watchfulness of the police, one suffragette succeeded in smashing half a dozen windows in government offices.

A woman chained herself to a tree in Whitehall and, unable to remove the chain, the police uprooted the tree with the suffragette still attached and carried both to the police station.

The aspect of the street gave evidence of the extent to which the suffragettes had terrorized London. Many shops were closed and shuttered long before the usual time. Others were boarded up.

Even in the city far from parliament, banks and other large establishments were protected by shutters and barricades.

Foiled in their efforts to hold a demonstration a number of the suffragettes organized a window smashing raid in Victoria street.

LOCALS.

Onslow County, March 5.—We will try and let the readers of the Journal hear from our burg once more.

We keep having bad weather right on. Today it looks as if we are going to have another big snow. We would be over glad to see some pretty weather now, but spring is not far off, we feel sure that we won't have much more cold weather, and we will feel pleased.

Getting ready to sow the gardens are all the go right now. Some have already sowed.

We have a new neighbor with us this year, Mr. Geo. Howard from Brick Kiln. A cousin has bought the Mr. Ervin place and moved here, we are glad to have another good neighbor.

Mr. Aquilla Ervin, wife and children who have been on a visit to New York and other northern cities for a month or more arrived home last week.

Our school is progressing nicely under the able management of Miss Rosa B. Cox, of Elizabeth.

Mr. Stephen Howard spent Saturday night and Sunday at Little Hill.

What has become of our Little Hill and Lee's Chapel correspondents? Write up and let us hear from you once more.

With best wish to the Journal.
